Media Information

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Working media credentials for the 1995 Alabama football season may be ordered by written request on company letter-head, from the University of Alabama Sports Information Office, P.O. Box 870391, Tuscaloosa, AL 35487-0391. No phone requests will be honored. Requests for single game credentials may be FAXED to the SID Office (205-348-8841), but must be received by Noon on Wednesday prior to the Saturday game.

Credentials for Alabama home games are issued for working media only. Requests are honored from sports editors of DAILY newspapers and sports directors of television stations. Requests will be honored from sports directors of radio stations that have daily sports broadcasts. All other requests will be filled on a space available basis.

PHOTOGRAPHY CREDENTIALS

The University of Alabama follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photo credentials will be issued only to daily newspapers, specialized publications and television stations. Photographers are not permitted in the team areas between the 25-yard lines and must wear an armband at all times. Armbands are not to be placed on legs, other parts of the body nor affixed to cameras or other equipment. No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers, cutline writers, equipment carriers or radio station representatives with the exception of the two teams' broadcast originating networks. Only one armband will be issued per person and identification will be required. Armbands will not be mailed or otherwise issued prior to game day.

PRESS WILL CALL

At Bryant-Denny Stadium in Tuscaloosa, will call is located directly across from the press box elevator on the west side of the stadium.

At Birmingham's Legion Field, will call is located at the base of the press box elevator, also on the west side.

Press will-call will open two (2) hours prior to kickoff.

TELEPHONES

In both the Bryant-Denny and Legion Field press boxes, the University of Alabama has installed 12 courtesy telephones that may be used on a credit card or collect basis only. The telephones are available on a first come, first served basis.

SATELLITE TRUCKS

Due to the increasing number of satellite trucks and the limited parking space available, any outlet using such a vehicle must request a satellite truck parking pass and must have the truck in place at least 10 hours prior to kickoff. Requests for parking must be made by Wednesday noon, prior to Saturday games.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

HEAD COACH GENE STALLINGS

Alabama head football coach Gene Stallings will conduct a telephonic press conference each Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m., from September 3 through Nov. 19. There will be no telephonic conference on September 24. Contact the Alabama Sports Information Office to obtain the proper telephone number.

Coach Stallings will also participate in the Southeastern Conference teleconference with the other 11 league coaches on a weekly basis. Again, contact the Alabama Sports Information Office, or the SEC office, for the time, dates and telephone numbers.

Coach Stallings will conduct a media briefing each Monday morning at 11 a.m. in the media studio of the football complex. Media not able to attend the briefing may access the proceedings. Call Sports Information for that number.

Additionally, coach Stallings will be available each day after practice in the staff conference room in the football complex.

Coach Stallings will be available for brief interviews on Fridays prior to games on the road.

ALABAMA PLAYERS

Every effort will be made to insure that players requested for interviews are made available. However, all requests for player interviews must be coordinated through the Alabama Sports Information Office at least 24 hours in advance. Requests should be directed to Ms. Brenda Burnette at 205-348-6084.

The upper floors of Bryant Hall, the athletic dorm, and team locker-rooms are off limits to media representatives at all times.

No player interviews will be granted after Wednesday of game week. No players will be available for interviews on the road prior to away games.

MEDIA SERVICES

Gene Stallings Teleconference

Conducted by Coach Stallings each Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. Contact the Alabama Sports Information Office to obtain the telephone number to access the teleconference.

SEC Teleconference

Each of the 12 SEC coaches will be featured on a weekly teleconference on Wednesday during the regular season. Contact Alabama or the SEC Office for times and phone number.

Alabama Satellite Feed

Video highlights of Alabama football are available via satellite each Tuesday during the regular season. Contact Alabama for times and satellite coordinates.

SEC Satellite Feed

SEC video highlights will be available via satellite each week during the 1995 season. Contact Alabama or the SEC Office for dates, times and coordinates.

Stallings' Press Conference

Alabama's Gene Stallings will hold a media press briefing each Monday during the season at 11 a.m., in the Football Complex Media Room. Media wishing to interview players may do so at Bryant Hall starting at 11:30 a.m.

FOX-ON-DEMAND

Alabama will participate in the fax-on-demand service. Call Sports Information for instructions to receive this service. This service will be available for all post-game information.

Kareem McNeal (74) and Jon Stevenson (69) hoist Sherman Williams (20) after game-winning TD in 1995 Citrus Bowl.

Alabama's 1995 Football Outlook

The start of spring practice on March 9 signaled the sixth at Alabama for coach Gene Stallings and his staff and if Alabama is to duplicate the 12-1-0 feat of 1994, several questions had to be answered by the time spring practice was concluded on April 15.

Gene Stallings

"The bottom line, I think, is we can take both of those teams and come up with a pretty good football team," Stallings said following the spring A-Day game. "I think we have an opportunity to compete this fall, but there are a few things that we have to change, a few weights that must be adjusted and a player or two that we'll have to get in the right position. I think we'll be ok."

Stallings begins the 1995 season without 12 starters (five on offense, six on defense and one specialist) from the 1994 season. Included in that number is the school's all-time leading passer and the fifth leading career rusher.

But the cupboard is not bare and although only 12 starters return, there are enough who have quality playing time and experience to make a difference.

"As it is every spring, we knew there were questions at key positions," Stallings said. "Obviously, quarterback and center were primary spots, as was the defensive secondary, but following spring practice, I think we all felt a little better about those positions. We have a number of players at those positions who have game experience and can step into starting roles."

Offensively, Stallings and his staff were looking for a replacement for Jay Barker at quarterback and a depleted backfield that lost tailback Sherman Williams and fullback Tarrant Lynch. "Due to the injury to John Causey," Stallings said, "we were also intent on finding a center. Michael Ray came along at that position and we feel pretty comfortable right now."

Returning starters on offense are split end Curtis Brown (6-2, 185, Sr.), left guard Maurice Belser (6-1, 285, Sr.), left tackle Kareem McNeal (6-5, 285, Sr.), tight end Patrick Hape (6-4, 239, Jr.) and flanker Toderick Malone (5-11, 171, Sr.).

On defense, replacements were needed for three starting defensive backs, Tommy Johnson, Sam Shade and Willie Gaston and linebackers Andre Royal and Michael Rogers and defensive end Dameian Jeffries.

Defensively, the Tide returns starting left tackle Shannon Brown (6-5, 266, Sr.), right tackle Matt Parker (6-4, 275, Sr.), defensive end Darrell Blackburn (6-3, 244, Jr.), middle linebacker John Walters (6-2, 225, Sr.) and right cornerback Deshea Townsend (5-10, 170, So.).

The kicking game remains in good hands with placekicker Michael Proctor (5-11, 183, Sr.) returning, along with snappers Chester Lewis (6-4, 236, Jr.) and Jackson Cook (6-1, 260, So.) and kickoff man William Watts (6-1, 180, Jr.). The search for a punter to replace Bryne Diehl was answered in the spring by the ample kicking of Hayden Stockton and Daniel Pope.

OFFENSE

QUARTERBACKS

Kitchens

Gone is record-setting Jay Barker who produced a 35-2-1 mark as the Tide's starter. Aiming for the starting position are Brian Burgdorf (6-2, 190, Sr.), Freddie Kitchens (6-2, 230, So.), Lance Tucker (6-0, 175, So.) and Warren Foust (6-3, 205, Fr.). Burgdorf was the leader following spring, with participation in 18 career games, while Kitchens and Tucker have slightly less experience and Foust is a redshirt freshman.

"Our quarterbacks showed some promise in the spring game," Stallings revealed, "and I think there will be plenty of healthy competition at that position this fall. Freddie was a little heavy this spring, but he knows what is expected of him when fall practice begins. Tucker and Foust both played well in the spring game."

Burgdorf has patiently waited his turn and is now in position to take over the starting role. He has thrown for 735 career yards, but perhaps is best-known for his performance in the 1993 Gator Bowl. Subbing for the injured Barker, Burgdorf completed 15 of 23 passes for 166 yards and a pair of TDs to earn the game's MVP honors. Alabama won the game, 24-10 over North Carolina. His career stats show 64 of 120 attempts for 735 yards, two interceptions and four TDs. Kitchens, who underwent a redshirt season in 1994, played in six games as a true freshman in 1993. He has a strong arm and threw a 77-yard TD bomb to Toderick Malone, his high school teammate at Etowah High School. Tucker, who played in two games last year as a redshirt freshman, has plenty of talent as evidenced by the fact that he was the starting quarterback from his seventh grade season throughout his prep career. Foust led the Tide's scout squad last season and showed plenty of promise.

RECEIVERS

Both starters Curtis Brown (6-2, 185, Sr.) and Toderick Malone (5-11, 171, Jr.) return at their respective positions.

"Our receivers improved in the spring," Stallings offered, "and I expect that to carry over into the fall. We have some skill and depth, but we must be able to get them the football."

Brown, at split end, was an eight-game starter last year, catching a team-leading 39 passes for 639 yards and six TDs. He has 63 catches for 1,011 yards and eight TDs in his career. Malone, who has 35 career catches for 731 yards and six TDs, has averaged 20.9 yards per catch in his career. He had 26 receptions for 459 yards in 1994. Also vying for playing time will be Chad Key (6-5, 213, Sr.) and Calvin Hall (6-4, 190, Fr.) at split end and Marcell West (5-11, 177, Jr.), Rondi Gibson (5-10, 185, Sr.), John David Phillips (6-3, 202, So.) and Blair Canale (6-3, 199, Jr.) at flanker. Key, an academic All-SEC choice last year, had 15 receptions for 185 yards last season, while Hall is a promising redshirt freshman. West played in every game in 1994, catching four passes for 101 yards and two TDs. Gibson played primarily on special teams last year, while Canale had knee surgery prior to spring training and his status for the fall is questionable.

Brown

RUNNING BACKS/FULLBACKS

Alexander

Steger

Gone are 1994 starters Sherman Williams at running back, the school's No. 5 career rusher, and fullback Tarrant Lynch. In fact, no starters return in the offensive backfield, but running backs Dennis Riddle (6-0, 195, So.), Brian Steger (6-3, 210, Jr.) and Curtis Alexander (6-1, 195, So.) all have playing experience.

"Brian played well in the spring, but then we have three or four good runningbacks," Stallings offered. "We're not so fortunate at fullback where we don't have quite as much depth."

Steger, playing in seven games last year, rushed for 145 yards and three TDs, while Riddle had 143 yards on 37 carries and a pair of touchdowns. Alexander produced 75 yards rushing and one TD. At fullback, Taurus Turner (6-1, 200, Jr.) and Ed Scissum (6-0, 210, So.) saw limited action in 1994. Turner rushed for 13 yards in nine games, while Scissum had eight yards in five games. Redshirt freshman Montoya Madden (5-9, 205) will be looking for a spot in the rotation at running back. Converted linebacker Trevis Smith (6-1, 235, Fr.) was moved to fullback this spring and showed promise as the Tide staff looked for depth at that position.

TIGHT END

Hape

Johnson

Rutledge

Probably the deepest position on the team, four players return at tight end, including starter Patrick Hape (6-4, 239, Jr.). He caught six passes for 115 yards last year, an average of 19.2 yards per catch.

"We have excellent tight ends," Stallings said, "and they have all improved in catching the football and blocking. This should be an area of strength this fall."

Also returning are Tony Johnson (6-5, 256, Sr.), Rod Rutledge (6-4, 243, So.) and Josh Niblett (6-2, 208, Sr.). Johnson and Rutledge played in every game last year, with Johnson catching two passes for 48 yards, while Rutledge has yet to catch a pass in his collegiate career. Niblett saw action in four games last year, mainly on special teams.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Belser

A trio of starters return to the offensive line, although center John Causey did not participate in spring drills following an injury sustained in the Citrus Bowl. The starters returning are Causey (6-2, 262, Jr.) at center, Maurice Belser (6-1, 285, Sr.) at left guard and Kareem McNeal (6-5, 285, Sr.) at left tackle.

"Causey missed the entire spring, but I think he's going to be ok," Stallings said, "and I was pleased with what I saw in Michael Ray. He lost some weight and was doing some good things by the close of spring practice."

Plenty of talent, with game experience, returns on the offensive line. At right tackle, Pete DiMario (6-4, 276, Jr.) came out the leader following spring practice, while Joel Holliday (6-3, 292, So.) who played in every game last year and Chris Jordan (6-4, 273, So.) will battle for playing time. At right guard, Laron White (6-2, 272, Jr.) emerged as the leader after spring while Jeremy Pennington (6-2, 272, Jr.) and redshirt freshman Josh Swords (6-3, 275), will also be looking to break into the rotation behind White. With Causey rehabilitating his knee, the bulk of the time at center was devoted to finding a replacement. Tide coaches looked at several options in the spring, with Michael Ray (6-5, 285, So.) and Matt Harrison (6-5, 260, Fr.) receiving the majority of the work. Harrison is a redshirt freshman, while Ray spent time last season as a defensive tackle on the scout team. At left guard, Belser returns as the starter with Will Friend (6-2, 265, So.) looking for playing time. At left tackle, McNeal returns as the starter while redshirt freshman Sage Spree (6-4, 275) came out of spring training as No. 2.

McNeal

DEFENSE

"Elverett Brown had a good spring and I'm looking for good things from him, along with Chris Hood," Stallings said. "Hood is going to be an excellent football player," Kendrick Burton (6-5, 288, Sr.), Vann Bodden (6-5, 267, Sr.) and redshirt freshman Chris Hood (6-3, 240) will all be looking for playing time. Hood earned the defensive MVP award for his play in the spring game. Burton had eight quarterback pressures and three sacks last year, while Bodden had six stops behind the line and two quarterback sacks. Playing behind Shannon Brown will be Bryan Thornton (6-7, 280, Sr.), Ozell Powell (6-5, 275, Jr.) and Eric Kerley (6-1, 290, So.) will compete for minutes behind Parker, while Kelvin Moore (6-3, 258, Jr.) and Elverett Brown (6-4, 274, Sr.) will back-up Blackburn at right end. Moore had 10 quarterback pressures and three sacks a year ago, while Elverett Brown sat out the

'94 season after breaking a bone in his foot. He is expected back a full strength.

LINEBACKERS

Moore

A pair of starters from 1994, Andre Royal at strong linebacker and Michael Rogers at weak linebacker, are gone for '95, but middle linebacker John Walters (6-2, 225, Sr.) returns for his senior season. At strong linebacker, Ralph Staten (6-3, 200, Jr.) is the likely starter with Paul Pickett (6-2, 215, So.), John Tanks (6-4, 226, Jr.), Fernando Davis (6-3, 235, Jr.) and Chris Edwards (6-2, 215, Fr.) all be vying for playing time. Looking to back-up Walters at middle linebacker will be Tyrell Buckner (6-0, 245, Jr.), Howie Fell (6-1, 225, Sr.), Granison Wagstaff (6-2, 225, Fr.) and Franz Odum (6-1, 240, Fr.). At weak linebacker, Dwayne Rudd (6-2, 232, So.), is the likely starter with Lamont Floyd (6-2, 240, Jr.) and Tito Smith (6-3, 200, Fr.) providing plenty of depth. Rudd was selected to the Freshman All-SEC team, while Staten was chosen second-team All-SEC.

"We have some pretty deep talent at linebacker," Stallings says, "and I see some battles developing at certain positions. As happens every year, there will have to be some younger players step up and play well."

SECONDARY

An area of great concern for Tide coaches prior to spring training, the secondary got a boost when junior college transfer Kevin Jackson (6-2, 200, Jr.) and transfer Jeremy Puritt (6-0, 185, Jr.) were able to participate in spring training. The concern was brought about by the departure of three starters from 1994, Willie Gaston, Sam Shade and Tommy Johnson, who combined for 179 tackles and nine interceptions. Only Deshea Townsend (5-10, 170, So.), at right cornerback, returns to the starting lineup after moving in after the fourth game of the '94 season. He had 39 tackles and one interception which he returned for 42 yards in the SEC Championship game against Florida and earned SEC All-Freshman honors. Providing depth at right corner will be Owen Winston (6-0, 175, Fr.) and Derek Cunningham (5-8, 150, So.). Neither has any game experience. At left cornerback, senior Brad Ford (5-10, 170) came out the leader following spring practice, while and Tracy High (5-9, 175, Sr.) will be battling at the back-up spot. Ford played in all 12 regular season games last year, compiling 13 tackles and a pair of pass break-ups. High played mostly on special teams. Competing at the free safety spot will be Cedric Samuel (5-9, 177, Jr.) and Jeremy Pruitt (6-0, 185, Jr.). Samuel started in seven games last year, getting 52 tackles and one interception, while Pruitt was a starter at Middle Tennessee State a year ago.

Townsend

At strong safety, Kevin Jackson (6-2, 200, Jr.), Andre Short (5-11, 205, So.) and Eric Turner (6-1, 200, Sr.) will be vying for minutes. Jackson is a junior college transfer, but was able to go through spring training. Short saw special teams action in every game last year. Turner had two starts last year and played a total of 400 snaps. He had 12 tackles and one interception. "I think our secondary is going to be ok," says Stallings. "Pruitt and Jackson will both make a difference and having them at spring practice is certainly a boost. Ford has really improved and High is playing well, too. Andre Short had an excellent spring."

KICKERS

Placekicker Michael Proctor (5-11, 183) returns for his senior season, poised to break the Tide's all-time kick-scoring records. He is currently third on the career scoring list and is just six field goals shy of moving into the No. 2 spot in career field goals. A replacement, however, must be found for punter Bryne Diehl and Hayden Stockton (6-0, 193, Jr.) and Daniel Pope (6-0, 195, Fr.) are the candidates. Stockton had two punts last season, averaging 40.0 yards. Pope spent the 1994 season as a redshirt freshman. Chester Lewis (6-4, 236, Jr.) and Jackson Cook (6-1, 260, So.) return as the Tide's snappers, while William "Wild Thing" Watts (6-1, 180, Jr.) returns as the kickoff specialist.

"I'll be extremely disappointed if we don't have outstanding special teams play this year," offered Stallings. "With Proctor back, along with both snappers and Stockton and Pope punting, we should be fine."

1995 Alabama Football Notes

Posting a 45-5-1 record, the team entered the record books as the winningest class in Alabama football history.

The previous best mark was produced by the 1977-80 squad, which went 44-4-0.

This Tide team went undefeated in all four bowl games, starting with the 30-25 win over Colorado in the Blockbuster Bowl on Dec. 28, 1991. In 1992, Alabama defeated Miami 34-13 for the national championship in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, while 1993 brought a 24-10 Gator Bowl victory against North Carolina. The seniors claimed their fourth and final bowl victory on January 2, 1995 by defeating Ohio State, 24-17 in the Citrus Bowl.

The 1994 Alabama seniors celebrate with coach Gene Stallings following the 24-17 Citrus Bowl win.

Quarterback Jay Barker became the winningest quarterback in Alabama history, compiling a 35-2-1 record as a starter. He was the recipient of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, symbolic of the nation's top passer and also was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award, presented each year to the outstanding college quarterback in the nation. Barker also finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy race. He was a Second-Team UPI All-America, the 1994 Birmingham News SEC Offensive Player of the Year and the Nashville Banner SEC Player of the Year, as well as a 1994 Academic All-SEC selection.

Willie Gaston finished as the Tide's leading tackler for 1994. He was chosen First-Team All-SEC by the coaches. Gaston played every defensive snap in the 1994 SEC Championship game against Florida.

Defensive end Dameian Jeffries was a member of the 1994 Second-Team AP All-America team, and a Second-Team All-SEC pick. Jeffries finished the 1994 season with eight sacks and a team-high 22 quarterback pressures.

Tommy Johnson was a 1994 Honorable Mention UPI All-America and a First-Team AP All-SEC pick. During his senior season, Johnson had only one game where he played less than 60 snaps. He finished his senior season with five interceptions, five pass break-ups and three blocked kicks on the year.

Sam Shade was a 1994 Second-Team All-SEC pick and a 1993 Birmingham News All-SEC selection. Shade finished third on Tide tackle charts with 57 stops. He also had three fumble recoveries, one for 30 yards and a touchdown on LSU's first possession of the game.

Jon Stevenson was a 1994 First-Team All-SEC pick. He was a 1992 Football News Third Team All-America, and was named to the 1991 Knoxville News SEC All-Freshman Team. He started every game of 1994 and the Tide posted a 39-2-1 record with Stevenson in the starting lineup.

Sherman Williams was a 1994 Second-Team AP All-America and an Honorable Mention UPI All-America. Williams was named 1994 First-Team All-SEC and was a finalist for the Doak Walker National Runningback Award. He was a semifinalist for the Football News Player of the Year Award as a senior. Williams accounted for 39 percent of Alabama's 1994 offense.

MICHAEL PROCTOR EYES RECORD BOOK

Senior placekicker Michael Proctor is on pace to become the most prolific field goal kicker in Alabama football history. He started out with a bang, connecting on four-of-five field goals in his first collegiate game, hitting field goals of 46, 43, 42 and 32 yards. Now, after 36 games, Proctor has connected on 54 of 72 field goals, a .750 efficiency mark. Compared to Peter Kim (1980-82), Van Tiffin (1983-86) and Philip Doyle (1987-90), some of the best in Alabama football history, Proctor is better than all in accuracy and tied with Doyle in successful attempts. Doyle (339 career points) and Tiffin (312) are the Alabama career kick scoring leaders, but Proctor, with 262 career points, is ahead of their pace. Proctor is third with 54 field goals and 100 extra points. In addition, Proctor could become the Southeastern Conference's leading scorer in 1995. The record is 353 points, held by Georgia's Kevin Butler, who had one less point than Proctor following his junior season.

One other record in sight for Proctor is the NCAA record for most career games with three or more field goals. Heading into 1995, Proctor has 10 games with three or more successful attempts. The record is 13, held by Arizona State's Luis Zendejas (1981-84).

Following is a list of Alabama's efficiency leaders:

NAME (Years)	ATT-MADE	LONG
Michael Proctor (1992-Present)	54 of 72 (.750)	53
Peter Kim (1980-82)	37 of 51 (.725)	49
Philip Doyle (1987-89)	54 of 76 (.711)	53
Van Tiffin (1983-85)	46 of 67 (.687)	57

In addition, he has connected on 99 consecutive extra points after having the second extra point attempt of his career blocked against Vanderbilt in 1992.

CURTIS BROWN MOVES UP RECEPTION CHART

Split end Curtis Brown has played 35 career games at Alabama and now enters his senior season with 63 career receptions for 1,011 yards and eight TDs. During his career, he has averaged 16.0 yards per catch. His 63 receptions ties him for 10th on the all-time list, while he needs just 60 yards to break into the top-12. Over his sophomore and junior seasons, he has averaged 29.5 receptions and 783 yards per season. If he maintains that average in 1995, he will finish his career in the top five in receptions and top three in career yards. His best game last year came against Mississippi State when he caught a career high eight passes for 153 yards and one TD.

TIDE DEFENSE CONTINUES DOMINANCE

Halfway through the decade of the 1990's, the Alabama defense has compiled top-ten performances a total of 13 times. The Tide has never finished lower than seventh in scoring defense and has been ranked No. 1 in defensive categories a total of three times.

There are a total of four major defensive categories maintained by the NCAA, total defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and scoring defense.

The success of Alabama's 1992 defense was well documented, with the group even being mentioned by some as possibly the best in college football history. After 11 games, the Tide led the NCAA in all four defensive categories and finished the season ranked first in two and second in two others.

Here is a year-by-year breakdown of the NCAA defensive rankings:

	TOTAL	RUSH	PASS	SCORING
1990	3rd	6th	1st	4th
1991	16th	25th	12th	3rd
1992	1st	1st	2nd	2nd
1993	5th	25th	2nd	6th
1994	16th	28th	21st	7th

AIR DEFENSE

The Alabama defense has not allowed an opponent to pass for 300 yards or more since 1989, a span of 59 regular season games. During that period, the Crimson Tide has played 13 games against eight current NFL quarterbacks and recent Heisman Trophy candidates. Under coach Gene Stallings, the Tide defense has given up 300 yards passing only once...to Louisville quarterback Browning Nagle in the 1991 Fiesta Bowl. The last player to throw for 300 yards against Alabama in the regular season was Southern Mississippi's Brett Favre, now an All-Pro with the Green Bay Packers. Favre had his 300-yard game on Nov. 18, 1989 when he threw for exactly 300 yards on 18-of-41 passing in a 37-14 loss to the Tide. Favre faced Alabama again in 1990 and was held to just 125 yards passing.

Here is a look at Alabama's defense against some great college quarterbacks in the last six years:

YEAR	QUARTERBACK (SCHOOL)	CURRENT TEAM	YDS
1989	Brett Favre (Southern Miss)	Green Bay Packers	300
1990	Craig Erickson (Miami)*	Indianapolis Colts	250
	Brett Favre (Southern Miss)	Green Bay Packers	125

ABOUT THE TENNESSEE GAME

Alabama and Tennessee have met annually since 1928 on the third Saturday in October. But this season, the game will be played on Oct. 14, the second Saturday in October.

Why the change?

The date was changed when the Southeastern Conference was forced to realign schedules, starting in 1995, to accommodate conference realignment. The game moves back to the third Saturday in 1996.

ALABAMA AND THE SEC IN THE '90's

In the decade of the 1990's, Florida and Alabama lead the Southeastern Conference in wins with 33 and 32 respectively. Florida has posted a 33-5-0 mark in SEC games, while the Crimson Tide is 32-5-1 in five seasons. Those records do not include the SEC Championship Games, which the league office does not consider part of the SEC schedule. Here is a look at the conference records of SEC teams for this decade:

TEAM	RECORD	.PCT
Florida	33-5-0	.868
Alabama	32-5-1	.855
Tennessee	26-10-2	.711
Auburn	22-13-3	.618

THE 700 CLUB

With a 12-1-0 record in 1994, Alabama now has 703 total wins which puts the Tide in the elite company of Michigan and Notre Dame, the only other schools in NCAA history to win 700 or more career games. Michigan is the current leader with 747 wins, while Notre Dame is second (729) and Alabama is third (703). It must be noted, however, that Michigan has played 115 seasons and 1,029 games and Notre Dame has played 106 seasons and 986 games. Alabama has played 100 seasons and 985 games.

Here is the list of NCAA victory leaders:

1.	Michigan	747
2.	Notre Dame	729
3.	Alabama	703
4.	Texas	695
5.	Nebraska	686
5.	Penn State	686
7.	Ohio State	668
8.	Oklahoma	665
9.	Tennessee	645
10.	USC	638

Alabama players celebrate the Tide's 700th win following the 35-17 win over LSU. Only three other schools have 700 all-time victories.

HOW MANY 10-WINS SEASONS?

When Alabama went 12-1-0 in 1994, it marked the 24th time that the Tide had won at least 10 games during a season. In fact, it was the third time that an Alabama team won at least 12 games in a season. No other school in Division I NCAA football history has had as many 10-win seasons. Alabama has eight undefeated seasons. Here is a list of seasons with 10 or more wins:

1920 — 10-1-0	1964 — 10-1-0	1978 — 11-1-0
1925 — 10-0-0	1966 — 11-0-0	1979 — 12-0-0
1930 — 10-0-0	1971 — 11-1-0	1980 — 10-2-0
1934 — 10-0-0	1972 — 10-2-0	1986 — 10-3-0
1945 — 10-0-0	1973 — 11-1-0	1989 — 10-2-0

1945 TEAM REUNITES AT 1995 A-DAY GAME

After 50 years, the 1945 Crimson Tide team revisited the Capstone for the 1995 A-Day game.

This was no ordinary squad for Alabama. The 1945 team went undefeated, capping the perfect season with a 34-14 Rose Bowl romp of Southern Cal on the first day of 1946. Despite its flawless season, the Tide finished second in the final polls behind Army.

Alabama's "war babies" were mostly sophomores during the 1945 season, stepping into starting roles as freshmen when the older players were sent to fight the second world war.

They turned their newly-found starting roles into starring roles as the team out-scored its opponents 430-80 that season.

All-America Harry Gilmer led the '45 team in passing, rushing, interceptions, punt returns and kickoff returns. Gilmer holds the school record for most career touchdowns (52), punt returns (11.6 YPR), and ranks third on the all-time yardage gained list (4,478 yards).

Center Vaughn Mancha, also an All-America choice, had earned a starting position a year earlier in his first collegiate game, against LSU, in 1944.

Both Gilmer and Mancha were named to Alabama's All-Century Team.

Coach Frank Thomas was awarded the Nashville Banner Coach of the Year Award for his team's success in 1945.

Here are a few facts about that '45 squad:

- Averaged outscoring opponents, 43-8
- Scored on the first series of every game except the regular season finale against Mississippi State (Bama won, 55-13)
- Defeated Southern Cal, 34-14 in the Rose Bowl. USC scored two TDs in the fourth quarter to make it respectable. The Tide outgained the Trojans 351-41 and USC didn't make a first down until Bama led 27-0 in the third quarter.
- Finished second to Army in the final polls, making this team the first of Bama's "Uncrowned Champions".
- Scored more than 50 points five times, including the final four regular season games.
- Alabama's win in the Rose Bowl, the final game with non Big-10 or Pac-10 opponents, made the Tide's final record in that classic, 4-1-1.

"SIGNATURE SERIES" FOOTBALLS RELEASED

Alabama's Bryant Museum recently released a "Signature Series" of footballs signed by former Alabama football greats.

The first in the series carried the autographs of six of Alabama's great quarterbacks, including Jay Barker, Harry Gilmer, Joe Namath, Steve Sloan, Kenny Stabler and Bart Starr. Each received national honors for achievements while wearing the crimson and white.

Jay Barker, quarterback from 1991-94, was the recipient of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and the Davey O'Brien Award following his senior season. He also finishing fifth in the Heisman Trophy race. He compiled a 46-3-1 record as a starter to set the school record for starting victories, and threw for over 2,000 yards as a senior.

Harry Gilmer, quarterback from 1944-47, holds the school record for most career touchdowns with 52. Named All-America and SEC Player of the Year in 1945, Gilmer was voted MVP of the 1946 Rose Bowl after leading Bama to a 34-14 victory over Southern Cal. In 1946 Gilmer led the team in passing, rushing, interceptions, punt returns and kickoff returns.

Joe Namath played for the Tide from 1962-64. He led the 1964 national championship team to a 10-1 record, losing only to Texas in the 1965 Orange Bowl. Namath was an All-America and All-SEC choice at Alabama, and went on to an NFL Hall of Fame career with the New York Jets, highlighted by a Super Bowl III MVP performance in 1969.

Steve Sloan is the only Crimson Tide football player to earn All-America and Academic All-America honors, play on a national championship team and earn an NCAA individual championship. He did it all in 1965, and capped it off with an MVP performance in a 39-28, 1966 Orange Bowl win over Nebraska. He was the Tide's quarterback from 1963-65.

From 1965-67, Kenny Stabler led Alabama to a 28-3-2 record. Stabler earned Sugar Bowl MVP honors in 1967, after completing 12 of 17 passes for 218 yards and rushing for 40 more. Stabler was named All-America in 1967, and was chosen as the SEC Player of the Year by the Birmingham Quarterback Club and the Atlanta Touchdown Club.

Bart Starr took Alabama's snaps from 1952-55. His eight touchdown passes in 1953 were an SEC high while his 41.4 punting average was second in the nation. He earned Academic All-SEC honors in 1955. Starr went on to a stellar 16-year career with the Green Bay Packers, where he was MVP in Super Bowls I and II.

Other footballs will follow, with the signatures of Alabama's great linebackers, running backs, defensive linemen and offensive linemen.

The museum released 323 footballs, symbolizing Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's 323 wins. They were sold for $323 each, with the offering an immediate sell-out.

On hand to sign the "Signature" footballs were, from the left, Joe Namath, Jay Barker and Harry Gilmer. Looking on is Bryant Museum Assistant Director Ken Gaddy.

NEW RULES FOR 1995

Several new game rules will go into effect for the 1995 season. Starting in 1995, defensive players will be penalized five yards for entering the neutral zone before the snap and causing an offensive player to move. Another rule will award the ball to the defensive team at the spot where it was recovered after a defensive player recovers a fumble, scrimmage kick or free kick between his five-yard line and the goal line and his momentum carries him into the end zone, where the ball is declared dead in his team's possession or goes out of bounds.

Also changed was the elimination of the penalty for running into or roughing the kicker or holder if the contact results from an illegal block by the offense. The extra point try must also be conducted after a touchdown on the final play of a game, unless the team that is behind leaves the field.

A new tiebreaker rule will also be used in postseason bowl games. The rule will give both teams an opportunity to score in an overtime period, which will allow each side an offensive series beginning on the opponent's 25-yard line. A team's possession ends when it scores, turns the ball over or fails to convert a fourth-down play. The game will be decided when one team leads after both have had an equal number of possessions in overtime.

1995 Alabama Football Notes

THE TIDE ON TV

Alabama has appeared on television a total of 161 times, but never before had a major television network done a pre-game or post-game show as extensive as the one ESPN did surrounding the Alabama-Auburn game in 1994. Although the game was broadcast on ABC-TV, the ESPN cameras were focused on Legion Field in pre-game and post-game production. ESPN built their set on the steps in front of Legion Field and broadcast their Saturday football show from Birmingham.

The all-sports network broadcast a pregame show in the morning and then came back with live post-game shows that went well into the night.

Fans from both teams were part of the festivities as ESPN's Lee Corso, Chris Fowler and Craig James interviewed Tide quarterback Jay Barker live on the set following Alabama's 21-14 win over Auburn.

MORE THAN A VICTORY

The tradition of cigar smoking following a victory over Tennessee can be traced to the fancies Paul "Bear" Bryant. When he returned to the Capstone in 1958, he brought along a personal tradition of handing out cigars to his players following a significant victory. A victory over Tennessee soon became synonymous with a "big win." Begun during his tenure at Texas A&M, Bryant would personally hand out cigars to his victorious players. At Alabama, the job of buying and bringing the cigars to the game site was handled by longtime Bryant associate Carney Laslie. After Laslie died, then trainer Jim Goostree was assigned the duty of making sure one of the team trunks was packed with the cigars. Bryant's resurrection of the Alabama football program was complete in 1961 when he led the Tide to a 34-3 victory over Tennessee, the first for Bama since 1954. En route to a perfect 11-0-0 season and a national title, the victorious Tide team smoked victory cigars in the dressing room. Goostree, Bryant's ace trainer who had been trained by Tennessee's General Bob Neyland, passed out the stogies.

Tide players celebrate a victory cigar following the 17-13 win over Tennessee in Knoxville.

ALABAMA, THE SEC AND THE NEW ALLIANCES

In layman's terms, here is a look into the future about television and bowl contracts:

► Beginning this bowl season, a new alliance is in place. Selected sites for the three principal bowl games are the Fiesta, Sugar and Orange Bowl. Since New Year's Day 1977 the SEC Champion has been contracted to play in the Sugar. No more.

► Champions from the SEC, ACC, Big East and Big 12 will comprise four of the six teams. Two at-large teams will fill the other slots. There is one exception to this rule: in 1995 the Southwest Conference is still alive as is the Big 8. Both leagues will have a rep in this round of games. Obviously, four of the SWC teams (Texas, Texas Tech, Texas A&M and Baylor) merge into the Big 12 during the '96 season.

► The Fiesta Bowl will host the National Championship game at the conclusion of the '95 season. It will then be rotated around. This is a six-year contract, giving the title game to each of the sites twice.

► The Orange Bowl is in for a change of venue as well. This year's game will be staged for the final time at the Orange Bowl Stadium in Miami. After this year's game, it moves to Joe Robbie Stadium, site of the '95 Super Bowl.

► What about the Rose? Well, since 1946 when Alabama rolled over Southern Cal 34-14, the Rose has been occupied exclusively by the Pac-10 and the Big 10. The fellows on the West Coast balk at any murmur suggesting a possible inclusion of the Rose into the Alliance. However, the Big 10, stung by Penn State's relegation to the second slot in the final polls, have at least discussed that this alliance business might be more palatable than first thought, especially since the Alliance will be doling out more bucks than the Rose.

► Can a second team from the SEC compete in one of the high-priced Alliance games? Of course. For example, in last year's scenario, Florida would have been guaranteed a slot but the Crimson Tide, sixth in the polls after the loss in the championship game and boasting an 11-1 record, would have likely been picked as one of the two at-large berths.

► What about the runnerup teams in the SEC? Well, the conference renewed its contract with the Citrus Bowl and ABC will still televise it. The opponent will continue to be the Big 10 runnerup. The Citrus will have its pick of the SEC runnersup (non-alliance teams).

For the past three years, the Gator Bowl has entertained the No. 3 choice from the SEC (including the Tide in '93) but that is no longer the case. For the next six seasons, the Hall of Fame Bowl in Tampa will be the No. 2 picker of an SEC squad. ESPN has the rights to air it nationally.

And, finally the Peach Bowl in Atlanta will continue to invite the SEC's No. 4 team. The ACC's third team will remain the opponent. This contract runs through 1997 but the Peach folks can renew it through the year 2000.

No longer will the contract with the CarQuest (Blockbuster) Bowl for the fifth SEC team be in effect.

► There has also been a revolution of sorts for the television industry. The CFA, of which Alabama and the SEC are charter members, is in its final year of running interference for telecasts. The CFA Games of the Week will be aired on ABC-TV this fall. Beginning in 1996, the SEC will have a Game of the Week on CBS-TV.

► ESPN and Jefferson-Pilot will also continue to play prominent roles in televising SEC football. ESPN will televise a minimum of 12 games a year while its sister station, ESPN2 will carry four additional contests.

JP Sports will continue to be the carrier for the early game on a syndicated basis. These contracts run through the year 2000.

■ Varsity Bios
■ Freshman Bios

Seniors Shannon Brown (75) and Matt Parker (98) lead the Tide defensive charge in 1995.

32 Curtis Alexander

■ Runningback • Sophomore
6-1 • 195 • 1VL • Memphis, Tennessee

Curtis will be fighting for playing time in the Tide backfield this season. He had eight carries for 33 yards and caught three passes in the A-Day game. 1994 (Freshman): Playing in three games, Alexander rushed for 75 yards on 19 carries. He had a season-high 57 yards on 12 carries against Tennessee-Chattanooga. He scored his first collegiate touchdown on a two-yard run against Vanderbilt. 1993 (Redshirt-ed) Prep: A Superprep All-America, he was rated the seventh-best running back in the country and the fourth-best player in the South while starring for Whitehaven High School. He was the Gatorade Circle of Champions Tennessee Player of the Year as he led the state in rushing with 2,379 yards and 31 touchdowns on 242 carries. He had a state single-game rushing record with 479 yards in a 65-6 win over Southside and another game with 396 yards. As a junior, he rushed for 1,473 yards and 11 TD's. Personal: The son of James and Betty Alexander, Curtis' hobbies include swimming and riding motorcycles. Born 6-11-74. He is a communications major.

■ Left Guard • Senior
6-1 • 285 • 3VL • Cordova, Alabama

After starting every game last season, Maurice will be one of the most experienced returnees to the offensive line. 1994 (Junior): A 12-game starter at left guard, Maurice made steady improvement throughout the season. He participated in 625 plays last season, including a high of 69 against Mississippi State. 1993 (Sophomore) Backed up John Clay at the left guard position and played on the field goal/PAT teams. Played a total of 107 snaps with a season high 17 against La. Tech and Southern Miss. Maurice played in 11 games, missing only the Arkansas contest. 1992 (Freshman) One of five true freshmen to play in 1992, Maurice participated in the Arkansas, South Carolina, Tulane and LSU games. He played a total of 65 snaps, including a season-high 31 against South Carolina. Prep: Son of Maurice Belser and Patricia Williams. Maurice was named to the Birmingham News Scholastic All-State team while playing for Tim O'Neil. He was a two-way starter for Class 2A Cordova High School and helped his team reach the semifinals of the state playoffs. He was a Class 2A All-State choice. He has a 24 inch vertical leap and averaged eight points per game while playing high school basketball. Personal: Maurice lists Michael Jordan as his favorite professional athlete. Born 11-28-73. He is a management major.

44 Darrell Blackburn

■ Defensive End • Junior
6-3 • 224 • 2VL • Huntsville, Alabama

Darrell made tremendous improvement last season and this spring, and he was listed as the starter at right defensive end following spring workouts.

1994 (Sophomore): Playing in all 13 games, Darrell had starts against Arkansas, Southern Mississippi, Auburn and Florida in the SEC championship game. He had a total of 23 tackles, three stops behind the line for seven yards, three quarterback sacks for 24 yards and 12 quarterback pressures. He caused one fumble and blocked a field goal against Southern Mississippi, the second blocked field goal of his career. 1993 (Freshman) Darrell played in every game on special teams and saw defensive action in eight games.

He had 12 tackles. His big play came against Miss. State when he blocked a field goal attempt and Lemanski Hall returned it 60 yards for a TD. 1992 (Red-shirted) Prep: Darrell was a first-team, Class 6A All-State player, who led his team in tackles with 105. He had five fumble recoveries, five caused fumbles, two interceptions and 16 sacks playing under Mike Shipp at Butler High School. Darrell also played tight end, primarily in a blocking role, but did manage to catch three passes for a team that made it to the semis in the 6A playoffs. Personal: The son of Betty Blackburn, Darrell lists earning a scholarship to play at Alabama and participating in the Alabama-Mississippi High School All-Star game as two of his career highlights. Born 3-29-73. He is majoring in criminal justice.

■ Defensive End • Senior
6-5 • 267 • 2VL • Moss Point,
Mississippi

1994 SEC "Defensive Player of the Week" vs. LSU

Vann played in the Tide's first 10 games of 1994 before missing the final three with a knee injury. He showed tremendous improvement throughout the course of last season and will be a fixture in the rotation at defensive end this year. 1994 (Junior): A youngster who really came on strong, Vann played in 10 of the Tide's 12 games, missing the Auburn and the SEC title game against Florida after sustaining a knee injury in practice the week of the Auburn game. He earned two starts, the first of his career, against LSU and Mississiippi State and was named SEC "Defensive Player of the Week" following the LSU game. He had six tackles, two quarterback pressures, one caused fumble, two tackles behind the line, one quarterback sack and one pass break-up in that game. 1993 (Sophomore) Played in every game on the field goal and PAT teams. Made the defensive rotation against Tulane, Arkansas, La. Tech and Southern Miss. He has two tackles. 1992 (Freshman) Did not see varsity action. 1991 (Redshirt-ed) Prep: As a senior at Moss Point, Vann recorded 199 tackles (54 solos), 10 quarterback sacks, five fumble recoveries and five fumbles caused. He has the ability to always be around the football and is a very consistent player. As a junior, Bodden had 68 solo tackles, five passes broken up and three fumble recoveries. He was coached by Billy Miller. Personal: The son of Carolyn and William Bodden, Jr., Vann comes from an athletic family. His father and uncle, Hugh, played at Southern Mississippi, and another uncle, Buddy Scarborough, played football and baseball at Miami. He lists his hobbies as boating and fishing and Derrick Thomas as his favorite pro athlete. Born 4-18-73. He is a human performance major.

85 Curtis Brown

■ Split End • Senior
6-2 • 185 • 3VL • John's Island,
South Carolina

A fifth-year senior, Curtis is the veteran of the Alabama corps of wide receivers. Brown looks for a repeat performance of 1994 when he was the team leader in receptions and yardage. 1994 (Junior): An eight-game starter, Curtis was the team's leading receiver with 39 receptions for 639 yards and six TDs. His best game came against Mississippi State when he had eight receptions for 153 yards and one TD, but he came back in the SEC title game with three receptions for 119 yards and one TD, an average of 39.7 yards per catch. His longest play of the season was a 70-yard TD reception against the Gators. Curtis has played a total of 466 snaps in 12 games this season. 1993 (Redshirted) Curtis tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee while playing basketball during the summer. He had reconstructive surgery and underwent rehabilitation during the season. 1992 (Sophomore) Curtis played in every game, including starts against Arkansas, South Carolina and Tulane. He had a 30-yard scoring reception against Florida in the SEC championship game. He was the Tide's fourth-leading receiver, getting 20 receptions for 327 yards and two TDs. Curtis averaged 16.3 yards per reception. He had three receptions in three different games, and had 64 yards in receptions against Arkansas. 1991 (Freshman): A pleasant surprise for the Tide coaches, Curtis played in every game and started against Auburn in the final game of the season. He caught only four passes for 45 yards, but runs excellent routes and has good speed. He worked his way into the receiver rotation early in the season and caught his first collegiate pass against Georgia, a 15-yarder. He caught one pass for eight yards against Colorado in the Blockbuster Bowl. Prep: A 1990 graduate of St. John's High School in John's Island, S.C., Curtis is the nephew of former NFL wide receiver Charlie Brown. As a prep senior, Curtis was one of the nation's top-rated wide receivers, catching 27 passes for 470 yards and eight TDs. He closed his prep career at St. John's with 34 TD catches, third in South Carolina prep history. He missed the 1988 season due to a fractured arm and then played five games at quarterback as a senior. Personal: The son of Florrie Brown, Curtis has a brother, Jessie, and two sisters, Pamela and Crystal. Born 7-18-71. He is majoring in sports fitness management.

76 Elverett Brown

■ Defensive Tackle • Senior
6-4 • 274 • 3VL • Montgomery, Alabama

After sitting out the majority of the 1994 season with a foot injury, Elverett will add depth at defensive tackle in '95. 1994 (Senior): A reoccurring foot problem has caused Elverett to miss most of the season. He was medically redshirted this season. 1993 (Junior) A dual-position player, Elverett played at both nosetackle and end. He started against Vanderbilt and

South Carolina and played in every game with the exception of LSU and Miss. State. He turned in 17 tackles, six for losses equalling 19 yards. He pressured the quarterback three times. 1992 (Sophomore) Elverett played in six games and started against Auburn after starter James Gregory injured his knee against Mississippi State. He turned in four tackles, one stop behind the line and had one pass break-up. He had a season-high 46 snaps in the South Carolina game. 1991 (Freshman) Played in four of the Tide's first five games before a foot injury sidelined him for the remainder of the regular season. He did return against Colorado in the Blockbuster Bowl and participated in four plays. Prep: Selected to the 1991 Birmingham News Super Senior Squad, Elverett was picked as the state's seventh-best player as a prep senior. He had 107 tackles (54 solos), six quarterback sacks and two fumble recoveries his senior season. He was an All-State, All-

Metro and All-Region pick as a senior. Coached by Charles Lee at Jeff Davis High School. He had 10 quarterback sacks as a junior. He threw the shot 48 feet in high school. Personal: Elverett lists Derrick Thomas as his favorite pro athlete and basketball, swimming and tennis as his hobbies. The son of Patsy Brown. Born 11-28-72. Elverett is a business major.

75 Shannon Brown

■ Defensive Tackle • Senior
6-5 • 266 • 3VL • Millbrook, Alabama

1994 Second-Team All-SEC
(Coaches, AP)
1994 Academic All-SEC
1994 ESPN "Scholar Athlete of the Game" vs. Georgia

An eight-game starter in 1994, Shannon will be the starter at left defensive tackle this season. Brown was a second-team All-SEC performer last year and should be a leader on the Tide defensive front. 1994 (Junior): A defensive tackle, Shannon has played in 11 of the Tide's 12 games, missing the Southern Mississippi game after sustaining a shoulder separation against Georgia. He started eight games, turning in 46 tackles, five stops behind the line, five quarterback sacks and 11 quarterback pressures. He blocked a field goal against Vanderbilt and had a career-high game against Ole Miss when he turned in nine tackles, three stops behind the line and one quarterback sack. He played only 13 snaps against Georgia before a shoulder separation forced him to leave the game. He missed the next week against Southern Miss and then played only 30 plays with a tightly wrapped shoulder against Tennessee. He returned to start the final five games of the season. 1993 (Sophomore) A versatile athlete, Shannon began the season on the offensive line, a position he practiced with in the spring. He was switched back to defensive line the second week of the season when injuries began taking their toll on the defensive front. He started five of the next six games before undergoing arthroscopic surgery on his knee. He missed the Southern Miss and LSU games, but returned for the final three games. Credited with 16 tackles, four behind the line for 11 yards, two sacks for 10 yards and three quarterback pressures. He recovered a fumble against Tennessee. His three quarterback pressures all came against South Carolina. 1992 (Freshman) A back-up nosetackle, Shannon played in 9 games, turning in eight tackles, including two for a loss of three yards and two quarterback sacks for 12 yards. He had two stops behind the line against South Carolina and two sacks against Auburn. 1991 (Redshirted) Prep: Shannon was a 5A All-State pick, All-County and All-Metro as a prep senior. He recorded 86 tackles, six quarterback sacks, two fumble recoveries and one interception his senior season. He has excellent quickness and strength, bench pressing 350. He also played basketball, averaging 14.0 points per game and played outfield in baseball. Shannon was senior class president at Stanhope-Elmore. He was coached by Jimmie Foshee. Personal: Shannon's brother, Steve, played football at Auburn from 1986-89, and his uncle, Wayne Burns, played at Auburn from 1964-67. He lists Kim Basinger as his favorite actress, Walter Payton as his favorite professional athlete and Crime and Punishment as his favorite book. He is the son of Ann and Jerry Brown. Born 5-23-72. He is a human performance major.

92 Tyrell Buckner

■ Linebacker • Junior
6-0 • 245 • 2VL • Denison, Texas

After seeing action in 11 of the Tide's 12 regular season games a year ago, Buckner will be backing up John Walters at the middle linebacker position.

1994 (Sophomore): Playing in 11 of the Tide's 12 games, Tyrell turned in 10 tackles, including one tackle behind the line. He was a starter in the regular-season finale against Auburn, playing 28 snaps in that game. His season-high was four stops against Auburn when he had his TBL. He played 41 snaps against LSU, his high game of the season.

1993 (Freshman) One of nine true freshmen to see action, Buckner played in eight games. He played a total of 39 snaps on defense and field goal block. Played a season high 14 snaps against Southern Miss, recording a season best three tackles. For the year, he has five stops.

Prep: A first team All-State performer, he recorded 86 tackles, 16 QB sacks and 12 tackles behind the line as a senior. Also played tight end and fullback. Personal: Tyrell enjoys playing tennis in his spare time. The son of Albert and Carolyn Buckner. Born 6-5-75. He is majoring in management.

With the departure of Jay Barker, Brian hopes to step up and fill the vacancy left by the Tide's all-time winningest quarterback. Burgdorf has patiently waited his chance and he will battle Freddie Kitchens, Warren Foust and Lance

Tucker for the starting role in 1995. 1994 (Junior): After earning MVP honors in the 1993 Gator Bowl, Brian played in four games, throwing just 13 passes. He played against Tennessee-Chatanooga, Georgia, Southern Miss and LSU. 1993

(Sophomore) Began the year as the backup for starter Jay Barker, and moved into the number one QB slot when Barker went down in the Ole Miss game. He got his first collegiate start against Southern Miss and threw for 216 yards and two touchdowns. Started the LSU contest the following week, and also started against Florida in the SEC Championship game. Brian played in all but the Vanderbilt, South Carolina and Tennessee games. He has completed 48 of his 84 attempts for 533 yards and 4 touchdowns. He made a brief appearance against La. Tech and tossed TD strikes on back-to-back drives. 1992 (Freshman) Brian played in six games as a back-up to starter Jay Barker. He hit on 12 of 23 passes for 160 yards. His longest pass was a 51-yarder against Tulane. 1991 (Redshirted)

Prep: One of the top quarterback prospects in the nation as a prep senior, Brian had 2,274 yards and 19 TDs passing and 501 yards rushing with five TDs. He was an All-State pick as a junior and senior and was All-State 3A "Player of the Year" and All-America as a senior. He hit 141 of 255 attempts for 1,735 yards and 12 TDs as a junior. His career totals show 4,661 yards and 39 TDs passing and 1,193 yards rushing and 22 TDs. He suffered only five interceptions during his prep career. During his years as a starter, Cedartown went 25-16-1. Personal: Brian lists Top Gun as his favorite movie, Roger Craig as his favorite pro athlete, Bo Knows Bo as his favorite book and Harrison Ford as his favorite actor. He lists pro football quarterback Joe Montana as his most admired leader. The son of Rita and Ricky Burgdorf. Born 1-14-73. Brian is a communications major.

94 Kendrick Burton

■ Defensive Tackle • Senior
6-5 • 288 • 2VL • Hartselle, Alabama

After seeing significant playing time in every 1994 contest, Kendrick was listed as the starter at left defensive end at the close of spring practice.

1994 (Junior): After overcoming injuries last year, Kendrick played in every game in 1994, starting against Georgia and Ole Miss. He played a total of 368 snaps and turned in 23 tackles, three quarterback sacks, eight quarterback pressures and three pass break-ups. His best game was against Tennessee-Chattanooga in the opening contest of the season, when he had five tackles and two quarterback pressures. 1993 (Sophomore) A promising young player on an injury-ridden defensive line, Kendrick, too, missed game action with a dislocated knee. He played in the first three games, injuring his knee against Arkansas. He missed the next four games, but returned to play in the Tide's remaining five contests including the SEC Championship. Credited with one tackle against Southern Miss. 1992 (Freshman) Did not participate in football. Prep: As a senior in 1991 he recorded 91 solo and 53 assisted tackles, caused five fumbles, recovered three fumbles, had 23 sacks and 11 pass break ups. He was the nation's No. 1 preseason defensive line pick by Superprep and was a first-team USA Today All-American. Personal: The son of Deborah and James Burton. Born 9-7-73. He is a public relations major.

24 Blair Canale

■ Split End • Junior
6-3 • 199 • 2VL • Memphis, Tennessee

Blair missed spring practice after undergoing knee surgery. He should return to action in the fall to add depth at wide receiver. 1994 (Sophomore): After moving from defensive back to split end, Blair played in two games, Tennessee-Chattanooga and Arkansas. 1993 (Freshman) Played on the Tide punt return and kickoff teams. He saw action in every game and made five tackles. 1992 (Redshirted) Blair tore the ACL in his right knee in fall practice and sat-out the season. Prep: Blair was an all-state defensive back at Christian Brothers High School, the same school that produced offensive lineman Jon Stevenson. He had 62 tackles, one interception, two fumble recoveries and caused four fumbles his senior season. Also a wide receiver, he caught 18 passes for five TDs, averaging 28.2 yards per catch. Also lettered in basketball and track. Personal: His father, Billy, played football at Mississippi State, lettering in 1966. Blair was a member of the National Honor Society and was senior class president at Christian Brothers. His most admired leader is Norman Schwarzkopf. He is the son of Margaret and Billy Canale. Born 2-13-74. He is a communications major.

71 John Causey

■ Center • Junior
6-2 • 262 • 2VL • Hayneville, Alabama

A devastating knee injury in the 1995 Citrus Bowl forced John to miss spring workouts. The Tide coaches are very optimistic that the junior will be able to return to his starting job at center this fall. 1994 (Sophomore): After playing the first four games as back-up to then starter Jon Stevenson, John moved into the starting center position against Georgia and is now firmly entrenched at that position. He played 581 snaps at center, with a season-high 76 in the Auburn game. He has been instrumental in helping tailback Sherman Williams gain over 1,000 yards rushing. 1993 (Freshman) John saw action in four games for the Tide, playing against Louisiana Tech, Southern Miss, Miss. State and in Alabama's Gator Bowl victory over North Carolina. He played a total of 56 snaps with a season high 21 in the Gator Bowl. 1992 (Redshirted) Prep: A starter on both sides of the ball for Mac Champion at Lowndes Academy. A member of the Tuscaloosa News "Sweet 16" and the all-state "Dynamite Dozen." On defense, he played linebacker and recorded 90 tackles, two fumble recoveries and three sacks. Personal: Paul "Bear" Bryant is the leader he most admires and if he could be anyone in his wildest dreams, it would be Dick Butkus. He is the son of Linda and George Causey. Born 9-2-73. He is majoring in human performance.

65 Jackson Cook

■ Snapper • Junior
6-1 • 260 • 1VL • Cullman

Jackson saw action at snapper in every game last year, and he returns in 1995 to handle the snapping on field goals and extra points. 1994 (Sophomore): The Tide's snapper for punts, Jackson played in every game in 1994. He has been instrumental in the punting game by snapping the ball to Bryne Diehl. 1993 (Freshman): Did not see varsity action. 1992

(Redshirted) Prep: Played at Cullman High School where he played for his father, Dale. As a senior, he was voted his team's best offensive lineman. Personal: The son of Jackie and Dale Cook, he enjoys hunting and fishing and as a prep senior said his goal was to become the deep snapper for the Crimson Tide. Born: 12-18-73. He is a criminal justice major.

55 Fernando Davis

■ Linebacker • Junior
6-3 • 235 • 2VL • Aberdeen, Mississippi

A 10-game performer in 1994, Fernando saw most of his playing time on special teams. He will once again contribute on special teams and be a member of the Tide's deep pool of linebackers. 1994 (Sophomore): Fernando turned in 14 tackles from his strong side linebacker position in 1994, but spent most of his time on the Tide special teams. He participated in 155 plays. 1993 (Freshman) Played on the Tide's special teams units in every game, registering 15 tackles. He had one sack for nine yards against Southern Miss. Against the Golden Eagles, Fernando also had a season best four tackles. 17 Warren Foust

■ Quarterback • Freshman
6-3 • 205 • Squad • Midwest City, Oklahoma

Foust is one of four Tide signal-callers battling for playing time in 1995. After playing for the Crimson team most of the day, he rallied the White team to a 16-10 victory in the annual A-Day game this past April. Foust was the leading rusher in the game with a two-team total of 50 yards on five carries. 1994 (Redshirted) Prep: Warren was the Oklahoma Player of the Year as he led Midwest City to the class 6A semifinals. In his first year at quarterback, he completed 89 of 148 passing attempts for 1,208 yards, while rushing for over 1,100 yards. He was a unanimous all-state pick, and high-jumped a school record 6-6. An excellent student, Foust was valedictorian of his senior class of 357, and was named Oklahoma's Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Personal: Warren chose Alabama because he "wanted to play on a class, winning, tradition-filled team." His hobbies include golf, fishing and basketball. His father, Bill Foust, played in the first Peach Bowl as a wide receiver for an Air Force base team. He is the son of Bill and Barbara Foust. Born 11-7-75. He is an undeclared major in the College of Communication.

68 Will Friend

■ Left Guard • Sophomore
6-2 • 265 • 1VL • Philadelphia, Mississippi

Will played in 11 of the Tide's 12 regular season games in 1994, and he will battle Maurice Belser for the starting job at left guard. 1994 (Freshman): A starter at guard the first four games of the season, Will closed the year with 322 plays and a season-high of 62 snaps in the Tulane game. 1993 (Redshirted) Prep: Considered the top player in Mississippi,

Will was a Superprep All-America, rated the sixth-best lineman in the nation and the 13th-best player in the South. As a senior, he played tight end, defensive tackle and defensive end leading Neshoba High School to an 11-4 record in 4A competition. He recorded 61 tackles, five sacks and two fumble recoveries his junior year. As a tight end he caught four passes for 105 yards. Will played for his father Chuck while earning Parade magazine All-America and USA Today honorable mention All-America honors. Personal: The son of Chuck and Marty Friend, Will's most admired leader is Michael Jordan. His hobbies include weight lifting and basketball. Born 2-7-75. He is a human performance major.

37 Rondi Gibson

■ Wide Receiver • Senior
5-10 • 185 • 1VL • Brewton, Alabama

The senior missed part of spring practice for disciplinary reasons, but Rondi should return this fall to bolster the numbers at wide receiver. 1994 (Junior): Rondi contributed to the Tide special teams, playing 39 snaps on kick return teams. 1993 (Redshirted) Rondi transferred to Alabama from Auburn. 1992 (Sophomore) Did not see varsity action. 1991

83 Calvin Hall

■ Split End • Freshman
6-4 • 190 • Squad • Gallatin, Tennessee

A foot injury sustained on the opening day of spring practice forced Calvin to miss the remainder of spring training. He is expected to be fully recovered by the time fall practice begins. 1994 (Redshirted) Prep: A three-year starter at wide receiver and defensive end, Calvin completed his high school career with 79 receptions for 1,659 yards and 110 tackles. As a junior, he had 995 yards and 11 touchdowns receiving while averaging 23.0 yards per catch. As a senior Calvin missed five games with an ankle injury, but still contributed 19 receptions for 327 yards and two TDs. He was a first-team all-state selection. Personal: Calvin lists his hobbies as writing and athletics. He is the oldest of the children of Douglas and Sandra Hall. Born 12-11-75. He is a pre-business major.

38 Patrick Hape

■ Tight End • Junior
6-4 • 259 • 2VL • Killen, Alabama

After starting in all but one regular season game in 1994, Patrick missed the majority of spring drills for disciplinary reasons. He is expected to return in the fall and will compete against Rod Rutledge and Tony Johnson for the starting role at tight end. 1994 (Sophomore): A starter in all but one game, Patrick caught six passes for 115 yards, an average of 19.2

yards per catch. He had one catch of 27 yards against Tennessee-Chattanooga, and then had 45 yards receiving on one catch against Southern Mississippi. 1993 (Freshman) A true freshman in 1993, Patrick played in every game, a total of 254 snaps during the 12 regular season games. He caught two passes, an eight-yarder against Arkansas and one for 16 yards against Louisiana Tech. He had a season-high 42 plays in the Louisiana Tech game. Prep: A four-year starter at tight end and linebacker at Brooks High School, Patrick was a SuperPrep All-America and rated the third-best tight end in the nation as a prep senior. He was a Birmingham Post-Herald and Tuscaloosa News All-State pick. He was also a running back and rushed for 660 yards and seven TDs as junior. Personal: The son of Kaye and Steve Hape, he lists hunting, fishing and athletics as his hobbies. Born 6-6-74. He is a pre-business major.

43 Steven Harris

■ Linebacker • Freshman
6-0 • 226 • Squad • Town Creek, Alabama

1994 (Redshirted) Prep: Steven was considered the top state prospect after starting four years at Hazlewood High School. While seeing playing time at quarterback, linebacker and defensive back, he led his team to three consecutive state titles. Steven topped the Birmingham Post-Herald's "10 Most Wanted" list and was a unanimous 2A all-state pick.

Despite missing five games with a knee injury as a senior, he piled up 120 tackles, five quarterback sacks and four fumble recoveries. Personal: Steven lists Martin Luther King, Jr. as the person he admires most. When he's not busy on the football field, he enjoys playing basketball and baseball. He is the son of Steve Steele and Cynthia Harris. Born 4-6-75. He is an undecided major in the College of Communication.

58 Matt Harrison

■ Center • Freshman
6-5 • 260 • Squad • Dadeville, Alabama

1994 (Redshirted) Prep: Matt was considered the top offensive lineman in the state, credited with 50 tackles his senior year. He was a Birmingham News Super All-State selection and a straight-A honor student. Matt was a four-year starter at center and a two-year starter at defensive tackle. Personal: Matt lists his father and Jesus Christ as the leaders he most admires. In his free time, he enjoys basketball, baseball, and activities with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He is the son of Don and Christy Harrison. Born 6-5-76. He is a pre-business major.

8 Tracy High

■ Cornerback • Junior
5-9 • 175 • 1VL • Pontotoc, Mississippi

Tracy saw playing time in six games as a member of the Tide's special teams unit. He was listed as the backup to Brad Ford at the left cornerback position at the conclusion of spring workouts. 1994 (Sophomore): A member of the Tide's special teams unit, Tracy played in six games in 1994. He had a season-high 12 plays against LSU and 36 total plays

He turned in two tackles. 1992 (Freshman): Did not see varsity action. Prep: Played at Pontotoc High School under Coach Tommy Morton. An All-Division selection at free safety as a sophomore and as a quarterback his junior year. Selected to play in the Mississippi All-Star game as a senior. Personal: The son of Phyllis and David High, Tracy's brother Terry High was an Academic All-SEC football player at Miss. State. The leader he most admires is the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Born 4-2-74. He is majoring in physical therapy.

77 Joel Holliday

■ Right Tackle • Sophomore
6-3 • 292 • 1VL • Six Mile, South Carolina

Holliday saw action at left tackle in each of the games in 1994, and he will be a fixture in the rotation at right tackle this year. 1994 (Freshman): Joel worked his way into the rotation at left tackle and finished the season playing in every game. He had 260 snaps during the year and had a season-high 33 plays against Georgia. He then came back with 28 plays against LSU and Mississippi State. 1993 (Redshirted) Prep: He was chosen a Superprep All-America while playing for coach Allen Sitterle at Daniel High School. Rated the 32nd-best offensive lineman in the country, he played both guard and tackle for Daniel. He helped lead Daniel to back-to-back State Championships and won the state wrestling championship his senior year. Joel was also a USA Today Honorable Mention All-America. Personal: The son of Anne Holliday, Joel is the youngest of four brothers. His hobbies include hunting, fishing, weight lifting and wrestling. His mother is his most admired leader. Born 7-5-75. He is a human performance major.

34 Chris Hood

■ Defensive End • Freshman
6-3 • 240 • Squad • Town Creek, Alabama

After sitting out 1994 as a red-shirt, Chris will be looking for significant playing time on the already-crowded defensive line. Hood had an outstanding performance in the A-Day game this spring. The redshirt freshman turned in eight tackles, five solos, one tackle for a loss, one quarterback pressure, and two sacks. For his performance, he was voted the Dwight Stevenson Most Valuable Lineman of the game. 1994 (Redshirted) Prep: Chris started every year since ninth grade, and has been an all-state pick each of those four seasons. He was named the Class 2A Player of the Year for 1993. Chris led the team in tackles and sacks both his junior and senior seasons. He also started for the basketball team. Personal: Chris said he still enjoys playing basketball in his free time. His biggest accomplishment in high school was the first time his team won the state championship. He is the son of Ernest and Brenda Hood. Born 5-28-75. He is majoring in pre-medicine.

47 Eddie Hunter

■ Linebacker • Freshman
6-2 • 215 • Squad • Mobile, Alabama

1994 (Redshirted) Prep: In his first and only year of high school football, Eddie had 76 tackles, 16 sacks, three fumble recoveries and a touchdown. He was a basketball player who was persuaded to play football by his coach, Stanley Conner. He finished high school with a 3.5 GPA and was a member of the National Honor Society.

Personal: Eddie said he chose Alabama because of its "solid academic base and a chance to win a national championship." His hobbies include reading and playing basketball. Eddie is the son of Eddie Lee Hunter, Sr. and Betty Hunter. Born 11-30-75. He is a pre-business major.

7 Kevin Jackson

■ Strong Safety • Junior
6-2 • 200 • TR • Dothan, Alabama

Jackson transferred to Alabama from Jones Junior College in Ellisville, Miss. Kevin came to Tuscaloosa at the start of the semester and went through spring drills with the team. He had a solid spring and should provide needed depth in the secondary. (1993-94): He played two seasons for Parker Dykes at Jones Junior College. Jackson was voted First-Team All-State and Second-Team All-America while at Jones. He was also a team captain. Prep: Kevin prepped at Northview High School in Dothan. He was voted Best Player in the Dothan area, as well as Player of the Year in Dothan. Personal: Kevin enjoys fishing and playing basketball in his free time. His goal as a member of the football team is "to help Alabama win a championship." Kevin is the son of Janice Mullins and Charles Jackson. Born 10-27-73. He is a sports medicine major.

5 Tony Johnson

■ Tight End • Senior
6-5 • 256 • 3VL • Como, Mississippi

Having played in all 39 Crimson Tide games since 1992, Tony will share time this season at tight end with Patrick Hape and Rod Rutledge. 1994 (Junior): Playing in every game, Tony finished with two receptions for 48 yards. He started against LSU when he had 37 snaps. He played a total of 376 plays, with a season-high 43 snaps against Mississippi State.

1993 (Sophomore) The Tide's starting tight end in 1993, Tony participated in 744 plays. That number includes participation in not only offensive plays, but work, at one time, on each of the Tide's special team units. He caught 12 passes for 117 yards and one TD. His longest pass reception was a 26-yarder against Vanderbilt. 1992 (Freshman) Tony played in every game both on offense and special teams. He was in on a season high 48 plays against Arkansas. For the season, Tony was in on 142 offensive plays and 152 plays for the specialty teams. He had five tackles. 1991 (Redshirted) Prep: A first team All-State 5A player, Johnson had 126 career receptions for 2,151 yards and 38 TDs. He played tight end and middle linebacker as a senior, turning in 54 solos, 37 assists, 19 quarterback sacks, five interceptions, five fumble recoveries and nine blocked punts. As a prep senior, he caught five TD passes in one game as North Panola beat Coldwater, 96-0. He earned All-America honors and was Mississippi's Player of the Year while playing for Clifton Davis II at North Panola. Personal: During the summer, after his high school senior year, he married the former Tonjanita Walker of Butler, Ala. The son of Ruby Johnson, Tony lists Of Mice and Men as his favorite book, Batman as his boyhood hero and the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., as the leader he most admires. Born 2-5-72. Quarterback Freddie Kitchens missed the 1994 season.

9 Freddie Kitchens

■ Quarterback • Sophomore
6-2 • 230 • 1VL • Attalla, Alabama

The strong-armed sophomore missed the 1994 campaign due to an injury. Freddie had an impressive performance in the A-Day game, completing 12 of 20 passes for 230 yards. Kitchens will be vying with Brian Burgdorf, Warren Foust and Lance Tucker for the starting job at quarterback. 1994 (Red-shirted) 1993 (Freshman) Alabama high school's "Mr. Football" in 1992, Freddie stepped in as the Tide's number three quarterback. He played against Tulane, Arkansas, Louisiana Tech and backed up starter Brian Burgdorf against Southern Miss, LSU and Florida. Freddie completed seven of 14 passes for 188 yards and two touchdowns. High school teammate Toderick Malone was on the receiving end of both touchdown passes. He connected with Malone for a season long 77-yard pass that went for a TD against Southern Miss, after changing the play at the line of scrimmage. Prep: A Superprep All-America, rated the ninth best quarterback in the country and the sixth best player in the South while starring for Etowah High School. He was the third best prospect in the state by the Birmingham News and the fifth best by the Tuscaloosa News. As a junior, he threw for 1,346 yards, on 86 of 174 passing for 12 TDs. He also rushed for 622 yards. His senior year, he passed for 1,640 yards, completing 86 of 160 (.538 percent) for 16 touchdowns. Also an excellent pitcher, with a 90 MPH fastball, he went 9-1 as a junior. Personal: The son of Charles and Brenda Kitchens, Freddie lists fishing and golf as his hobbies. Born 11-29-74. He is a public relations major.

88 Chester Lewis

■ Snapper/Tight End • Junior
6-4 • 236 • 1VL • Tuscaloosa, Alabama

After serving as the snapper on field goal and extra point attempts last season, Chester will handle the long snapping duties this year. 1994 (Sophomore): The team's snapper for PATs and field goals, Chester played in every game. He helped the Tide get through the season without a blocked PAT or field goal. 1993 (Freshman) Did not see varsity action. 1992

(Redshirted) Prep: Chester played for coach Kermit Jones at Tuscaloosa Academy. He was also the basketball team MVP. Personal: The son of Chester and Geraldine Lewis, he enjoys fishing, hunting and collecting baseball cards. Born 11-4-73. He is a public relations major.

21 Montoya Madden

■ Running Back • Freshman
5-9 • 205 • Squad • Town Creek, Alabama

With the departure of Sherman Williams, Montoya will try to help fill the hole left in the Alabama backfield. Madden had a respectable showing in the A-Day game, carrying the ball 10 times for 26 yards and catching one pass for 17 yards. 1994

(Redshirted) Prep: Montoya was a 2A All-State selection two consecutive years who gained over 4,000 yards rushing in his career. He rushed for over 2,000 yards as a junior, and despite a nagging knee injury, he gained over 1,200 yards and 21 TDs as a senior. Montoya is one of three Hazlewood players in his class to commit to the Tide.

Personal: Montoya listed receiving his diploma was his biggest accomplishment in high school. The son of Jerry and Ann Green, he was born 5-4-75. He is a pre-business major.

80 Toderick Malone

■ Flanker • Senior
5-11 • 171 • 2VL • Attalla, Alabama

The team's second-leading receiver in yardage last year, Toderick had a strong showing in spring practice. Malone hauled in four passes for 110 yards in the A-Day game, and he won the Dixie Howell memorial Award for the most outstanding player of the game.

1994 (Junior): Toderick started in every game but two, Ole Miss and LSU, and averaged 17.7 yards per catch. He had 26 receptions for 459 yards and four TDs. He had a career-high game against Georgia, snaring eight passes for 173 yards and a pair of TDs. He also returned punts and kickoffs, getting 10 punt returns for 49 yards and three kickoff returns for 62 yards. He played a total of 519 plays and had a season-high 53 against Arkansas. 1993 (Sophomore) Stepped up as a big-play receiver, making nine catches for 272 yards, a team-high 30.2 average per catch. He was on the receiving end of two Freddie Kitchens TD strikes, one from 45 yards against La. Tech and a long 77-yarder against USM, the Tide's longest pass play of 1993 and tied for eighth-longest in Tide history. It is the longest Alabama TD pass since 1987, when Jeff Dunn connected with Pierre Goode on a 90-yarder against Tennessee. He played in every game, starting against Miss. State as David Palmer started at QB.

1992 (Freshman) Did not see varsity action. Prep: A Class 5A All-State performer, a 1991 Superprep All-America while playing for Etowah High School. He caught 145 passes for 3,101 yards and 30 TDs in his three-year career at Etowah. As a senior in 1991, he teamed with Tide quarterback Freddie Kitchens (then a junior) on 47 passes for 950 yards and six TDs. He helped his team to the second round of the 5A playoffs and in one playoff game, caught seven passes for 175 yards and three TDs in a wild 69-63 overtime game.

Personal: The son of Delois Malone, Toderick lists sports and being around kids as his interests outside of football. Born 11-11-74. He is an education major.

He had 13 tackles and a quarterback pressure, with a season-high three stops against UTC. 1993 (Freshman) Ozell was one of the defensive linemen who stayed healthy throughout the season. He played in every game, starting against Arkansas, Southern Miss, LSU, Miss. State and Florida. He ended the season with 10 tackles, one behind the line for one yard and two sacks for 15 yards. He pressured the quarterback four times and broke up one pass. 1992 (Redshirted) Prep: Turned in over 40 tackles, three fumble recoveries, two caused fumbles, eight sacks and one blocked PAT as a senior at Greenville High School. As a junior he turned in 15 sacks. Personal: The son of Clara Powell and Booker T. Harrison, Ozell lists Martin Luther King, Jr. as his most admired leader. If he could be anyone in his wildest dreams it would be Michael Jordan. In his spare time he enjoys hunting, listening to music, writing poetry and reading X-men comic books. Born 11-17-73. He is in Arts & Sciences in pre-major studies.

An All-American in 1994, Michael can become the school's most prolific kicker this season. Proctor is on pace to set the school record for accuracy, scoring and consecutive PATs. The senior is also closing in on the SEC scoring record, needing only 72 points in 1995 to move ahead of Georgia's Kevin Butler (353). 1994 (Junior): Handling all the Tide's extra point and field goal duties, Michael led the team in scoring with an average of 5.9 points per game. He connected on 32 straight PATs and was 13-of-16 on field goals. His 32-yard field goal with just 1:12 left against Georgia provided the winning margin for the Tide. He was perfect on field goals inside the 29-yard line and hit on 6-of-7 between the 30 and 39-yard line. He now has 262 career points, good for third-place on the Tide's all-time scoring list. He has 99 consecutive PATs, just 35 short of the Tide career record. For his career, Michael has connected on 54 of 72 field goals, a 75 percent completion ratio, easily the best of any kicker in Tide history. He has one career field goal of 53 yards, the longest in Tide history without a kicking tee and also has a 49, 48 and a pair of 47-yarders to his credit. He scored 11 points, three field goals and two PATs, in a 24-23 loss to Florida in the SEC title game. He had field goals of 47, 48 and 22 yards in that game. 1993 (Sophomore) Michael led the Tide in scoring for the second consecutive season, tallying 97 points. His point total ties him for second in the Tide record books for single-season scoring. In a two-week span against Ole Miss and Southern Miss, he was eight-for-eight in field goals and he has a string of 66 consecutive PATs. Against Ole Miss he kicked a career-long 53-yard field goal and added two others from over 45 yards. His 53-yarder stands tied as the second-longest field goal in Tide history behind Van Tiffin's 57-yarder in 1985. He connected on seven-of-nine field goals from over 40 yards. Against Southern Miss, he scored 15 points (4 FGs, 3 PATs) to record the second-best kick-scoring mark in Alabama history for a single game. He was one of three finalists for the Lou Groza Award. 1992 (Freshman) A high school All-America kicker, Michael started every game and set a school record in his first outing against Vanderbilt. He made four-of-five field goals, the most ever in a game by a freshman kicker. He finished the year with 94 points, the most ever by a Tide freshman. For the year, he was 19-of-27 in field goal attempts and 37 of 38 in PATs, his only miss the result of a block against Vanderbilt. He kicked a season-long 47-yarder against Auburn. Prep: Set a state record with a 60-yard field goal. He was a perfect 20-of-20 on extra points and 7-of-12 on field goals as a senior at Pelham High School. In his prep career, he had 26 field goals, nine of which went for over 50 yards. In his high school career, he did not miss a PAT (53-of-53). Personal: He is the son of Bob and Jeanette Proctor. Born 11-4-73. He is a communications major.

27 Jeremy Pruitt

■ Free Safety • Junior
6-0 • 177 • TR • Rainsville, Alabama

Jeremy transferred to Alabama from Middle Tennessee State University. The junior participated in spring practice and showed signs that he will contribute heavily in the Tide secondary. (1993-94): Pruitt played two seasons for Coach Boots Donnelly at Middle Tennessee. He saw playing time at free safety and conerback for the Blue Raiders. Pruitt logged time as a starter his freshman and sophomore years.

Prep: Jeremy played for his father, Dale Pruitt, at Planiview High School in Rainsville. He was an All-State defensive back in 1991 and 1992. Plainview posted a 48-8 record in Pruitt's four years. Personal: Jeremy is the son of Dale and Melissa Pruitt. Born 5-28-74. He is a physical education major.

■ Center • Sophomore
6-5 • 305 • Squad • Boaz, Alabama

With the injury to starting center John Causey in the Citrus Bowl, Michael made a move from defense to offense. Ray worked as a scout team defensive lineman last season. Tide coaches were pleased with his progress in the spring, and with the uncertainty of Causey's recovery, Ray was listed as the starting center coming out of spring drills. 1994 (Freshman):

Michael played six snaps at defensive tackle for the Tide as a freshman, three against Tennessee-Chattanooga and three in the Vanderbilt game. 1993: (Red-shirted) Prep: As a Birmingham News 5A All-State pick, Michael was recruited by schools like Southern Miss and Duke, but chose to walk on with the Tide. He played nose tackle for Boaz High School and was named to the Superprep All-South team. He was a three-year letterman in baseball, basketball, track and football. Personal: Michael is one of five in his family to attend Alabama, including his mother, father, sister and aunt. In his free time, Michael enjoys golf, swimming, fishing and basketball. He lists Vince Lombardi as the leader he most admires. He is the son of Phil and Lynda Ray. Born 10-15-74. He is a pre-business major.

29 Dennis Riddle

■ Runningback • Sophomore
6-0 • 200 • 1VL • Tuscaloosa, Alabama

Playing in every game last season, Dennis made significant contributions as a true freshman. With the departure of Sherman Williams, the Tuscaloosa native looks to take over the starting job at tailback this season. 1994 (Freshman) A Tuscaloosa native, Riddle has made an immediate impact in the Tide's backfield. Through 12 games, he had 37 carries for a total of 143 yards and two touchdowns. The first carry of his collegiate career came in the season-opener against UT-Chattanooga and resulted in a touchdown. His other trip to the end zone was a one-yard run in the final minute that proved to be the game-winner against Mississippi State. Riddle also has one kickoff return to his credit, a 13-yarder against Southern Miss. Prep: As a junior at Tuscaloosa's Central High School, Riddle was an All-State selection after rushing for 1,700 yards. During his senior season under coach Buzz Busby, he had 216 carries for 1,301 yards and 19 touchdowns. Riddle had 12 catches for 141 yards and one touchdown, and he returned both punts and kickoffs. His performance earned him All-State honors once again, and he was named to The Birmingham News' Super All-State team. Personal: The son of Dennis Riddle and Gerald Brown, Riddle lists his uncle, Forrest Riddle, as his most admired leader. In his spare time, Dennis enjoys fishing, basketball and playing video games. Born 12-14-74. He is in pre-major studies.

87 Dwayne Rudd

■ Linebacker • Sophomore
6-2 • 232 • 1VL • Batesville, Mississippi

1994 Knoxville News Sentinel
SEC All-Freshman Team

Another true freshman who made an impact in 1994, Dwayne saw action in every game last year. Rudd turned in a game-high 10 tackles in the A-Day game and is the starter at weak linebacker heading into the fall. 1994 (Freshman)

Dwayne returned an interception 23 yards for a TD in the SEC Championship game. Rudd has added depth to the Tide's corps of talented linebackers. In 12 games, he totaled 26 tackles, caused two fumbles and intercepted two passes. His season-best is five tackles in a game, which he has done three times. The last came against Southern Miss. Prep: A top prospect in Mississippi, Rudd played for Willis Wright at South Panola High School. He and current Tide teammate Deshea Townsend were members of South Panola's 5A state championship team a year ago.

As a senior, Rudd turned in 119 tackles, 16 sacks, four fumble recoveries and one interception, despite missing three regular season games with a leg injury. Personal: The son of Mary Rudd, Dwayne enjoys fishing and playing basketball in his time away from football. His most admired athlete is current Kansas City Chief and former Crimson Tide standout Derrick Thomas. Born 2-3-76. Rudd is in pre-major studies.

86 Rod Rutledge

■ Tight End • Sophomore
6-4 • 243 • 1VL • Birmingham, Alabama

Rod played in every game last season at tight end and on special teams. He will once again see considerable playing time this year along with Patrick Hape and Tony Johnson. 1994 (Freshman) Rutledge saw action in all of Alabama's games in 1994, as both a tight end and a member of the special teams. He has demonstrated his proficiency at blocking this season, but he has yet to record a pass reception. His lone tackle of the year came against UT-Chattanooga. Prep: A four-year starter at Erwin High School, Rutledge had 19 catches for 331 yards and four touchdowns as a senior. Coached by Hal Riddle, he played both offense and defense as a prepster. Rutledge was rated the No. 6 player in the state by The Birmingham Post-Herald and was the No. 4 prospect on The Tuscaloosa News' "Sweet 16" list. In addition, he was a Birmingham News Super All-State pick. Personal: The son of Wallace and Rose Rutledge, Rod lists his father as his most admired leader. In his spare time, Rutledge enjoys playing Nintendo. Born 8-12-75. He is a human performance major.

13 Cedric Samuel

■ Cornerback • Junior
5-9 • 177 • 2VL • Demopolis, Alabama

After seeing action in every game last season at cornerback, Cedric came out of spring drills listed as the starter at free safety. 1994 (Sophomore): A starter in seven games this season, Cedric saw action on 502 snaps, including a season-high 73 against Tennessee in Knoxville. Against Florida in the SEC title game, Cedric was in on 68 plays. He was the Tide's fifth-leading tackler, recording 52 tackles and one stop behind the line. He had a pair of quarterback pressures, and one interception against Mississippi State which he returned for three yards. He had starts against UTC, Arkansas, Tulane, Georgia, Tennessee, Ole Miss and Florida. 1993 (Freshman) One of nine true freshmen to see action, Cedric played on special teams in every game but Vanderbilt. He started against Florida in the SEC Championship game in Alabama's nickel set. He played a total of 33 defensive snaps against Arkansas, La. Tech and Southern Miss and then 63 vs. Florida. In 11 games, Cedric has 11 tackles and a tackle for a three yard loss (against USM). Prep: Injured his hand in the first game of his senior season and played the entire year wearing a cast. Recorded over 60 tackles and three fumble recoveries. Also rushed for 186 yards on 29 carries. Coached by Shaun Bonds at Demopolis High School. Personal: The son of Elnona Marrisett, Cedric enjoys playing baseball. His most admired leader is Charles Barkley and if he could be anyone in his wildest dreams it would be Michael Jordan. Born 9-26-74. He is a human performance major.

33 Ed Scissum

■ Fullback • Sophomore
6-1 • 210 • 1VL • Attalla, Alabama

With Tarrant Lynch gone from the Tide backfield, Scissum stepped up in the spring as the leading candidate to fill the vacancy at fullback. 1994 (Freshman) Scissum has seen limited playing time in 1994, appearing in only four games. He has recorded three carries for eight yards. His longest run of the year, a six-yard carry, came against Auburn when he was called on to spell Tarrant Lynch. Prep: Scissum played for Raymond Farmer at Etowah High School. As a senior, he totaled over 2,000 yards of offense, including more than 1,600 rushing yards. Scissum had 21 rushing touchdowns and three touchdown catches. He was a 5A All-State selection and a Birmingham News Super All-State pick. The Tide's Freddie Kitchens and Toderick Malone were two of Scissum's teammates at Etowah. Personal: The son of Kenneth and Eulaine Scissum, his full name is Kenneth Edwin Scissum. He likes to play basketball, and he lists Michael Jordan as the person he would choose to be. Born 1-5-76. Scissum is a physical therapy major.

23 Andre Short

■ Strong Safety • Sophomore
5-11 • 205 • 1VL • LaGrange, Georgia

After seeing limited playing time in 1994, Andre was listed as the starting strong safety at the conclusion of spring drills. 1994 (Freshman): Playing mostly on special teams, Andre has seen action in every game this season for a total of 189 plays. He has contributed nine special teams tackles. 1993 (Redshirted) Prep: A Superprep All-American, Andre was ranked the 10th best defensive back in the country. An All-State performer in Class 4A and a USA Today Honorable Mention All-America. A three-year starter for LaGrange High School, his junior year he recorded 86 tackles and four interceptions, and as a senior he had 97 tackles and three INT's. As a junior he helped lead LaGrange to the prep National Championship. He was the team's MVP his senior year. Personal: The son of Sylvia Short and Charles Milam. His biggest accomplishment as a high school athlete was helping La-Grange High School win the national championship in 1992. He enjoys playing pool in his spare time. Born 9-19-74. He is majoring in sports fitness management.

61 Chris Sign

■ Offensive Guard • Freshman
6-2 • 250 • Squad • Arlington, Texas

1994 (Redshirted) Prep: Chris was a 5A All-District and All-Dallas Metro pick in 1993, as Lamar High School went 9-3 on the year and advanced to the state playoffs. He has two brothers who were starting centers and captains on Southwestern Conference teams, Bobby at Baylor and Matt at Rice. Personal: When off the football field, Matt enjoys collectibles. He said he came to Alabama for the tradition, the school and the people. His parents are Robert and Susan Sign. Born 4-19-75. He is an undecided major in the College of Communication.

89 Tito Smith

■ Linebacker • Freshman
6-3 • 200 • Squad • Birmingham, Alabama

1994 (Redshirted) Prep: Tito was listed as the No. 8 prospect on the Birmingham Post Herald's "10 Most Wanted" list, as he finished his senior season with 140 tackles at middle linebacker. He was also a member of the Birmingham News's Super All-State team. Personal: Tito listed Martin Luther King, Jr. as the leader he most admires, and if he could be anyone in his wildest dreams, he would be Derrick Thomas. The son of Henry and Thedora Smith, Tito was born 9-16-76. He is a pre-business major.

48 Trevis Smith

■ Fullback • Freshman
6-1 • 235 • Squad • Montgomery, Alabama

Trevis was another player to make a change from one side of the ball to the other this spring. Smith worked as a scout team linebacker last season, but he moved to fullback during spring workouts. 1994 (Red-shirted) Prep: Trevis was a first-team All-State selection in 1993 who collected 120 tackles and 12 sacks during his senior season. He was a late signee with the Tide, making his final decision in June of 1994. Trevis originally planned to play for Auburn, but after waiting almost six months for a scholarship, he sided with Alabama. Personal: Trevis is one of six children of Peacher and Dorothy Smith. He said his goal as a member of the Alabama football team is to "be successful at everything I do." His hobbies are football and motorcycle riding. Born 8-9-76. He is in pre-major studies.

63 Sage Spree

■ Right Tackle • Freshman
6-4 • 275 • Squad • Boligee, Alabama

1994 (Redshirted) Prep: Sage was listed as one of the top 10 offensive line prospects in the country by Football News. He finished his senior season with 77 tackles, 6 sacks and three fumble recoveries. He came to Alabama bench pressing 340 pounds and running the 40 yard dash in 5.1 seconds as an offensive lineman. Sage was listed as a Superprep All-American and a Blue Chip All-American. He graduated with a 3.4 GPA and a 25 on the ACT. Personal: Sage is the oldest of three children to Thed and Judy Spree. His great-great-grandfather also played football for the Tide in 1898. Sage said he grew up as an Alabama fan, and liked the school's tradition and location. Born 3-23-76. He is a pre-business major.

41 Ralph Staten

■ Linebacker • Junior
6-3 • 200 • 2VL • Semmes, Alabama

*1994 Second-Team All-SEC
 (Coaches)*

The team's second-leading tackler last season, Ralph has solidified his status as the starter at strong linebacker. 1994 (Sophomore): A thumb injury forced Ralph to miss the Ole Miss and LSU games, and he didn't play against Tulane, but he still managed to turn in 62 total tackles, second-best on the Tide team. He had three stops behind the line, one quarterback sack and one fumble recovery. He had a career-high 13 tackles against Vanderbilt. He was a starter against UTC, Vanderbilt, Arkansas, Georgia, Southern Mississippi and Tennessee and closed the season with 433 plays. 1993 (Freshman) Staten played in every game on special teams units registering 14 tackles. He made several big tackles on kickoff coverage teams and for the season was in on 142 special teams plays. Prep: One of the top prep linebackers in the state, Ralph recorded 156 tackles, five interceptions and blocked three FGs while playing at Mary Montgomery High School. Personal: The son of Dora and Ralph Staten, the athlete Ralph most admires is New York Jets LB Marvin Jones. Born 12-3-74. He is majoring in human performance.

28 Brian Steger

■ Runningback • Junior
6-3 • 210 • 2VL • New Market, Alabama

Brian had an outstanding performance in the A-Day game this past April. The junior rushed for 46 yards, caught three passes for 73 yards, and scored two touchdowns in leading the White team to a 16-10 victory. Steger will battle Dennis Riddle for the starting role at tailback. 1994 (Sophomore): A shoulder injury hampered Brian's play in 1994, as he participated in only 88 plays in seven games. Offensively, he produced 145 yards on 36 carries and had three rushing TDs. He also had two kickoff returns for 37 yards. 1993 (Freshman) A relative unknown to start the season, Brian quickly found his niche in the Alabama offense. Against Arkansas, he rushed nine times for 61 yards and caught two passes for 21 yards. He carried the ball 10 times against Louisiana Tech for 58 yards and had a career high day against Southern Miss, when he led the team in rushing with 99 yards and one TD on seven carries. In the fourth quarter, Brian bolted 67 yards on a first and 10 play, scoring a TD. For the year he had 46 rushes for 249 yards. He caught three passes for 39 yards. Prep: An all-state performer, Brian rushed for 1,640 yards and 25 touchdowns. He was The Huntsville Times 1992 Class 3A-4A MVP and was on The Birmingham News Class 4A All-State team while playing for Buster Middleton at Buckhorn High School. Personal: Lists Walter Payton as his most admired leader. The son of Alice Loovery. Born 12-8-74. He is majoring in human performance.

35 Hayden Stockton

■ Punter • Senior
6-0 • 193 • Squad • Double Springs, Alabama

Following his performance in the A-Day game, Hayden was listed as the number one candidate to replace the departed Bryne Diehl. Stockton punted four times for an average of 46.8 yards per boot, including a 58-yarder on his first attempt of the game. 1994 (Sophomore): Hayden punted twice for the Tide against UT-Chattanooga, averaging 40 yards per kick with a long punt of 45 yards. 1993 (Freshman): Did not see varsity action. 1992 (Redshirted) Prep: As quarterback for Winston County High, Hayden collected 3,994 career yards and 52 touchdowns, while also handling kicking duties. Personal: Hayden's father, Albert, was the wide receiver and punter for Wichita State in the early 1960s. His hobbies include golf and horseback riding. He lists his father as the leader he most admires because "he has supported and encouraged me all through my life." He is the son of Albert and Pat Stockton. Born 12-9-72. He is a human performance major.

■ Left Guard • Freshman
6-3 • 275 • Squad • Brentwood, Tennessee

A broken foot kept Josh out of spring training, but he should be ready for fall practice. 1994 (Redshirted) Prep: The Gatorade Circle of Champions Player of the Year in Tennessee, Josh was a three-year starter at Brentwood Academy. Brentwood finished runner-up in 2A his junior year and as a senior, helped his team to a 13-1 record and another runner-up spot. During his three-year career at Brentwood, Josh helped his team to a combined 40-3 mark, losing all three of those games in the state title matchup. He also earned Academic All-America honors in high school. Personal: The son of Cicely and Jim Swords, Josh enjoys lifting weights, music and watching professional sports. Born 11-24-74. He is a business major.

46 John Tanks

■ Linebacker • Junior
6-4 • 226 • 2VL • Butler, Alabama

Primarily a special teams player his first two seasons, John will continue in that role and hopes to break into the rotation at linebacker. 1994 (Sophomore): Playing mostly on special teams, John participated in every game but the season-opener against Tennessee-Chattanooga. He had three tackles and one fumble recovery against Tennessee. 1993 (Freshman)

Played in every game on the special teams' units and made the defensive lineup against Arkansas, Louisiana Tech, Southern Miss and Miss. State. Was in on a season-high 34 plays against USM and a total of 161 for the year. Registered 10 tackles for the year and recovered a fumble in the Tide's 36-25 win over Miss. State. 1992 (Redshirted) Prep: A Class 5A All-State linebacker, John had 95 solo tackles and 98 assists for the 6-4 Choctaw County High Indians. He was a defensive lineman for three years before moving to linebacker his senior year. Personal: The son of Mary and Jerry Tanks Jr., John enjoys hunting and fishing. The player he most admires is former Tide defensive end Eric Curry. Born 11-18-73. John is a criminal justice major.

96 Bryan Thornton

■ Defensive Tackle • Senior
6-7 • 280 • 3VL • Mobile, Alabama

One of the many talented returnees to the defensive front, Bryan will add even more depth to the defensive tackle position in 1995. 1994 (Junior): Playing in 11 of the Tide's 12 games, Bryan had 11 tackles and one quarterback pressure. He played a total of 77 plays from his defensive tackle position. 1993 (Sophomore) Played in seven games, a total of 60 saps. He played on the field goal and PAT units and played both tight end and defensive end against Louisiana Tech and Southern Miss. Was in on a season-high 23 plays against Southern Miss. 1992 (Freshman) Worked hard for playing time behind the two most talented defensive ends in the country. He played in five games recording six tackles, one for loss of six yards. He played a season-high 38 snaps against South Carolina recording three tackles, one for a six yard loss and a fumble recovery. 1991 (Redshirted) Prep: According to Super Prep Magazine, Bryan was the South's third-best player prior to the 1990 season. A knee injury as a junior slowed him somewhat, but he still had 10 quarterback sacks in five games. As a senior at LeFlore High School, he had 35 tackles, four sacks and two pass breakups. Personal: The son of Sarah and Samuel Thornton, Bryan lists pizza as his favorite food and Eddie Murphy as his favorite actor. He has three brothers, Patrick, Carl and Darrius. Born 2-17-73. He is majoring in human performance.

■ Cornerback • Sophomore
5-10 • 170 • 1VL • Batesville,
Mississippi

Following an impressive debut as a true freshman in 1994, Deshea will continue to hold down the starting job at right cornerback in the Tide secondary. 1994 (Freshman) Townsend stepped right into a starting position in the Tide's secondary. Through 12 games, Deshea recorded 30 solo tackles and nine assists for a total of 39. His best statistical performance came against Auburn, when he totaled nine tackles and had two pass break-ups while covering Frank Sanders most of the day. He then had a 42-yard interception return against Florida in the SEC Championship game. He is the team leader in pass break-ups with eight, and he has also returned punts on occasion this season. Townsend has 11 returns on the year and an average of 10.6 yards per return. Prep: Deshea was the quarterback for South Panola High School's 5A state championship team in 1992. He accounted for 1,800 yards of offense and 18 touchdowns, 10 rushing and eight passing, as a senior. Current teammate Dwayne Rudd also played with Townsend at South Panola. Personal: The son of Willie and Lena Townsend, Deshea says he enjoys just "chilling" in his spare time. Born 9-8-75. He is a computer science major.

39 Eric Turner

■ Strong Safety • Senior
6-1 • 200 • 3VL • Fort Payne, Alabama

Having seen playing time in every game since his freshman year of 1992, Eric will bring tremendous experience to the Tide secondary this season. He had significant playing time last year and, at the end of spring workouts, was listed as the backup to Andre Short at strong safety. 1994 (Junior): A backup strong safety, Eric played in every game with starts against Tulane and Georgia. He had a total of 400 snaps this season and turned in 17 tackles, one stop behind the line and had one interception against Tulane. He had blocked punts against LSU and Mississippi State. Both blocked punts led to Alabama touchdowns. 1993 (Sophomore) Played in every game on the specialty units and saw action in Alabama's nickel defense in several games. Was in on 11 tackles for the year. 1992 (Freshman) A true freshman, Eric came to the Capstone as a running back, but made the move to the defensive secondary when Blair Canale went down with a knee injury in a preseason scrimmage. He played in every game on special teams and made the defensive rotation in four games. For the year he had 14 tackles. Prep: Eric rushed for 1,035 yards and 10 TD's as a junior at Ft. Payne High School. His senior year he rushed for 430 yards in four games, but a knee injury ended his season early. Personal: He is the son of Lazenja and Walter Turner. His younger brother Taurus is a fullback on the Alabama squad. Born 1-20-74. Eric is a marketing major.

30 Taurus Turner

■ Fullback • Junior
6-1 • 200 • 2VL • Fort Payne, Alabama

Taurus saw limited playing time a year ago but should play a larger role this season as he fights for the starting job at fullback. 1994 (Sophomore): Playing basically on special teams, Taurus participated in nine of the Tide's games. A pinched nerve in his neck kept him out of the final three games of the season. He had 168 total plays. 1993 (Freshman) Worked hard during fall practice earning a spot as the Tide's backup fullback. Played backup to Tarrant Lynch in every game and started the Ole Miss game which Lynch missed with a sprained ankle. He carried the ball 22 times for 103 yards with a season high 38 yards coming in the season opener against Tulane. Prep: A member of the Tuscaloosa News Sweet 16 after rushing for 817 yards and 15 TDs on 148 carries as a senior at Fort Payne High. Personal: The son of Lazenja and Walter Turner, he is the younger brother of Tide safety Eric Turner. 66 Granison Wagstaff

■ Linebacker • Freshman
6-2 • 225 • Squad • Enterprise, Alabama

1994 (Redshirted) Prep: Granison was a three-year starter who had 115 tackles, 6 1/2 sacks, caused four fumbles and recovered three as a senior. He was a Birmingham News "Second Dozen" pick and was the No. 14 pick on the Tuscaloosa News' Sweet Sixteen list. Personal: When he's not playing football, Granison enjoys all sports, listening to music, meeting people and writing poetry. If he could be anyone in his wildest dreams, he would be Lawrence Taylor, "because of the relentless intensity he played with." He is the son of Allen and Helen Wagstaff. Born 12-11-75. He is a telecommunication and film major.

81 Edgar Walker

■ Defensive End • Sophomore
6-4 • 240 • Squad • Dothan, Alabama

Another talented defensive lineman, Edgar will try to break into the playing rotation at defensive end. 1994 (Freshman): Ed saw action in the first game of the season against Tennessee-Chattanooga. He participated in three plays. 1993 (Redshirted) Prep: One of the top defensive linemen in the state of Alabama, he was a first team All-State performer.

Walker played defensive end, defensive tackle and tight end, averaging 11 tackles a game for Dothan High School. He was rated the 10th best player by the Tuscaloosa News and was a Birmingham News Class 6A first team All-State performer in 1992. Personal: The son of Anna Mitchell, Edgar enjoys fishing, swimming and meeting new people. Born 5-31-74. He is a criminal justice major.

90 John Walters

■ Linebacker • Senior
6-2 • 225 • 3VL • Dallas, Texas

1994 SEC "Defensive Player of the Week" vs. Ole Miss

John has also played in every game since 1992, his freshman year, and he has been a starter since 1993. Walters will help anchor the Tide defense as the starting middle linebacker.

1994 (Junior): A starter in eight games this year, John closed the season tied as Bama's fourth-leading tackler with 57 total stops. He had six stops behind the line, one pass break-up and one caused fumble. He was named "SEC Defensive Player of the Week" after his 15-tackle performance against Ole Miss. John started at middle linebacker the final five games of the season after early season starts against Tennessee-Chattanooga, Tulane and Southern Mississippi.

1993 (Sophomore) John opened the season as a starter and played in every game. He started in six games, against Tulane, Arkansas, La. Tech, Ole Miss, Southern Miss and LSU. He also played on the specialty units in every game. The team's 10th-leading tackler, John had 30 tackles, two behind the line for 10 yards, and recovered a fumble against Southern Miss. He recorded a career best seven tackles against Ole Miss.

1992 (Freshman) John was one of five true freshmen to see action in 1992. The backup for Derrick Oden, he saw defensive action in five games and played on special teams in every game. He came up with 16 tackles and recovered a fumble against South Carolina. Prep: Highly recruited out of the talent-rich Lone Star state, John was an All-Metro player in Dallas as a junior at Lake Highlands High School. He was also an all-state selection and twice was his team's defensive MVP.

Personal: The son of Sharon and James Walters, John enjoys hunting, fishing and camping in his spare time. His grandfather played football at North Texas and his great grandfather attended Alabama. Born: 2-23-74 John is a marketing major.

15 William Watts

■ Placekicker • Junior
6-1 • 180 • 2VL • Pleasant Grove, Alabama

The strong-legged junior returns to handle the kickoff duties this season. With distance not a problem, William worked on accuracy over the spring.

1994 (Sophomore): Handling the Tide's kickoff duties this season, "Wild Thing" has been extremely effective in kicking the ball deep into the opponents' endzone. 1993 (Freshman) Handled the Tide's kickoff duties in 11 of 12 games. He recorded three tackles for the kickoff unit. Watts' best effort came against Auburn, when he kicked off three times, putting it in the endzone twice and at the goal line once. Prep: A team captain his junior and senior years, William was an All-Metro and All-State selection his senior year. Played for George White at Pleasant Grove High School. Personal: The son of George and Holli Watts, William lists his father as his most admired leader. In his spare time he enjoys hunting, fishing, golf and skiing. Born 12-29-74. He is a management major.

1 Marcell West

■ Flanker • Junior
5-11 • 177 • 2VL • Niceville, Florida

Seeing action in every game last year, Marcell proved to be a big-play receiver with two of his four catches resulting in touchdowns. He came out of the spring as the backup to Toderick Malone at the flanker position. 1994 (Sophomore): Playing in the receiver rotation, Marcell participated in all 12 games. He had four receptions for 101 yards and two TDs and had four rushes for 10 yards. His first career reception was a 29-yard TD reception from Jay Barker. His other TD reception was a 49-yarder against Auburn. He averaged a team-high 25.3 yards per reception. 1993 (Freshman) Made the receiver rotation in eight games, playing a total of 82 snaps. He played a season-high 23 snaps against Louisiana Tech. 1992 (Redshirted) Prep: Marcell, who hails from the same high school that produced Tide cornerback Tommy Johnson, was a Blue Chip All-America and made second team All-State as a utility player. A player with great speed, Marcell recorded the third-fastest 100-meter time (10.59) in the nation as a sophomore. He passed for 1,333 yards and 18 TDs as a quarterback for Niceville High School and rushed for another 450 yards and eight TDs. Personal: The son of Sandra and Eddie West, Marcell enjoys playing Nintendo, listening to music and going to the beach. Alabama's winning football tradition and opportunities for a quality education are what attracted Marcell to the Capstone. Born 5-24-73. He is a business major.

51 Laron White

■ Right Guard • Junior
6-2 • 272 • 2VL • Courtland, Alabama

After working as a reserve in 1994, Laron made great strides in the spring and finished as the starter at right guard. 1994 (Sophomore): Laron saw limited action at right guard in 11 of the Tide's 12 games. He participated in a total of 125 plays. 1993 (Freshman) Played in nine games as the backup to starter James Gregory. Was credited with three tackles. Prior to the Florida game, he made a move to right guard to help make up for the loss of starter Jon Stevenson. 1992 (Redshirted) Prep: Played offensive guard and defensive tackle for his father, head coach Louis White, at Courtland High School where he recorded 80 tackles in 1991. The Chiefs were 34-7 over White's three years and in 1991 the team finished 9-3, losing to McKenzie in the state 1A championship game. He was all-area his junior and senior years and all-state as a senior. Personal: The son of Mollie and Louis White, Laron's father was an All-American at Alcorn State. 35 Owen Winston

■ Cornerback • Freshman
6-0 • 175 • Squad • Montgomery, Alabama

Owen looks to add depth to the Tide secondary and should see significant playing time at the cornerback position. Winston had one pass break-up and one interception in the A-Day game. 1994 (Redshirted) Prep: Owen was a three-year starter at quarterback for Carver High School, throwing for over 2,200 yards and 17 touchdowns. Defensively, he was Carver's second-leading tackler with 62 stops, four interceptions and nine pass break-ups. He was named an All-Area defensive back and an All-Area quarterback. Personal: Owen enjoys playing the piano in his free time. He is the son of William and Delia Winston. Born 12-26-74. He is a pre-business major.

As a junior, caught 15 passes for 400 yards and five TDs and averaged 26.6 yards per catch and also played defensive back as a sophomore and junior. He also runs the hurdles and relays in track. Coached by Michael Sims.

Michael Feagin, ATH, 5-8, 180, Greenville (Greenville) — An All-State 5A pick, Michael is an excellent scat-back who was a two-year starter at runningback and three year starter at defensive back. He rushed for 1,680 yards and 16 TDs last season and caught 11 passes for 212 yards and five TDs. He also returned 16 punts for 289 yards. His single season rushing mark is school record. He led his team to the 1994 state 5A title. Michael ran track last year, participating in the sprints. Coached by Gene Allen.

Reggie Grimes, FB, 6-4, 240, Nashville, TN (Hunters Lane) — A three-year starter at defensive end and two-year starter at fullback. He had 1,388 yards rushing and 23 TDs as a prep senior after rushing for 1,100 yards and 11 TDs as a junior. He also caught a pair of TDs and was named first team All-State. A versatile athlete, Reggie played quarterback, fullback and linebacker for Hunters Lane and finished sixth in the state in the discus as a junior. Coached by Jerry Pigue.

Thomas Hill, DB, 5-10, 170, Meridian, MS (Meridian) — Extremely quick and physical, Thomas had 48 tackles, one interception, one fumble caused and recovered two fumbles as a prep senior. He was a second-team all-state pick at cornerback and was a three-year starter at defensive back. Meridian High School was 9-3-0 in 1994 and he was picked to the 5A All-State team as a senior. He also ran the sprint events on track team. As a junior, he broke-up 14 passes and made 50 solo tackles. Coached by Mac Barnes.

Kevin Jackson, DB, 6-2, 200, Dothan (Jones Junior College) — As a senior at Northview High School, Kevin sustained a knee injury in a playoff loss to Vigor. Playing linebacker at Jones Junior College last year, Kevin had 127 tackles, including 88 solos, five interceptions for 115 yards, four quarterback sacks, caused seven fumbles, had two blocked kicks and scored three defensive TDs. Coached at Jones Junior College by Parker Dykes.

Jason McDonald, OL, 6-6, 285, Theodore (Theodore) — Rated by some publications as the No. 1 offensive line prospect in Alabama, Jason was a two-year starter at Theodore. McDonald graded 90 percent as a prep senior for the Bobcats. He was an honorable mention All-State selection as a junior and was a first-team All-State pick as a senior. Coached by Joe Downey.

Michael Moore, OL, 6-4, 280, Fayette (Fayette County) — An excellent run blocker, Michael played both sides of the ball. He was a two-year starter, he compiled 15 quarterback sacks and 10 tackles for losses as a junior. He bench presses 385, squats 500 and runs a 5.0, 40-yard dash. He has the size, speed, strength and technique to be an excellent college offensive lineman. Coached by Waldon Tucker.

Chris Samuels, OL, 6-6, 260, Mobile (Shaw) — A neck injury sustained late in the season limited his playing time, but he graded 90% or better on offense and also contributed on defense. Has excellent quickness and has turned in a 4.9, 40-yard dash. He helped his team to an 8-3-0 record and a spot in the state playoffs. Coached by Tommy Davis.

Kelvin Sigler, DB, 6-1, 175, Mobile (Shaw) — Kelvin was named first-team All-State and the county's top defensive back after making 106 tackles, two interceptions, three fumble recoveries (one returned for a TD) and 11 pass break-ups. He is an excellent cover man and can play either cornerback or free safety. He is also an excellent kick returner, averaging 37 yards per punt return. He scored TDs in five straight games, including returns of 84, 96, 72 and 84 yards. As a junior, he returned two kickoffs for TDs, including a 98-yarder and had 107 tackles and six interceptions. He was the only junior named to the Class 6A All-State team in 1993. He has 10.7 speed in the 100 meters and 4.4 speed in the 40-yard dash. Coached by Tommy Davis.

Steven Stanley, DB, 6-4, 193, Leighton (Colbert County) — As a quarterback at Colbert County, Steven rushed for 1,089 yards and passed for more than 1,600 and 23 TDs. He led Colbert County to consecutive state titles for the first time in the school's history. He was named the Class 3A MVP after rushing for 1,089 yards and passing for 1,200 and 23 TDs, but will probably play defensive back in college. As a prep junior, he passed for 1,088 yards and nine TDs. He was a four-year starter as a defensive back and three-year starter as a quarterback. He finished his prep career with 16 interceptions. Steven set the state triple jump record as a junior and runs a sub 4.5 in the 40-yard dash. Coached by Jimmy Moore.

Michael Vaughn, WR, 6-1, 185, Clarksdale, MS (Clarksdale) — Great hands and leaping ability, Michael caught 64 passes for 1,081 yards and 17 TDs as a senior while earning All-State honors. Michael also had 808 yards and six TDs on kick returns. He had 37 receptions for 740 yards and 14 TDs as a junior. He had five interceptions as a defensive back and averaged 27 yards on kickoff returns. His 40 career TD catches is a Mississippi high school record. He also played defensive back, recording 53 tackles and four interceptions. Coached by Jesse Murphree.

Clint Waggoner, DL, 6-5, 220, Fairburn, GA (Landmark Christian) — An All-State pick as a senior, Clint turned in 102 tackles, 55 solos, 18 quarterback sacks and four fumble recoveries. On offense, Waggoner had 28 receptions for 370 yards and two TDs. In addition, he scored four, two-point conversions. A starter since the ninth grade, Clint maintained a 4.1 GPA through his prep career. He played both tight end and defensive line and led his team as a junior with 16 catches for 266 yards and six TDs and also turned in 15 quarterback sacks as a defensive end. He has an older brother who plays linebacker at Georgia Tech. Coached by Bill Thorn.

Gene Stallings Head Coach

One of the most successful coaches in Alabama football history, Gene Stallings began his sixth season at the Capstone on Jan. 11, 1995. During that short period, Stallings has posted a sensational 52-10-1 overall record as the Tide's head coach and has taken his team to five straight bowl games, posting a 4-1-0 record in those post-season outings. His teams have averaged 10.2 wins a season and the 1994 squad finished their four-year careers with a school record 45-4-1 mark. Stallings guided the Tide to a 12-1-0 record in 1994, his only loss a one-point defeat to Florida in the SEC Championship game.

In the span of five short seasons, Stallings has won a national and SEC championship and led the Tide to three straight SEC Western Division titles. He has twice been named SEC Coach of the Year (1992 and 1994) and he was also named the Paul Bryant/FWAA Coach of the Year in 1992.

He reached 52 wins after 63 games sooner than any previous Alabama coach other than Frank Thomas, who won 52 games from 1931-36. Stallings has posted a 32-5-1 league record, good for an .855 winning percentage.

His 1994 team finished 12-1-0 overall, 8-0-0 in league play and then defeated Ohio State, 24-17 in the CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl to finish No. 5 in the AP poll and No. 4 in the USA Today/CNN Coaches poll. It marked the third time in five years that Stallings has led the Tide to a top-five ranking in the final polls. In the AP poll, his teams have finished 5th (1994), 14th (1993), 1st (1992) and 5th (1991). In the USA Today/CNN Coaches poll, his teams have finished 4th (1994), 13th (1993), 1st (1992) and 5th (1991). His 1990 team was the only one to not finish in either poll's top-twenty-five.

Stallings is fond of saying "the fun is in the winning," although his journey through the jungles of collegiate football has been sprinkled with trials and tribulation. But, it has also been a satisfying one.

Celebrating his 60th birthday just seven days prior to beginning his sixth spring practice at Alabama, he is philosophical about his 38-year ride through the coaching profession. He understands the intricacies of the collegiate football world and has once against put Alabama atop its accustomed height on the college football scene.

He has assembled one of the most respected coaching staffs in the country and spearheaded a recruiting philosophy that has brought some of the nation's most talented players to the Capstone. "I can't say enough about our assistant coaches," he says. "They are the best group of coaches in America."

But let there be no doubt, Stallings has his mark on this team as he spreads the word about Alabama football through his many speaking appearances around the United States.

When he took over the reigns at the University on Jan. 11, 1990, the Alabama faithful welcomed an old friend back to the Capstone. Stallings' ties to Alabama are strong and flavored by association with some of Alabama's best. He served as an assistant coach under the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1958-64 and saw Alabama win two national championships and two Southeastern Conference titles during his tenure.

His first year back at Alabama did not begin the way Stallings wanted, with the Tide losing three straight games by a total of eight points. In addition to the losses, Stallings watched three starters go down with season-ending injuries. The winner he is though, Stallings picked up the Alabama team and led it to wins in seven of its last nine contests, capped off with a win over Auburn, the first in four years for Bama.

In Stallings second year, he collected wins over Tennessee and Auburn, while leading the Tide to an 11-1-0 season. His Crimson Tide team scored two shutouts (Georgia 10-0 and Tulane 62-0) and didn't allow Auburn a touchdown for the first time since 1975.

With all eyes on the Tide in 1992, Stallings and his staff produced Alabama's first perfect regular season since 1979 by going 12-0-0 and then winning the Sugar Bowl to finish 13-0-0 and produce a national championship. He was picked as the SEC Coach of the Year by numerous organizations and was the Football Writers' Paul Bryant Coach of the Year.

His 1993 Crimson Tide finished with an 8-3-1 regular season, despite having 11 starters miss a total of 21 games. The Tide then defeated North Carolina in the Gator Bowl, 24-10 to finished 9-3-1 on the season with a No. 13 ranking in the final USA Today/CNN and UPI polls and a No. 14 spot in the final AP poll.

In 1994, the Tide missed playing for another national championship by a single point, the margin of defeat to Florida in the SEC Championship game. Alabama was 11-0-0 going into the game, but lost 24-23. Alabama went on to beat Ohio State, 24-17 in the CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl.

After 12 years as a collegiate head coach, Stallings brings a mixture of football wisdom, discipline and down-home humor to add to his coaching influences from the like of Bryant and Tom Landry. He spent 11 years with Bryant as a player and coach, and then worked another 14 years with Landry and the Dallas Cowboys.

Born in Paris, Texas, on March 2, 1935, Stallings played high school football for Paris High School where he earned all-district honors in football and basketball. He was selected second team, all-state at the end of his senior year and he was also a star on the Paris High golf team.

Stallings spent his collegiate playing days under Bryant's reign at Texas A&M and was one of the Aggies who endured the now famous Junction training camp in 1954. In 1955, he earned All-Southwest Conference honors and was chosen, along with Jack Pardee and Lloyd Hale, as tri-captains of the 1956 squad which went 9-0-1, won the SWC title and finished fifth in both the AP and UPI polls.

After his playing days were over, Stallings, stayed on as a graduate assistant coach at A&M while earning his bachelor's degree in physical education. One year later, he moved to Tuscaloosa as a fulltime assistant coach under Bryant.

While at Alabama (1958-64), the Tide went 60-11-5 and won a pair of Southeastern Conference championships and two national titles (1961 and 1964). The 1961 team went 11-0-0 and then beat Arkansas, 10-3 in the 1962 Sugar Bowl. Stallings coached the secondary for six years before being appointed as assistant head coach in charge of the defense in 1964.

The following year, his alma mater, Texas A&M, called and he got his first head coaching job. The then 29-year-old Stallings remained at College Station for seven seasons, compiling a 27-45-1 record. The 1967 season proved to be his best, as the Aggies captured the Southwest Conference championship by closing out the season with seven consecutive wins after beginning the season 0-4-0.

Stallings then moved into the professional ranks in 1972 when he took a job with Landry and the Dallas Cowboys. He remained on the Cowboys staff for 14 season and saw Dallas win seven division titles (1973, 1976-79, 1981 and 1985), three conference championships (1975, 1977-78) and one Super Bowl (1978).

During Bebes' tenure with the Cowboys, Dallas appeared in three Super Bowls (1976, 1978 and 1979). He coached Cowboys All-Pros Cliff Harris, Charlie Waters, Everson Walls and Michael Downs.

In 1986 he made his NFL head coaching debut with the St. Louis Cardinals. The Cards led the NFL in total defense and ranked fourth overall in the NFL. His 1987 teams, the last Cardinal team to play in St. Louis, ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense. When the Cardinals moved to Phoenix, Arizona, in 1988, Stallings' team ranked fourth in the NFL in total offense. In four years in the Cardinals' organization, Stallings compiled a 23-34-1 record in one of the toughest divisions (NFC East) in the league.

Both Stallings, and his wife Ruth Ann, are active in charity projects and in his spare time, Stallings devotes time to a variety of activities. In 1960, he authored Bear Bryant on Winning Football, a technical football book about Bryant's coaching philosophies. For a number of years he has also given time to several community charitable activities. In 1991, he began sponsorship of an annual charity golf tournament to raise money for the Tuscaloosa Association of Retarded Citizens. He was also instrumental in raising money for building the new RISE Center on campus.

Elected to the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1982, the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, and the Texas Hall of Fame this winter, Stallings has also received the 1982 National Boys Club's Alumni-of-the-Year Award. He was recipient of the 1983 Dallas Father-of-the-Year Award. In June of 1991, the Stallings family was honored as Family of the Year by the Tuscaloosa Association for Retarded Citizens. He presently serves on the Board of Trustees at Abilene Christian University.

Stallings and his wife Ruth Ann have five children: Anna Lee, Laurie, Jacklyn, John Mark, Martha Kate and five grandchildren. His hobbies include golf, fishing and hunting.

1995 OPPONENTS IN BOLD

Mike Dubose

■ Defensive Line

10th Year at Alabama (Jan. 20, 1990)

Bachelor's Degree Alabama '74
Master's Degree Alabama '75

Coach Mike Dubose has gained experience at every level of the game, from his days as a high school coach in Prattville, Alabama to his years in the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The results are obvious.

He has supplied the NFL with five first round draft picks (Emanuel King, 25th pick by the Cincinnati Bengals in 1985; Jon Hand, fourth pick by the Indianapolis Colts in 1986; Cornelius Bennett, second pick by the Indianapolis Colts in 1987; John Copeland, fifth pick by the Cincinnati Bengals in 1992 and Eric Curry, sixth pick by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1992) not to mention the numerous other former players who have also enjoyed successful careers in the professional ranks.

The return to his alma mater to coach in 1990 has proven instrumental in the Tide's success over the past five seasons. In Alabama's 1992 national championship season, the Tide defense, which gave up only five rushing touchdowns the entire season, led the nation in total defense (194.20 yards per game) and in rushing defense (55.0 yards per game).

As a player under the watchful eye of legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant, Dubose experienced the tradition of Alabama football first hand. He was a part of three SEC Championship teams (1972, 1973, 1974) and played on the Tide's 1973 national championship team. In his three years as an anchor on the defensive line, the Tide posted a 32-4 record.

In his previous nine years at Alabama, five of his talents garnered All-America honors and nine were chosen All-SEC.

He was selected as the 1991 Working Coach of the Year by the Birmingham Touchdown Club, and has coached two players who have finished in the top 10 in the Heisman Trophy race: Cornelius Bennett, seventh in 1987 and Eric Curry, 10th in 1992. Bennett won the Lombardi in 1986 and Curry was one of four Lombardi finalists in 1992.

Born January 5, 1953 in Opp, Alabama, Mike is married to the former Polly Ann Martin, also of Opp, and they have two children, Juli Ann (18) and Michael Jr. (14).

Jim Fuller

■ Offensive Guards and Centers

12th Year at Alabama (Dec. 15, 1983)

Bachelor's Degree Alabama '67

The dean of Alabama's coaching staff, Fuller has been at his current position since December 15, 1983 when he joined Ray Perkins' staff. In his 11 years with the Tide, Alabama has posted a 103-30-2 record, won two Southeastern Conference Championships and one national championship, in 1992.

The Alabama native is well schooled in the rich tradition of Crimson Tide football. Fuller played offensive guard and on the defensive line for two national championship teams (1964-65) as well as the 1966 SEC Championship team. During his playing career for Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, Alabama went 30-2-1 losing only one regular season game in three years.

His coaching credentials include a seven-year stint as the head coach at Jacksonville State. When he was at Jacksonville State, the Gamecocks advanced to the Division II playoffs in 1976-77-78-81-82 and 1983. Fuller led the Gamecocks to four Gulf South Conference Championships and was (48-20-0) in those seven seasons.

In the past 11 years, Fuller has coached eight All-SEC players (Mike Adcock, Terrill Chatman, Bill Condon, Wes Neighbors, Larry Rose, Tobie Sheils, Roger Shultz, George Wilson) and two second team All-Americans (Wes Neighbors, Larry Rose).

Fuller's players have not only received honors on the field but in the classroom as well. Eight of his student-athletes have been named to the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll.

In 1990 he was named Working Coach of the Year by the Birmingham Touchdown Club.

Born on June 11, 1945, he is married to the former Peggy Alldredge of Fairfield. They have two daughters, Kim and Kathy. Kim is married to Chris Craven and they have a son, Drew.

Woody McCorvey

■ Assistant Head Coach/Receivers

Sixth Year at Alabama (Jan. 24, 1990)

Bachelor's Degree Alabama State '72
Master's Degree West Florida '77

Teams that win championships are made up of champion-caliber assistant coaches. Woody McCorvey, entering his sixth year at Alabama, most definitely fits that description.

He began his career at Tate High School in Gonzales, Fla., in 1972 and jumped into the collegiate ranks in 1978. After one season at North Carolina Central, McCorvey began a four-year stint at Alabama A&M.

The offensive mind of McCorvey led the A&M Bulldogs to top 20 rankings in total offense, passing offense, rushing offense and scoring offense all four years.

The wheels are continuing to turn in McCorvey's offensive mind as he instructs the Tide receivers. His efforts have been successful in his short tenure at Alabama. He was mentor to David Palmer, Alabama's reception leader for a single season (1993). Under McCorvey's direction, Palmer also broke the school record for receiving yards in a single season (1,000) and yards in a single game (217) vs. Vanderbilt. He was the third-place vote getter in the Heisman Trophy race in 1993, the highest finish ever for an Alabama player in the Heisman balloting.

Both Palmer and another of McCorvey's students, Kevin Lee are now enjoying careers in the NFL. McCorvey has seen two of his Alabama athletes earn All-SEC recognition (Palmer and Lamonde Russell) and Palmer was a first-team All-American.

He possesses ACC Championship rings from the 1986, 1987 and 1988 seasons at Clemson and a 1992 SEC and National Championship ring from Alabama.

Born on September 30, 1950, Woody is married to the former Ann Brown of Montgomery, Ala. and the couple has one son, Marlon.

Bill Oliver

■ Defensive Coordinator/Secondary

15th Year at Alabama (Jan. 21, 1990)

Bachelor's Degree Alabama '62

Commonly referred to as "Brother," Bill Oliver is one of the finest defensive coaches in America. His credentials tell the story. In 1990, Oliver's return season to Alabama after coaching at Clemson, the Tide secondary led the nation in pass efficiency defense.

In 1992, Oliver was instrumental in designing the defensive scheme that Alabama used to defeat the Miami Hurricanes (34-13) in the 1993 Sugar Bowl. In that game, the Tide held the 'Canes to just 48 rushing yards on 18 attempts.

His heritage of Alabama football dates back to his playing days under Coach Paul Bryant from 1959-61. As a player under Bryant, Oliver earned three football letters and played on the 1961 national championship team. A dual-sport athlete, Oliver also earned two baseball letters at Alabama.

Entering his 15th year of coaching at Alabama (33rd overall), Oliver has coached three Tide All-Americans and 17 All-SEC selections. Under his tutelage last season, cornerback Deshea Townsend was selected to the SEC All-Freshman team. He has had two players selected in the first round of the NFL draft.

As a player and now a coach, Oliver has earned five national championship rings (1961, 1973, 1978, 1979, 1992). He also collected three ACC Championships while at Clemson (1986-87-88) and 10 SEC Championships (1961-71-72-73-74-75-77-78-79-92) at Alabama.

Since his return to Alabama in 1990, the Tide defense has been among the nation's leaders every season. In the past five years, 13 times the Tide defense has held opponents to under 100 yards passing, and Alabama defenders have picked off 92 passes, returning 10 of them for touchdowns. Alabama has recorded 27 shutouts in his 14-year tenure with the Tide.

In both 1977 and 1993, Oliver was selected the SEC Working Coach of the Year by the Birmingham Touchdown Club.

Oliver was born on November 1, 1939. He is married to the former Sue Kelly. They have three children Bill Jr., Kelly and Brad.

Danny Pearman

■ Offensive Tackles/Kicking Game

Sixth Year at Alabama (April 15, 1992)

Bachelor's Degree Clemson '87
Master's Degree Clemson '89

Danny first joined the Tide staff as a graduate assistant in 1990. After two years serving in that capacity, he was hired as a full-time assistant. His responsibilities encompass both the kicking game and offensive tackles. Pearman watched this spring as one of his talents, punter Bryne Diehl, was selected in the seventh round of the NFL draft by the New York Giants. In 1994, another of his players, offensive lineman Roosevelt Patterson, was selected by the Los Angeles Raiders in the fifth round of the NFL draft.

Another of his players, place kicker Michael Proctor, was selected first team All-SEC last year. Games are won and lost with the kicking game and last year's Georgia game is a perfect example. With 1:12 remaining and Alabama trailing by two, Proctor kicked a game-winning 32-yard field goal.

Pearman began his coaching career at his alma mater, Clemson, in 1988 as a graduate assistant. After two years with the Tigers, he joined the Tide staff in 1990, Gene Stallings first year at the Capstone. While playing and coaching at Clemson, Pearman was associated with former Alabama all-star Danny Ford, and current Alabama assistants Woody McCorvey and Bill Oliver.

In his playing days at Clemson, Pearman earned three varsity letters, was a strength team All-America in 1987 and the Tigers won two ACC Championships (1986, 1987). As a graduate assistant at Clemson, he helped the Tigers to another ACC title in 1988.

Born February 17, 1965, he married the former Kristy Sewell of Birmingham on June 26, 1993. In his spare time he enjoys golf, jogging and fishing.

Randy Ross

■ Recruiting Coordinator

Sixth Year at Alabama (March 19, 1990)

Bachelor's Degree St. Bernard '75

It takes great football players to make a championship team. Alabama gets the great players due in large part to the dedication and hard work of recruiting coordinator Randy Ross. His valuable experience in evaluating players comes from years as a coach at both the high school and collegiate levels.

Ross enjoyed a successful collegiate career playing baseball at St. Bernard College before embarking on a career in the coaching ranks. His first step into the coaching profession was at the high school level in Alabama where he spent three years as an assistant at Gadsden and Southside High Schools and then nine years as a high school head coach at Southside and then Scottsboro.

He made his jump into the collegiate ranks in 1987 when he joined Watson Brown's staff as the quarterback coach at Vanderbilt. When Tide head coach Gene Stallings was hired in 1990, he lured Ross to Tuscaloosa, a move that has paid enormous dividends for Alabama football.

In Ross' five seasons at Alabama, the Tide has attracted some of the finest talent from across the country and year-in and year-out, Alabama is successful in recruiting the top players in Alabama to continue their careers wearing crimson and white.

Born Oct. 6, 1953, he is married to the former Ann Lowe.

Jeff Rouzie

■ Linebackers

Bachelor's Degree Alabama '73

Jeff is another product of the University of Alabama who has returned to continue the rich tradition of Crimson Tide football. Rouzie's first experience at Alabama was as a player in 1970-71. He earned the Most Valuable Lineman award in the 1970 Bluebonnet Bowl, was the Chevrolet Defensive Player of the Game against LSU in 1971 and earned All-SEC recognition that same year. His playing career was cut short by an automobile accident, but he then got his first taste of coaching as a student coach in 1972 and 1973 while earning his degree.

After a few years coaching at high schools in Florida, Rouzie returned to his alma mater as the linebacker coach in 1977. In the next five years, he helped Alabama collect two of its 12 national championships (1978-79) and another four SEC Championship titles.

He coached one of the greatest all-time linebackers in Tide history, Barry Krauss, who is best remembered for his "Goal Line Stand" stop of Penn State's Mike Guman to preserve the 1979 Sugar Bowl win and the national championship. That 1979 defense led the nation in scoring defense, allowing only 5.3 points per game.

Rouzie has twice taken time off from coaching to enter the business world, but each time has returned to coach the Tide. Since his return to the Capstone in 1991, the Tide has recorded six shutouts and 22 times has held opponents to under 100 yards rushing.

In 1992, the Tide went six straight games without allowing an opponent 100 rushing yards. In four of those six games and six for the year, Alabama held the opponent to under 50 yards rushing. That same year, the Tide defense led the nation in total defense (194.20 yards per game) and in rushing defense (55.0 yards per game).

In his 10 previous years as a coach at Alabama, Rouzie tutored two All-Americans, five All-SEC players and six of his talents have gone on to play in the NFL.

Born on January 9, 1951, he is married to the former Sarah Joyce Pyron. They have two children, Jennifer (18) and Catherine (13).

Homer Smith

■ Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Fourth Year at Alabama (Jan. 15, 1994)

Bachelor's Degree Princeton '54
Master's Degree Stanford '60
Master's Degree Harvard '82

Regarded as the finest offensive mind in the country, Homer Smith returned to the Capstone from UCLA a year ago, and now begins his second year on Gene Stallings staff.

In his first year back at Alabama, Smith coached quarterback Jay Barker to record breaking performances. Last season, under his tutelage, Barker was the SEC Player of the Year, won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm award, was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Outstanding Quarterback award and was fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting. He set school records for career pass attempts, completions and yardage.

Smith's return to the Capstone came after guiding the UCLA Bruins' offense for four years. In those years, he increased the team's offensive output by almost 25 percent and in 1991 produced the Pac-10's second best offensive unit. That year he was tabbed the nation's top assistant coach by Lindy's.

Smith enjoyed a playing career at Princeton, where he earned All-East and All-Ivy League honors at fullback as a junior and senior. He was also a standout in track. He began his coaching career at Stanford in 1958, after being named freshman coach. He remained there for three years while earning a master's degree in business.

He then moved on to the Air Force Academy where he coached the backfield for four years. His next two coaching jobs were as head coach at Davidson and then Pacific before recording his first of three stints as the offensive coordinator at UCLA.

In 1973 under Smith's offensive system, the Bruin offense set school records, which still stand, in total yards (470.6) and rushing yards per game (400.3).

The next five years were spent as head coach at Army where he was named the 1977 Eastern College Coach of the Year after his team broke all the existing school passing records.

He took a one-year leave from coaching (1979) to pursue his Master's in Theological Studies at Harvard, which he completed in 1982. Smith returned to UCLA in 1980 where he coached the quarterbacks and receivers and served as the offensive coordinator. While at UCLA, Smith tutored quarterback Tom Ramsey, who led the nation in passing efficiency and ranked seventh in total offense.

In 1987 Smith moved to the NFL as the offensive coordinator for the Kansas City Chiefs, a position he held for one season before coming to Alabama in 1988. In his second year with the Tide (1989), Alabama backup quarterback Gary Hollingsworth came off the bench in the second game of the year and guided Alabama to a 10-2 record, a tie for the SEC Championship and its first Sugar Bowl berth since 1979. Under the guidance of Smith, Hollingsworth and four other Tide offensive players were chosen first team All-SEC.

In his 36 years of coaching, Smith has provided a pipeline to the NFL. Every quarterback that started a game during Smith's second tenure at UCLA—Tom Ramsey, Jay Schroeder, Rick Neuheisel, Steve Bono, David Norrie and Matt Stevens—went on to careers in the National Football League. He also coached five of the most prolific receivers in school history in Mike Sherrard, Karl Dorrell, Cormac Carney, Willie Anderson and Jojo Townsell, all of whom made at least 100 career receptions. Sherrard, Anderson and Townsell each had successful careers in the NFL.

Born Oct. 9, 1931, he is married to the former Kathryn Haskell. They have two married daughters, Kimberly Hall and Carolyn Carpenter and one grandson, Taylor Dean Hall.

He has authored several books including Handbook for Coaching the Football Passing Attack, Installing Football's Wishbone T Attack and A Complete Offensive Playbook.

This past winter, he published his first fiction novel, A Game To Play.

Ivy Williams

■ Runningbacks

Second Year at Alabama (April 5, 1994)

Master's Degree Xavier '72

Ivy enters his second year with the Tide after leading a successful rushing attack in 1994. One of his products, Sherman Williams landed on both the AP and Coaches' first team All-SEC. This spring Williams was drafted by the NFL's Dallas Cowboys in the second round.

Williams' wealth of knowledge comes from years as a player and coach at both the professional and collegiate levels. At Xavier, where he lettered four years (1968-71), Williams was the team's leading scorer and pass receiver as well as being named to the Legion of Honor as a team captain.

His 23 years of coaching experience began at his alma mater, where he served as a graduate assistant for one year. He gained his first full-time position at the high school level, coaching the backfield at Middletown (Ohio) High School. In 1974, he moved to the collegiate ranks as the backfield coach at Marshall University.

His coaching stops include Arizona State, New Mexico State, Kansas, Kansas State, Akron, Texas Tech and the NFL's Detroit Lions. At one point in his tenure at ASU, the Sun Devils led the nation in total offense. At Texas Tech, the Red Raiders led the Southwest Conference in both rushing and passing offense in 1992 and 1993. In 1993, he coached Lloyd Hill to All-America honors.

The native Floridian, born on August 12, 1949, is married to the former Barbara Washington and they have two children Blair (14) and Courtney (8).

LeBaron Caruthers

■ Strength and Conditioning Coach

Sixth Year at Alabama (January 20, 1990)

Bachelor's Degree North Carolina State, '77

Championship teams are made of great players, who are in the best condition to take the playing field. In order to be the best, you must be coached by the best and in the area of strength and conditioning, LaBaron Caruthers is recognized nationally as one of the best in his field.

In his playing days, Caruthers played offensive tackle at East Carolina in 1972 before transferring to N.C. State. For the Wolfpack, he was a two-time track and field All-America in the shot put.

His coaching career began at Auburn, where he served as a graduate assistant track coach from 1978-79. His portfolio in strength and conditioning includes stops at SMU, the New England Patriots and the Phoenix Cardinals.

During his tenure at SMU, the Mustangs won the 1981 Southwest Conference Championship. He competed in the 1980 Olympic Trials in the shot put and was the Texas super heavyweight division Olympic lifting champion.

In 1983, while with the Patriots, he became one of the first NFL strength and conditioning coaches to study Soviet strength and conditioning methodology at the highly acclaimed Institute of Sport and Physical Education in Moscow. In 1987, he became the first NFL strength coach to study at the world-renown German College of Physical Culture.

In 1992, he was voted Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by USA Sports Fitness, the organization of the NFL strength and conditioning coaches. On Feb. 11, 1993, LeBaron received the Emrich/Riecke/Jones award, symbolic of the nation's top collegiate strength coach, presented by USA Sports Fitness. This year, LaBaron has been named the Strength and Conditioning Professional of the Year by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Born on April 20, 1954, he and his wife Kim have two sons: Chase and Lane.

Tank Conerly

■ Athletic Equipment Director

Ninth Year at Alabama (July 1,
Bachelor's Degree Ole Miss,
1980

Recognized as one of the nation's best in his field,
Conerly has the all-important role of managing the athletic department's equipment needs.

He came to Alabama in 1987
after serving as head equipment manager at Duke from 1983-87. While at Duke, Conerly was responsible for purchasing, inventory control and fitting for 22 sports.
Additionally, he did the equipment purchasing for the Duke Physical Education Department.

A native of Jackson, Miss., Conerly was a student manager at Ole Miss for four years.

Born May 24, 1956, he is married to the former Debra Pennington of Memphis, Tenn. They have one daughter, Anna, six years old.

Terry Jones

■ Asst. Strength and Conditioning Coach

Eighth Year at Alabama (May 1, 1988)
Bachelor's Degree Alabama,
1978

A former Alabama football standout, Terry Jones is in his eighth year assisting the strength and conditioning program. He assists with the strength and conditioning

program for football and heads up the programs for the men's and women's basketball teams.

Jones played both center and defensive tackle for the Crimson Tide from 1974-77. In those years,
Alabama won three SEC Championships, two Sugar Bowl titles and the 1976 Liberty Bowl crown. After
his playing career with the NFL's Green Bay Packers for eight years.

Born November 8, 1956, he is married to the former Willie Mays Edwards. The couple has four children:
Terry, Jr. (15), Teresha (14), Alisha (6) and Jason (3).

Bill McDonald

■ Head Athletic Trainer

Ninth Year at Alabama (January 25, 1987)
Bachelor's Degree Alabama,
1967
Master's Degree Alabama, 1968

Bill McDonald returned to his alma mater in 1987 after serving as head athletic trainer at Georgia Tech for 15 years.

He began his career as a trainer and assistant basketball coach at Clarkston (Ga.)
High School from 1968-71. From there he took on a position as Consulting Trainer for the Cobb County School System and Athletic Trainer for Wheeler High School from 1971-72. He joined the Georgia Tech staff in 1974 and remained with the Yellow Jackets until 1987.

A native of Carbon Hill, Ala., McDonald was the basketball manager for Wimp Sanderson at Carbon Hill High School and later became a basketball student manager/trainer for Sanderson and Hayden Riley at the University of Alabama.

Born in Birmingham on May 10, 1946, he is married to the former Dian Cook of Carbon Hill and they have two sons, Scott and Bryan. In his leisure time, Bill enjoys being with his family and fishing.

Jack Rutledge

■ Bryant Hall Resident Director

25th Year at Alabama (March 7, 1990)
Bachelor's Degree Alabama, 1962

Rutledge, who first joined the Crimson Tide staff in 1966, has served in various capacities with the Alabama program.

He began his coaching career at Demopolis High School in 1962 where he remained until taking the head coaching job at Sheffield High in 1965. One year later he returned to his alma mater as the center and kicking specialist coach under head coach Paul Bryant. In 1975, he began his first stint as the director of Bryant Hall, a position he held until 1984.

Rutledge then entered private business until returning for his second tenure as dorm director in 1990.

In his high school playing days at Woodlawn High School in Birmingham, he led the team in rushing and scoring and helped win back-to-back state championships. At Alabama, he lettered three years for Coach Bryant and played on the 1961 national championship team.

Since his playing days at Alabama, Rutledge has been known to many as "Governor" due to his resemblance to former Alabama governor Jim Patterson.

Born on May 24, 1938, he is married to the former Norma Jean Wilson. The couple has two sons, Tim and David.

Dabo Swinney

■ Graduate Assistant

Bachelor's Degree Alabama, 1992

Dabo first joined the Tide staff as a graduate assistant in the strength and conditioning program. Last year was his first as a graduate assistant on-the-field coach.

Swinney began his playing career at Alabama as a walk-on wide receiver in 1989. He later earned a scholarship. A three-year letterman, he was a member of Alabama's 1992 SEC and national championship team. As a player he participated in the 1990 and 1993 Sugar Bowls, the 1991 Fiesta Bowl, and the 1991 Blockbuster Bowl.

He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Alabama in health care management. Swinney is currently working on his master's in Business Administration.

Born November 20, 1969, he is married to the former Kathleen Bassett of Pelham.

The University of Alabama's rich football tradition comes to life everyday at the Paul W. Bryant Museum, which has been enjoyed by more than a quarter million people since opening in 1988.

Even if you've seen it before, you haven't seen it all, as the Museum is constantly changing and updating its exhibits to give a fresh look at the legendary history of University of Alabama athletics.

Located on Bryant Drive across from Coleman Coliseum, the Paul W. Bryant Museum offers more than 100 years of Alabama football history through exhibitions of photographs, memorabilia, and videos.

Bryant Museum exhibit attract fans of all ages.

"The Bryant Museum is a good place to spend a day just for fun," said Kenneth Gaddy, Museum director. "We also welcome sports scholars and students, who can take advantage of our historical resources."

Exhibits trace the history of UA football from its introduction by William Gray Little in 1892 to the present. Also featured are the careers of the University's football coaches and players, as well as highlights of Alabama's championships and honors.

Displays include a re-creation of Bryant's office and a press box with recordings of historic game highlights as they were announced by the Alabama Radio Network. The "Echoes of Heroes" exhibit incorporates new touch screen computer technology to honor the people behind the scenes who added to the tradition.

Prominent exhibits include a bronze bust of Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant by Blair Buswell, who sculpts busts of Pro Football Hall of Fame honorees, as well as "The Sack," the painting by renowned sports artist Daniel Moore portraying Cornelius Bennett's famous tackle of Notre Dame's quarterback in 1986.

The 16,000-square-foot Museum includes a sports research library with books, programs, media guides, articles, audio tapes and films on a variety of sports. The library contains books from the personal libraries of Coach Frank Thomas and Coach Bryant, as well as football scrapbooks compiled by former players. The library and archives are open to researchers and the general public.

The legendary career of Paul "Bear" Bryant is the centerpiece of the Bryant Museum.

Film footage dating as far back as the 1920's is repaired and transferred to video tape for public viewing at the sports research library. Video is made available to the media for use in broadcasts needing historical footage of Alabama sports.

People interested in Alabama sports history can benefit from joining the "Circle of Champions," a membership program which supports Museum activities. To receive a brochure about the Museum program or to inquire about group tours, after-hours tours or private receptions call the Museum at (205) 348-4668.

Some of the Museum's strongest supporters include Alabama football greats who recently have donated their time to do a series of autographed footballs to raise funds for future exhibits. For more information about getting one of the limited edition balls, contact the Museum at the number above.

The University of Alabama

Denny Chimes

HISTORY: Founded in 1831 in Tuscaloosa, The University of Alabama is the state's first university, opening just 12 years after Alabama gained statehood.

PROGRAMS: UA is a comprehensive, residential university, housing its academic programs in 17 colleges, divisions and schools, with more than 120 academic departments and more than 270 accredited undergraduate and graduate degree programs. UA is home to one of the top three business schools in the Southeast; one of the nation's oldest engineering colleges, founded in 1837; the country's sixth largest communications college; and the state's only public law school. UA's library contains more than 2 million volumes and is a member of the prestigious Association of Research Libraries.

PRESIDENT: Dr. Roger Sayers was named the University's 27th president in 1989. With more than 32 years of experience in faculty and administrative roles at UA, Sayers continues to build on the University's commitment to excellence.

FACULTY: UA's more than 850 faculty members yearly receive national awards for teaching excellence, research and service. With 23 endowed chairs and professorships in fields ranging from creative writing to aquatic biology to banking, UA attracts internationally known scholars to campus.

STUDENTS: UA's 19,400 students hail from every state and some 67 foreign countries. The University graduates some 4,000 students each year. UA ranked 12th among the nation's public universities in 1994-95 in enrollment of freshman National Merit Scholars, with 64. Mallory Hayes of Huntsville became UA's 14th Rhodes Scholar and the average freshman ACT score topped 23, well above the national average for college freshmen. UA's African-American student enrollment of more than 10 percent is one of the highest percentages among the nation's flagship state universities.

ALUMNI: With more than 100,000 living alumni worldwide, UA is alma mater to such statesmen as the late Congressman Claude Pepper, Sen. Howell Heflin, former French Ambassador Joe Rogers, Congressman Tom Bevill, the late Congressman Claude Harris and the late Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black. Other prominent alumni include former Texaco CEO John McKinley, Dr. Pepper CEO W.W. Clements and the late Tampa business magnate Hugh Culverhouse; broadcast journalists including the late Douglas Edwards and John Cochran; and author Gay Talese. Five UA alumni have won the Pulitzer Prize excelling in such diverse fields as journalism, literature and science. They include novelist Harper Lee, scientist E.O. Wilson, and journalists Ron Casey, Hazel Brannon Smith and Howell Raines.

LANDMARKS: The bronze bells of Denny Chimes, a brick spire built in 1929, ring out the hour across the scenic lawn of the Main Quadrangle, the hub of the 850-acre campus. The campus features four antebellum buildings, including the President's Mansion and an early astronomical observatory.

Woods Quad

Dr. E. Roger Sayers President

The University of Alabama's 27th president, Dr. E. Roger Sayers, leads the state's first university toward the year 2000 with unprecedented strides in improving the quality of students, academic programs and research, and contribution to the state's growth and development.

Sayers has more than 32 years of experience in UA faculty and administrative roles. A geneticist, Sayers earned his undergraduate degree at the University of Illinois and the master's and Ph.D. at Cornell. He and his wife MarLa have five children.

Sayers joined UA's biology faculty in 1963 and became director of the Arboretum in 1964. He served as assistant vice president from 1971-76 and acting dean of the School of Communication from 1974-76. He was named associate academic vice president in 1976, academic vice president in 1981, interim president in 1988 and president in 1989.

Sayers, 59, leads an institution which continues to build on a strong academic tradition. The University recently adopted new entrance standards which go into effect this fall requiring a specific core of high school courses to better prepare students for college level work. Even with tougher standards, the University has continued to see increasing enrollment, currently standing at 19,400.

The University of Alabama continues to attract top students from Alabama and throughout the nation. In 1994-95, the University ranked 12th among the nation's public universities in enrolling National Merit Scholars, with 64 merit finalists entering the freshman class. The University also saw its 14th Rhodes Scholar named in 1995. The University ranks first among southern universities in number of USA Today Academic All-Americans named in the past five years and is among the top 30 universities nationwide in producing Harry S. Truman Scholars. UA also has attracted eight Goldwater Scholars in the past 10 years under this scholarship program for the nation's top students in science and math.

The University is cited often for its growing academic reputation. The MBA program in the College of Commerce and Business Administration recently was ranked among the nation's top 20 values by Business Week magazine and was cited by the Princeton Review as one of the most sought-after MBAs in the country. UA's debate team has won 11 national forensics titles and has been ranked among the top 7 teams in the country for 10 consecutive years. Students in the UA School of Law consistently take top honors in the Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition.

UA undergraduates going on to advanced study continued a tradition of being welcomed into the best graduate programs, medical and law schools in the country. Likewise, the increasing quality of UA's graduate programs has helped fuel continued growth in the UA graduate school, where enrollment has reached record levels of about 3,700.

The quality of the faculty teaching and leading the University's growing research and service programs is equally outstanding. The University has 26 endowed chairs and professorships in fields ranging from creative writing to computer engineering, bringing internationally known artists and scholars to campus. UA's dollar total for contract and grant activity has more than tripled in the past decade. Many UA faculty and staff are heavily involved in service projects benefiting all Alabamians. UA has offered economic development assistance to Alabama communities resulting in creation of more than 6,000 jobs and an announced capital investment of almost $1 billion statewide.

Under Sayers' leadership, the University continues to play a key role in the economic development of the state through the education it provides students, as well as numerous campus-based programs to stimulate and support economic growth statewide. It was during his term that Mercedes-Benz decided to locate its first U.S.-based auto plant in the Tuscaloosa area, citing the proximity of The University of Alabama as a key determining factor.

"We want to guide Alabama into the next century with a well-educated workforce ready to meet the challenges of new technologies and a global economy," Sayers said.

Quality students and quality academic programs require strong public and private support. Under Sayers' tenure, The University of Alabama in 1992 launched the state's largest ever capital campaign — a five-year endeavor to raise some $165 million for academic priorities. With two years left in the campaign, more than $125 million already has been raised by more than 400 volunteers throughout the country.

"We must match resources with vision in order to expand beyond present boundaries," Sayers said. "Thanks to the commitment of our faculty and students, as well as important support from our alumni and friends, The University of Alabama has never been better than it is today."

Hootie Ingram

■ Director of Athletics

When the Alabama athletic department embarked on the 1990s, it did so under the leadership of Cecil "Hootie" Ingram, who became the University's Director of Athletics on September 13, 1989. He enters his seventh year directing the efforts of Alabama's nationally acclaimed 19-sport athletic department.

Ingram returned to his native home of Tuscaloosa after a successful career in coaching and administration at some of the nation's most distinguished athletic programs.

A football and baseball standout at Alabama, Ingram graduated in 1955 and served in the United States Army before embarking on his coaching career. After four years coaching on the high school level, Ingram began coaching on the collegiate level in 1960, spending 13 years with stops at Virginia Tech, Georgia, Arkansas and as a head coach at Clemson.

He began his administrative career in 1973 as an assistant commissioner at the Southeastern Conference office under then commissioner H. Boyd McWhorter.

While in the SEC office, Ingram supervised football and basketball officials, as well as handled rules interpretations and eligibility of athletes.

After serving as McWhorter's chief assistant for eight years, Ingram was chosen as Florida State's athletic director in January 1980. He served in that capacity for nine years before becoming Alabama's director of athletics in 1989.

Ingram has left his mark nationally as an elected member of the NCAA Council, the College Football Association (CFA) television committee and chairman of the major independents. He is a former chairman of the NCAA nominating committee.

During his career as a Crimson Tide football player (1951-54), Ingram earned All-SEC honors as a sophomore after leading the nation in interceptions with 10. He set an Alabama and Orange Bowl record in 1953 with an 80-yard punt return in the Tide's 61-6 win over Syracuse. He also starred as an infielder for the Alabama baseball team.

Ingram was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 1991 and was honored in 1992 as a second-team defensive back selection on the Tide's "Team of the Century."

Ingram and his wife, Toni, have three children, Robin, Cecil, Jr. and Lane. Robin and her husband, Lynn, who reside in Brewton, are the parents of three girls: Cile, Lindsey and Kara. Cecil, Jr. and his wife Marilyn reside in Birmingham and are the parents of a daughter, Allison. Lane is also a Birmingham resident.

Dean Tom Jones

■ Faculty Chairman of Athletics

Beginning his eighth year as the University's Faculty Chairman of Athletics, Tom Jones serves in that critical capacity as liaison between the University and both the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference.

He has been a member of the University faculty for the past 33 years and is currently the vice dean of the law school. In 1962, he was named assistant professor of law at the University, and in 1968, he was elevated to professor of law. He has served in a variety of capacities at Alabama, including acting dean of the law school (1970-73); visiting professor of the law, University of Illinois (1971-72); acting director of the Alabama Law Institute (1972-74) and legal consultant to the Board of Trustees for the University of Alabama Systems (1975-76).

Jones received his bachelor of science degree in commerce from the University of Kentucky in 1959. He earned his Juris Doctorate from Kentucky in 1961. From there, he was a law instructor at the University of Michigan from 1961-62 where he earned his master of law degree in 1965.

An avid sports fan, Jones has earned numerous honors throughout his educational career. As a student at Kentucky, he was named Phi Eta Theta, Beta Gamma Sigma, was associate editor of the Kentucky Law Journal and Order of the Coif (law honorary). He was chosen Omicron Delta Kappa at the University of Alabama and was also named to the Outstanding Educators in America from 1972-75, Who's Who in the South and Southwest and Who's Who in America. He is a member of the Kentucky, Alabama and American Bar Associations.

He is married to the former Shelley Edwards, an accomplished educator and former Tuscaloosa elementary school principal. She was recently recognized as National Distinguished Principal for 1993 from the state of Alabama.

Steve Townsend

■ Associate Director of Athletics for Internal Operations

Nationally recognized in collegiate athletic circles for his administrative abilities, Steve Townsend serves as the Tide Associate Director of Athletics for Internal Operations. He is charged with the day-to-day operation of the department and begins his eighth year at Alabama. He was promoted to his present position in April, 1993 after serving five years as Assistant Director of Athletics for Sports Information.

During his tenure at Alabama, Townsend has served on several department and university committees. He was co-chairman of Alabama's 1992 Football Centennial.

A 1974 graduate of LSU, Townsend served as Assistant Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference from 1983-88, before joining the Tide in the spring of 1988.

While at LSU, he was a member of both Omicron Delta Kappa Honorary Fraternity and Phi Kappa Phi Scholastic Fraternity.

A native of Minden, La., Townsend lists working crossword puzzles, reading and traveling as his favorite pastimes. Noted for his writing and editing skills, he has helped administer staff which won 21 national awards in sports publications. He is the author of Season of Champions, a book about Alabama's national championship season of 1992 and was co-author with John Forney of Talk of the Tide.

His all-time favorite sports figures include Paul Bryant and Mickey Mantle, and his favorite works of literature include To Kill a Mockingbird and East of Eden.

Taze Fulford

■ Executive Assistant Director of Athletics for Finance

The department's chief financial officer, Taze Fulford enters his 15th year with the athletic department. He has been handling the Tide's business affairs since becoming business manager in 1981. He has served as business manager, ticket manager, assistant director of athletics and most recently was promoted to his present position. He has long been recognized for his business expertise and extensive background in the financial aspect of collegiate athletics. One of the hardest-working and most dedicated members of the Athletic Department, Fulford directs the preparation and implementation of all athletic department budgets.

Known formerly as Charles Taze Fulford, he was an offensive guard at Alabama for two seasons (1965-66) and received his bachelor's degree in business in 1969. Following graduation, Fulford worked for Mercantile Stores, Inc., from 1970-73 before returning to the University where he worked in the purchasing department. In 1975 he left to become manager of the Alabama Supply Store and four years later left to join Champion Sporting Goods where he worked for two years. In 1981, he was hired by then Director of Athletics Paul Bryant, as ticket and business manager.

Taze and his wife, the former Donna Bailey, have two children, Charles Taze, III and Amanda.

Don Gambriel

■ Associate Director of Athletics for Spring Sports

Entering his sixth season in athletic administration, Don Gambriel's responsibilities include directing all the men's sports except football and basketball. He also oversees the women's swimming and track and field programs.

The Tide's former head swimming coach, Gambriel was the 1984 U.S. Olympic coach and he compiled a record of 253-32 in dual meet competition during his coaching career at Long Beach State, Harvard and Alabama. He came to Alabama in 1973. In 1980, he became the first head coach of the Alabama women's team and led that team to a 102-28 record in dual competition.

Gambriel earned his bachelor's degree from California State University in Los Angeles in 1958. He is married to the former Teddy Janaes and they have three children.

Mal Moore

■ Associate Director of Athletics for External Affairs

Mal made the switch from coaching to administration on January 15, 1994. He coordinates and supervises the athletic department's external operations.

Prior to his move to administration, Mal served 31 years in the coaching profession, including 22 years at Alabama. He rejoined the Alabama staff in 1990 where he served as Gene Stallings' assistant head coach and quarterback coach.

During his playing and coaching tenure at Alabama, the Tide went to 29 bowl games, won 13 SEC titles and six national championships.

A 1962 graduate of Alabama with a degree in sociology, he also earned his master's degree in secondary education from Alabama. He spent one season, 1963, at Montana State before returning to Alabama as a graduate assistant in 1964. From 1965-70, he coached the Alabama secondary and from 1971-74 was the Tide quarterback coach before taking on the additional responsibilities of offensive coordinator from 1975-82. From 1983-85 he was assistant head coach at Notre Dame and then moved to the Phoenix Cardinals from 1986-89.

He is married to the former Charlotte Davis of Tuscaloosa and they have one daughter, Heather Lee, who was recently married.

Alabama Academics

Athletic success is easily measured by wins, broken records, and all-star recognition. All too often athletic recognition captures the spotlight, when actually the winners in the classroom are the true champions.

Alabama's success in academic areas is due largely in part to the work of the Center for Athletic Student Services (CASS). The dedicated professionals who staff CASS work year round to ensure that each student-athlete at Alabama receives a quality education and is ready for the work force upon graduation. The CASS staff is under the direction of Kevin Almond, the Director of Academic Programs for Intercollegiate Athletics. Assistant Academic Advisor Jon Dever serves as the contact for football and two newcomers, Cathy Elliott and Don Dawson, will watch over the academic progress of all other sports. Assistant Academic Advisor Brenda Elliott coordinates the CASS tutorial program. In addition, a staff of graduate assistants provide additional help with the academic needs of each student-athlete.

The CASS facilities are second to none, offering all student-athletes tutorial programs, areas in which to study, as well as computer access. Located in the Bryant Hall annex, CASS houses 33 individual study carrels, 15 tutoring rooms, a lecture room and three computer labs equipped with a variety of computer software. The facility also houses a Mac Lab, which offers state-of-the-art Macintosh computer equipment and laser printers accessible to all student-athletes.

The CASS staff provides services to all student-athletes including nightly study halls, tutorial programs on an individual or group basis and a student advisory board for team representatives to discuss ideas and developments that affect all student-athletes at Alabama.

TIDE PRIDE Vital to Bama Success

Alabama's TIDE PRIDE donor program continues to be a vital link in the success of the University's athletic teams. Simply put, TIDE PRIDE enables the athletic department to field nationally competitive teams in 18 sports.

Through the gifts of TIDE PRIDE members, the athletic department continues its pursuit to fulfill the five principal goals of the program:

1. Provide athletic scholarships for all student-athletes;
2. Fund capital improvements for athletic facilities;
3. Retire present bonded indebtedness;
4. Support the University's "Million Dollar Band";
5. Endow all athletic scholarships.

"Due to the support for our donor program, TIDE PRIDE continues to be a major factor in providing athletic scholarships for our student-athletes," said Tommy Ford, Director of Athletic Development/TIDE PRIDE. "Our participants' love for the University is shown through their contributions, without which it would be hard for us to provide quality athletic programs year-in and year-out."

Ford enters his third year directing TIDE PRIDE after serving as the athletic department ticket manager from 1987-93. He is assisted by six staff members: Wayne Atcheson, Jewell Gaston, Dude Hennessey, Barbara Smith, Mary Turner and Brenda Vaughn.

Although TIDE PRIDE was officially inaugurated for the 1988 football season, its conception came in 1986 when then athletic director and head football coach Ray Perkins concluded a donor program was necessary to offset ever-rising costs and the need for facility improvement. At that time, Alabama was one of the few major schools remaining which had not implemented a program for alumni, fans and friends of the department to contribute for priority seating.

Former executive athletic director Jim Goostree and Executive Assistant Director of Athletics for Business Taze Fulford joined with Jay Sterling, University marketing professor, to set in motion the actual game plan to implement TIDE PRIDE.

The program had immediate success, raising approximately $6 million in 1988 and 1989, topping the $7 million mark in each of the four subsequent years (1990-93), and exceeding the $8 million mark in 1994.

ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIPS—For the 1994-95 academic year, the National Alumni Association awarded $1.3 million in scholarship assistance to approximately 700 students at the undergraduate and graduate level—$1,039,264 in undergraduate awards and $260,810 in graduate awards.

CHAPTER DEVELOPMENT—Across the nation, 100 alumni chapters and clubs support the Alumni Association and the University by hosting events, recruiting students and raising money for local scholarships. Chapter activities range from pregame pep rallies to dinner receptions for UA officials. To recruit students to the University, chapters host Junior Honors programs to recognize outstanding academic achievement, communicate with potential students and scholarship recipients and attend local college nights as University representatives. In 1994, 49 chapters donated a record $283,216 to chapter scholarship endowments, which the NAA matched at 60% from the proceeds of collegiate car tag sales. Through direct and endowed scholarships, 42 chapters awarded $107,235 to 108 students in 1994.

ALUMNI FUND—Currently the Association has more than 33,300 active members, and we expect to end the 1994-95 year on June 30th nearly $2 million in unrestricted income. We are pleased with the successful growth of income received by the Crimson Pride MasterCard and University of Alabama VISA. The Alumni Fund is committed to meeting the financial needs of the Association and to expanding our support for The University of Alabama.

ALUMNI EVENTS—After hosting a successful 1994 Homecoming, Alumni Events sponsored Alabama Leadership Day, which honored over 900 high school students, parents, and counselors statewide for their leadership and scholastic accomplishments. As part of Alumni Weekend 1995, the reunion groups of the Class of 1945 and the Golden Fifties Club celebrate their years since graduation. Also during the year, outstanding recipients were chosen for the Paul W. Bryant Alumni-Athlete Awards, Distinguished Alumni Awards, Alumni Student Awards, Alumni Outstanding Senior Awards and outstanding Commitment to Teaching Awards. The Student Alumni Association was also very active this year. The SAA sponsored a Children's Tent at all home football games and continued the Capstone Casino fund-raiser to support the SAA scholarship.

ALUMNI—Computer planning efforts in recent months will soon yield exciting new opportunities to better communicate with our 170,438 alumni and friends. With fiber-optic cables installed and final testing just weeks away, the Alumni/Development database will soon become fully (Novell) networked. Internet and related applications will open new dialogue opportunities with university alumni and friends, chapter officers and the entire university community. Additional doors were opened this year to enhance record efficiency, as progress was made toward restructuring the alumni record database system to better serve alumni and university constituents. Important steps were also taken to begin computer coding alumni addresses to gain improved USPS delivery for outgoing correspondence mailed, campus wide.

The Alabama Sports Network

Crimson Tide football fans all over the South will be able to catch every exciting play in 1995 on The Alabama Sports Network (TASN). From the Tennessee River to the Gulf of Mexico...more than 70 stations will broadcast the complete Bama schedule.

TASN, a division of Birmingham based Collegiate Sports Partners Limited, provides listeners full game-day coverage with a veteran broadcast crew. The "Voice of the Tide," Eli Gold, will begin his seventh season as play-by-play announcer. Back for his 27th year of color commentary is Doug Layton of Birmingham's flagship station WJOX-AM. Former Bama lineman Jerry Duncan will be on the sidelines for his 23rd year.

Producer Missy Betres' veteran production staff includes Tom Stipe, who begins his 11th year as program engineer; former state senator and producer-emeritus Bert Bank returns for his 42nd year with the network. Kirk Wood enters his sixth season as Executive Producer.

GAME DAY COVERAGE

The Alabama Sports Network starts its game-day coverage with TideTalk Today two-and-a-half hours before kickoff. Bama fans can join the show by phone by calling 1-800-676-TIDE and talk with hosts John Forney and Tom Roberts. Forney has been on the Bama broadcasts in five different decades, serving as the play-by-play voice of the Tide for years. Starting his 18th year on the network, Roberts is also the broadcast statistician, tracking the individual and team numbers for Bama and its opponent.

Forty-five minutes before the kickoff of every game, Gold brings Bama fans up to date on the other games around the Southeastern Conference. Gold talks with coaches and players about the big games in the SEC.

Just half an hour before kickoff, Coach Gene Stallings joins Gold for a scouting report on the day's game. He'll let Bama fans know the very latest on the Tide's preparations, any injuries and the day's opponent.

Following every Bama game, Layton heads to the Tide locker room for a postgame chat with Coach Stallings. The game-day coverage ends with a full statistical wrap-up and scores from other games.

Throughout every game, Bama fans get the latest scores from Dean Tanner in The Alabama Sports Network broadcast center. That's where producer John Gentile puts the broadcast together and then beams the entire program via satellite to network stations all over Alabama and the Southeast.

This Week's Quotes

Aug. 28

"We lack game experience, you can see that. But I think we've made a lot of progress. The younger guys are picking up the offense and, overall, we're doing well. It isn't that we don't have a lot of room for improvement, we do, but we've still come pretty far."

Offensive tackle Joey Harville about the fortunes of the 1994 offensive front

"He doesn't just coach us, he teaches us. He's a real good teacher. He makes us think a lot through practice. It's been really good for all of us."

Tide quarterback Jay Barker on offensive coordinator Homer Smith

Aug. 29

"I'm a competitive guy. It's disappointing for me not to be the starter. It's tough for me to sit on the bench. I want to play, and I feel I have the ability to play. But I feel like I'm going to try to become a better quarterback today (at practice) than I was before."

Brian Burgdorf upon learning he would not start against UT-Chattanooga

Aug. 30

Seniors Jay Barker, Tommy Johnson, Tarrant Lynch and Sam Shade are named permanent team captains. "It was a big surprise," said Lynch. "I knew Jay would probably get one of the captain spots, but I thought the other might go to Sherman Williams or Jon Stevenson."

Aug. 31

"I'm excited about it because it has been a while since I've played. I'm tired to hitting people in practice. I don't know what to expect, but it is going to be fun playing in a game."

Will Friend upon learning he will be the starting right guard against UT-Chattanooga

"I was disappointed in them today. Except for Sherman (Williams), we don't have one out there who runs hard every time. I'm talking about the halfbacks, not the fullbacks."

Gene Stallings talking about the Tuesday practice.

Sept. 1

Former Tide quarterback and current Boston Red Sox manager Butch Hobson took advantage of the baseball strike and visited the Alabama practice. "I decided that I was tired of the telephone ringing at home, and I woke up one day last week and said, 'Tomorrow, I'm going to Alabama,' and that's what I did."

Sept. 2

"I know it could change at any moment. I don't think it's sunk in yet. I'll probably start feeling more nervous, but I feel like it's a vote of confidence to have the coaches believing that you can handle it."

Redshirt freshman linebacker Paul Pickett upon learning he would start against UT-Chattanooga

Sept. 3

"That's a label you give. Every game is important to us, regardless of who we open with. Chattanooga is the only team we've discussed this week. We've done everything we can to get ready for this particular team. I worry about every game. If I had a worry scale, it would be the same every week."

Gene Stallings talking about Tennessee-Chattanooga

Sept. 4

"Enough's enough. I really didn't want to score any more."

Gene Stallings following the 42-13 win over UTC

"We didn't play Alabama defense. We didn't play up to our potential."

Senior defensive back Willie Gaston

"We're a long way off. That team (1992 national championship) accomplished a lot. We're not living up to expectations. Talk is cheap and we didn't live up to the talk this week."

Defensive tackle Shannon Brown

The 1994 season opened with new enthusiasm as great things were expected from this Alabama squad. Comparison of the 1992 and 1994 defense and the return of offensive coordinator Homer Smith, were the topics of choice for the Alabama crowd. However, it didn't take long for the crowd to notice the play of the Crimson Tide.

For the seventh consecutive season, Alabama scored on its opening possession. The Crimson Tide went 71 yards in seven plays for an early lead against UT-Chattanooga. Sherman Williams ran the ball 32 yards for the first touchdown of the season. It marked the second straight year Williams had scored the first touchdown of the season for the Tide.

Unable to move the ball against the Alabama defense, UTC was forced to punt and Toderick Malone returned the ball 16-yards. An illegal block moved the ball back 10 yards and once again, it was Alabama ball.

With 10:25 left in the first quarter, Alabama quarterback Jay Barker completed a pass to Williams for 21 yards and a first down. Barker then completed a short pass to Tarrant Lynch who ran for 19 yards and another first down. Brian Steger then had two carries for Bama's second touchdown and Michael Proctor hit his second PAT of the game to put Bama up, 14-0.

Once again the Mocs were unable to move the ball and were forced to kick. On Alabama's third possession, the team displayed more of the running game, with Steger scoring another touchdown. The Mocs were unable to score and at the end of the first quarter it was Alabama 21-0.

It didn't stay that way for long. The Moccasins continued their drive in the second quarter and Chattanooga quarterback Kenyon Earl ran the ball into the endzone. Brian Simpson's point-after was good and suddenly, it was 21-7. Chattanooga managed to score the next points when Earl went 10 yards for the Mocs second TD. After Simpson's kick went wide it was 21-13.

The first half fun wasn't finished for Bama fans, however, and with 4:09 left in the half Alabama had the ball on their own 20. The Tide scored after an 11-play, 80-yard possession. At the end of the first half the score was 28-13, Bama.

The second half was all Alabama with the Crimson Tide scoring three more times to make the final score Alabama 42-13.

Coach Stallings and the team were pleased with the win but thought some improvement could be made. "We didn't have a good game defensively," Coach Stallings said after the win. "We missed some tackles on the goal line." Defensive tackle Shannon Brown said it best, "I thought the defense was just average. We're no where near where we need to be."

Everybody was talking about us and the '92 defense, well talk is cheap. Hopefully we can come together and build on our mistakes."

STAT OF THE GAME

A 32-yard run by Sherman Williams marked the second straight year he has scored the first touchdown for Alabama. Williams had a career high 153-yards in 13 rushes for 2 touchdowns, surpassing his previous high of 148-yards set last season against Arkansas.

GAME NOTES

- Alabama is now 4-1 in season openers under Gene Stallings, with a four-game winning streak. The Tide's last loss on opening day came during the 1990 season, Stallings' first, against Southern Miss. Overall, Alabama is 78-19-3 in season openers.
- The last meeting between these two teams took place in 1991. Today's win, Alabama is now 10-0-0 all-time against UT-Chattanooga.
- The Crimson Tide scored on its opening possession of the season for the seventh straight year. Sherman Williams raced 32-yards in the first drive. Alabama has scored on its opening possession each year since 1988.
- In its season opener, the Crimson Tide has been the first team to score since the 1985 season.
- A total of 77 Alabama players played against the Mocs, 21 of which were first-time players.
- Eight true freshmen saw action today against UT-Chattanooga. Those "true freshmen" were Deshea Townsend (CB), John David Phillips (FS), Dennis Riddle (RB), Ed Scisum (RB), Steve Harris (LB), Rod Rutledge (TE), Dwayne Rudd (LB), and Eric Kerley (DL).
- At one point in the fourth quarter, Alabama's defense had four true freshmen (John David Phillips, Dwayne Rudd, Deshea Townsend and Eric Kerley) and one JuCo transfer (Matt Parker). The Mocs were three plays and out with those five newcomers in the game.
- Jay Barker is 24-1-1 as the Tide's starting QB.
- Freshman running back Dennis Riddle scored a TD on his first collegiate carry, a two-yard, third quarter run which put the Tide ahead of the Mocs 41-13.

Shannon Brown (75), Matt Parker (98) and Dwayne Rudd (87) helped the defense hold UTC to just 179 yards total offense.

This Week's Quotes

Sept. 5

"You have to understand that the high expectations come from the media, not from me. They [the defense] still have to prove themselves on the field and they're working at it."

Coach Gene Stallings speaking about the Tide defense

"I felt relief. I felt relief when we got the center-quarterback exchange right the first play. I felt relief when we got that first down."

Offensive coordinator Homer Smith

Sept. 6

"Part of being a good football team is that you can hold a little something back. You don't want to have to pull out everything in your first game."

Split end Chad Key

"I couldn't believe how they were moving the ball. We'd stop them, then they'd bust a long run up the middle on third down. It brought us down to reality."

Defensive end Dameian Jeffries on Vanderbilt's option attack

Sept. 7

"Alabama fans will never forget David Palmer, but I hope I'll play well enough so they will remember me, too."

Alabama's freshman "Deuce" Deshea Townsend

"I knew I was third team going into the game, but I really didn't know I was going to play until I saw my name in the program. There was Sherman Williams, Brian Steger and then Curtis Alexander. Then I really got excited."

Freshman running back Curtis Alexander

Sept. 8

"We don't care if you like us. If you fear us, that's a plus. That's the level we are trying to attain."

Offensive lineman Jon Stevenson

Sept. 9

"Last week gave us something to think about. It kind of opened our eyes. Vanderbilt obviously is going to be a better team. Vanderbilt will have bigger, stronger and faster guys. They run the option well. I think the defensive guys were a little upset about last week and we will play a little more fired up. We didn't enjoy people scoring on us."

Linebacker John Walters

Sept. 10

"Once we got in the huddle, I had to calm myself down. After that, I was OK. If it had been a bigger game, somebody might have had to calm me down."

Offensive guard Will Friend on his first collegiate start

"The last three years that we've played Vanderbilt, it could have gone either way."

Sept. 11

"It was a pretty good fourth quarter. When we really and to have it, we had a couple of interceptions, we forced a fumble and we came up with the big play on the blocked field goal."

Coach Gene Stallings in the post-game interview

"I was rushing the passer, but when he threw the ball, I turned around to pursue. I got the deflection. Then I was hoping I could turn it upfield and pick up a few blocks. I'm no running back, but it did carry me back to my tight end days."

Dameian Jeffries on his interception against Vanderbilt

"Everybody was looking for somebody to start making plays. I took it upon myself to do something. We all had to do something. When the guy kicked it, it hit me right in the face. Something busted my lip."

Defensive tackle Shannon Brown on his blocked field goal

The first conference game of the season took place at Bryant-Denny Stadium, against the Vanderbilt Commodores. For the second year in a row, the Crimson Tide fought a close battle with Vandy, but turnovers were the Commodores' downfall. The Alabama defense intercepted the ball three times and recovered a fumble that led to a Tide touchdown. Alabama was able to pull out a 17-7 win to bring the overall series to 50-19-8.

On Vanderbilt's second possession, quarterback Ronnie Gordon's pass bounced off Gabe Banks and into the hands of Alabama defensive end Dameian Jeffries who returned it for 24-yards. After a 44-yard punt put Bama on the Vanderbilt 24, the offense moved the ball consistently down the field. Then on the Vandy eight, Jay Barker passed the ball to Curtis Brown on third and five and it was touchdown Bama. Michael Proctor's point-after put the Tide ahead 7-0 at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter was Vanderbilt's turn to score. Gordon ran for 23-yards and completed a pass to Kenny Simon for 21-yards. With the ball on the Alabama 25, Cliff Deese took the ball down the right side for a touchdown. No one else managed to score in the second and at the half, it was tied 7-7.

Although Sherman Williams rushed for 77 yards for Alabama and Vanderbilt's Cliff Deese ran for 72, no one scored during the third quarter. The big play in the third quarter was a blocked field goal by Alabama's Shannon Brown. Vanderbilt kicker Steve Yenner attempted a 37-yard field goal which Brown blocked and Cedric Samuel recovered. This came after the Tide attempted a field goal of its own. Proctor's attempt went wide and at the end of the third, the score was still 7-7.

The fourth quarter was all Bama. Proctor got another chance at the three points and made it count when Alabama needed it. After an 11 play, 50-yard possession, Alabama went ahead, 10-7.

After Samuel forced and Ralph Staten recovered a Vanderbilt fumble, it was Alabama ball on the Vandy 17. Williams had 15 yards in three rushes to put the Tide on the two-yard line. Barker then handed the ball off to Curtis Alexander for the touchdown.

The Bama defense dominated the Commodore offense for the remainder of the game. Tommy Johnson intercepted a Gordon pass but the Tide offense found it hard to convert. With Vanderbilt's next possession, Gordon was sacked by Darrell Blackburn and time expired on the Commodores.

With the win over Vanderbilt, Barker became the third winningest quarterback in Alabama history. His 25-1-1 record moved him ahead of Jeff Rutledge. Barker also moved ahead of Walter Lewis on the all-time attempts list and Gary Hollingsworth on the all-time yardage list.

STAT OF THE WEEK

Shannon Brown had a career high eight stops, almost tripling his previous high of three. Brown had seven solo stops which included one tackle behind the line and one sack. He also had his first blocked field goal. The blocked kick came late in the third quarter and prevented the Commodores from taking a 10-7 lead over Alabama.

GAME NOTES

- Alabama now has a 10-game winning streak over Vanderbilt. The Tide leads the overall series 50-19-8, including a 13-1 mark at Bryant-Denny Stadium.
- Jay Barker moved into third place on the all-time win list for Alabama QBs. He is now 25-1-1 as the starting quarterback. Barker also moved ahead of Walter Lewis on the all-time attempts list and surpassed Gary Hollingsworth on the all-time yardage list.
- UA place kicker Michael Proctor has made 75 consecutive extra points, dating back to the second game of his career. He last missed against Vanderbilt in 1992.
- Shannon Brown's blocked field goal was the second straight game at Bryant-Denny Stadium that the Tide has done so. Last season against Mississippi State, linebacker Darrell Blackburn blocked a kick and Lemanski Hall raced it 60-yards for a touchdown.
- Damejan Jeffries, Willie Gaston, and Tommy Johnson recorded a trio of interceptions for the Crimson Tide, the most since the 36-25 win over Mississippi State in 1993.
- Sherman Williams rushed 26 times for 125-yards, bringing his average to 7.1 yards per carry through two games. This marks the second straight week Williams has rushed for over 100-yards.
- Ralph Staten had a career-high 13 stops against the Commodores, breaking his previous high of eight set against UTC. In two games, Staten has 21 stops.
- Jay Barker was sacked seven times, the most sacks allowed by Alabama since Oct. 16, 1993 when Tennessee recorded six against the Tide quarterback.

Tommy Johnson (10) registers one of his five tackles against Vanderbilt.

This Week's Quotes

Sept. 12

"Homer (Smith) works as hard as any coach I've been around. I don't think you have to go to Texas A&M or Alabama to be a good football coach."
Gene Stallings talking about offensive coordinator Homer Smith

Sept. 13

"A year ago, Ralph (Staten) was just primarily a special teams player. Right now, at the end of two games, he's probably been more active and more involved than any player we have as far as making tackles and assists and causing things to happen."
Gene Stallings on linebacker Ralph Staten

"There is no question in my mind that Arkansas right now is a better team than last year or the year before."
Gene Stallings talking about the Arkansas Razorbacks

Sept. 14

"Coach Stallings felt that for us to be a good offensive line, we needed to be lean and quick. I came back this fall at 270."
Offensive tackle Kareem McNeal

"That defense in '92, no one ever waited for someone to make a big play. This group this year, we've got some good young players, but it seems like they sit back and wait for someone to make the play. No one wants to take control."
Senior linebacker Michael Rogers

Sept. 15

"We enjoy playing in front of our home crowd and in front of our fans, but it's exciting to go somewhere where everyone's against you."
Quarterback Jay Barker talking about traveling to Fayetteville

Sept. 16

"They are better, deeper and have more players than we do. We'll have to play a near-perfect game to beat them."

"Sherman was not the primary receiver on that play, but once I scrambled out and made eye contact, he came back to the ball."
Jay Barker on his 73-yard TD pass to Sherman Williams

"How big was that play? It was visionary. It was an improvisation on his part."
Offensive coordinator Homer Smith on the TD pass

"Our performance wasn't bad, but we've got to pick it up or someone is gonna come into our own territory and put us to shame."
Tide defensive tackle Shannon Brown following the Arkansas game

"It was a big, big play by Tommy Johnson. He just ran him down. There is a big difference between three points and seven points."

The first road game of the season would see the Tide setting their sights on Razorback Stadium and a battle with Southeastern conference foe, Arkansas. It was a hard fought battle with very little scoring in the first half, but once again Alabama pulled it out in the second half. Sherman Williams put on another running display that would prove to be the Hogs demise.

Although Alabama had 113 total offensive yards in the first quarter, the Tide found it difficult to convert. Sherman Williams rushed for 77 yards but the Tide offensive line could not hold the Razorback defense and at the end of the first quarter there was no score.

At the beginning of the second quarter, Alabama still had the ball but was forced to punt. After a short possession by Arkansas, Alabama got the ball back on their own 25 but was once again shut down by the Razorback defense.

Arkansas was able to get on the scoreboard with 3:16 left to play in the half when Lance Ellisons' 34-yard field goal attempt split the uprights. Alabama was unable to score and at the end of the first half the Razorbacks were up, 3-0.

The beginning of the third quarter did not go any better for the Crimson Tide and it wasn't until their second possession that Bama was able to put points on the board. Williams rushed for 17 yards to put Alabama within field goal range. Michael Proctor was able to convert on a 29-yard attempt which tied the score 3-3.

It didn't take the Hogs long to put more points under the home team heading on the scoreboard. On their very next possession, Ellison, once again, was able to put Arkansas ahead with a 31-yard field goal.

On the next Bama possession, Bryne Diehl was forced to punt after only three plays. With the ball on their own 28, the Hogs began their third possession of the quarter but was unable to convert on third and six.

It was once again Tide ball. After an incomplete pass and a rush by Williams for no gain, the ball was still on the Alabama 27. Tide quarterback Jay Barker then threw a 73-yard touchdown pass to Williams to put the Crimson Tide ahead for the first time in the game. After the Proctor PAT it was 10-3.

In the fourth quarter it was more of the same with Alabama and Arkansas being forced to punt after three downs. Finally, with 10:43 left in the game, Alabama was able to get within field goal range and Proctor's 34-yard attempt was good. That put the score at 13-6.

Although there would be no more scoring in the game, Bama would come up with some big plays in the remainder of the fourth quarter. Willie Gaston intercepted a Barry Lunney pass which helped preserve the Crimson Tide win.

STAT OF THE GAME

Sherman Williams recorded 234 of Alabama's 276-yards in the win against Arkansas. He had a career-high 33 rushing attempts and his first career TD reception, a 73-yard pass from Jay Barker, late in the 3rd quarter to give Alabama the lead.

Willie Gaston had two interceptions, one of which stopped an Arkansas drive in UA territory late in the game, preserving the Crimson Tide win. Gaston is the SEC leader in interceptions with three.

GAME NOTES

- Alabama is 5-0 against Arkansas, 3-0 in regular season games.
- Jay Barker's 73-yard pass to Sherman Williams was the first 70-yard pass Arkansas has allowed since the 1989 game against Ole Miss.
- Alabama has intercepted six passes so far this season and has given up an average of only 91-yards per game through the air. The Tide has also held its opposition without a touchdown pass.
- Willie Gaston recorded five tackles, including four solo stops against the Razorbacks.
- The Crimson Tide is 31-1-1 with offensive lineman Jon Stevenson in the lineup.

Tarrant Lynch (45) runs behind the block of Jon Stevenson (69) against Arkansas.

This Week's Quotes

Sept. 19

"I don't think Jay feels real comfortable in the pocket right now. He's been sacked a number of times and that's probably the reason."
Gene Stallings on an area that needs fine-tuning

"Simplification is indicated. I started thinking that on Wednesday. I imposed a little too much. And eventually, we will do more, but we don't have to have it all ready in any given week."

Offensive coordinator Homer Smith

Sept. 20

"I'd rather be winning ugly than losing ugly. I just want to win 'em. I'm sure Auburn is a lot happier today than LSU [after an improbable 30-26 victory]."
Tide head coach Gene Stallings

"I can assure you, we have the receivers who can catch the football."
Split end Curtis Brown

"Sherman [Williams] was it for us. Right now, he's the thing going for us. We're isolating him more this year and he's getting a lot of yards on his own."
Offensive line coach Jim Fuller after Williams was named SEC "Offensive Player of the Week"

Sept. 21

"You can say whatever you want about Jay, the bottom line is, he wins."
Head coach Gene Stallings on Jay Barker

"He's just stepped up and taken over the go-to role. But if he wasn't there, somebody else would step up."
Jay Barker on runningback Sherman Williams

Sept. 22

"I'm a Shannon Brown man because of the amount of effort he puts into the game. He makes things happen every game. He makes things happen in practice. If everybody on our football team practiced and approached it like Shannon did, we would be performing at a higher level."
Gene Stallings on Shannon Brown

"I think on defense, we're good and we know we're good. We've just got to get better and get some of the mistakes ironed out. When we do that, we'll be successful against anyone we play."
Defensive end Damecian Jeffries on the Tide defense

Sept. 24

"I can't relax now. I've got a lot of areas I can improve on to get a lot better. Right now, I'm still trying to get better. I never let up. That's the kind of attitude I have to have to enjoy success."
Linebacker Andre Royal on his come-back

Sept. 25

"We were upset at halftime. We realized that we didn't perform well. It was sort of like the UT-Chattanooga game. We gave up some points, but we didn't want them to score any more."

Tide linebacker John Walters after giving up 10 points in the first half to Tulane

"After the game, you look up at the scoreboard and see it's 20-10 and you say 'dudgum, when are you going to get an offense?'"
Split end Chad Key following the Tulane game

"I'm very pleased, obviously, with the win. But, what bothers me about the game are the times, like right before the half, when we're in a situation to come away with points or be kicking for points, and we don't. Things like that can cost you a ballgame."
Gene Stallings following the 20-10 win over Tulane

"We're improving every week. Today we had some things go right, we also had some things that hurt us."
Special teams coach Danny Pearman

"I thought I could score with it. There was no way I was just going to fall on it. They were going to have to tackle me to get me down."
Damecian Jeffries on his 24-yard fumble return

"We're playing in the face of blitzes and we're not doing what we need to do. We have not handled the pressure. It's come three weeks in a row now and never bigger than today."
Offensive coordinator Homer Smith

"A lot of people say 'Aw, it's just Tulane, it's not a conference game, it's no big deal.' But just lose it and see how big it is."
Head coach Gene Stallings

The 72nd meeting between the Crimson Tide and the Green Wave took place at Legion Field in Birmingham. It was a low scoring game with Alabama going ahead in the third and finishing off Tulane in the fourth. Both teams showed their muscle, as defense was the name of the game.

After a three and out possession by Tulane, Alabama got the ball on the Tulane 42 and gave it to Sherman Williams. Along with Williams' five carries, Jay Barker hit Chad Key on a seven-yard pass to put Bama on the Tulane four-yard line. Michael Proctor was called on to attempt a 22-yard field goal, which put the Tide up 3-0. Tulane was able to tie the score on their very next drive when Bart Baldwin hit a 49-yard field goal.

Alabama was forced to punt after Barker was sacked on second and seven to make it third and twelve. Williams was unable to run for the first down and it was Tulane ball.

The Green Wave methodically moved the ball down the field to put them on the Bama one at the end of the first quarter. Joey Perry was able to run the ball into the endzone as play continued in the second. Tulane went ahead, 10-3.

Alabama had fourth-and-one on its second possession of the quarter but was unable to gain the first down. With Tulane in possession of the ball, Damecian Jeffries picked up a fumble, caused by Kelvin Moore, and raced into the endzone to tie the score 10-10. Neither team would score the rest of the half, although Alabama got a first down after punter Bryne Diehl converted a fake punt for a nine-yard gain. It was the fourth time in his career that Diehl was able to convert on a fake punt. It wasn't until the second possession of the third quarter that Alabama was able to score. Brian Steger was the workhorse of this possession, carrying the ball seven times for 36 yards. With 2:29 left, Alabama led, 17-10.

The last scoring possession of the game would start at 10:01 of the fourth quarter. Alabama had the ball on its own 28. Williams took the ball up center for seven yards and then did it again for four yards and a first down. Williams netted a gain of 22 and another first down. Barker was sacked for a loss of 10 to put Bama on its own 49 at second and 20. Lynch took a draw for 15-yards and Williams went seven for the Alabama first down. After a loss of two and a gain of seven to put the Tide on the Tulane 31, Steger ran the ball right for six yards and the first down. Williams then carried the ball three times for a gain of four yards to put Alabama within field goal range. Proctor hit his third attempt of the game to keep Alabama ahead, 20-10.

Junior strong safety, Eric Turner, intercepted Tracey Watts' pass in the end zone to stop the final Tulane threat.

The Crimson Tide offense put 270 rushing yards on the board, with Williams alone getting 191. This game marked the second consecutive season that Williams had four 100-yard rushing games in a row. He did it last year against Tulane, Vanderbilt, Arkansas, and Louisiana Tech.

STAT OF THE GAME

Sherman Williams topped his career best with 31 rushes for 191-yards. His previous high, of 153-yards, was set in the season opener against UT-Chattanooga. This marks Williams' fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing game.

Dameian Jeffries had a career high three QB pressures and scored the first touchdown of the game when he returned a fumble for 24-yards. Jeffries is the first UA player to actually advance a fumble for a score.

GAME NOTES

- Alabama has won nine straight games against Tulane, out-scoring the Green Wave 297-39.
- Sherman Williams is third on the all-time list of 100-yard games at Alabama. Other UA backs with nine 100-yard games are Siran Stacy (1989-91), Johnny Musso (1969-71) and Bobby Marlow (1950-52).
- Jay Barker threw for 119-yards helping him surpass Mike Shula in total career passing yards with 4,216. Barker is now third on the list.
- Alabama has not allowed a touchdown pass this season, a span of 16 quarters and hasn't allowed a point in the fourth quarter.
- Bryne Diehl converted a fake punt for a third-quarter first down, marking the fourth time he has successfully converted a fake punt in his career.
- Curtis Brown had a career-high five receptions. His previous high was three versus three different teams. His last was in 1992 against Ole Miss.
- The Alabama defense put on a tackling display against the Green Wave. John Walters recorded a career-high eight stops, Dwayne Rudd had a career-high five, and Matt Parker had a career-high four.

Darrell Blackburn puts the stop on a Tulane ball carrier.

This Week's Quotes

Sept. 26

"To me, it's a big game every week, so I would hope that we wouldn't approach this game any different than any other."
Gene Stallings on the Georgia game

"I like the way Rudd (Dwayne) played. He made several good hits. His pass drops need work, but overall, I think he's going to be an excellent player."
Gene Stallings on freshman Dwayne Rudd

"In college, it's the worst injury I've had. I hurt an ankle in high school, but I wasn't punting."
Punter Bryne Diehl on an ankle injury sustained in the Tulane game

Sept. 27

"I love to play passing teams, knowing that 40 to 50 percent of the time you have a chance to intercept the ball. Defensive linemen and linebackers dream of running teams, but the secondary dreams of games like this."
Defensive back Willie Gaston

"Playing as a true freshman, getting a chance to start, it sort of surprised me. Not everybody gets that chance."
Freshman Dwayne Rudd upon learning he would start against Georgia

Sept. 28

"We're still in the early stages as an offensive team and everyone says we're young and inexperienced."
Offensive guard Maurice Belser

"It takes us a little while to feel comfortable with what the other team's doing offensively."
Defensive tackle Shannon Brown on the defense's second-half performances

"Average doesn't win a lot."
Defensive coordinator Bill Oliver

Sept. 30

"Georgia, by far, will be the best team we've seen all season."
Tide coach Gene Stallings

Oct. 1

"It speaks for itself. You walk around this place and you can see what it means to the people of Alabama and the fans. It means a lot to me to try to help carry on the tradition and play the best I can."

Oct. 2

"I thought it was the kind of game we needed to win. I don't know how Jay was statistically, but he made some key plays. It was the best I've seen Jay perform."
Gene Stallings following the Georgia victory

Oct. 2

"I've been waiting three years for this. I wanted the opportunity."
Place-kicker Michael Proctor

"Everything is kind of like a blur. The offensive line gave me all day long to throw the ball. Coach Smith continued to say that our offense would explode after a slow start. We exploded today."
Quarterback Jay Barker

"We played rough in the first half, but we came out and played Alabama defense in the second. We got ourselves together."
Cornerback Tommy Johnson

"I caught a couple of passes in the first half, then I dropped a punt. That shook my confidence. The other receivers told me to keep my head up. Jay threw the ball exceptionally well and I just caught it."
Toderick Malone after catching eight passes for 173 yards

The Alabama Crimson Tide and the Georgia Bulldogs met for the first time since 1991. The meeting between the Bulldogs and the Tide would prove to be the game of the season as the Tide came back late in the fourth quarter to beat Georgia 29-28.

It didn't take long for the scoring to begin as Georgia drove the ball 80-yards for the first touchdown of the game. Kanon Parkman put the Bulldogs up 7-0 with his PAT after Eric Zeier completed a pass to James Warner from the UA 9.

The Georgia offense proved to be too much for the Bama defense in the second quarter. Although Bama scored on their continued possession from the first quarter. The Bulldogs outscored the Crimson Tide 14-10 in the second quarter.

As the second quarter began, Bama had the ball on the Georgia 22. On fourth and one, Jay Barker took the ball up the middle for a 2-yard gain and a first down. Finally, with the ball on the 6, Tarrant Lynch took a reverse into the end-zone to tie the score 7-7.

Both Georgia and Alabama were forced to punt on their next possessions. Then Georgia took the ball on their own 36. Georgia was once again able to score on a 7 play 64-yard drive which put the Dawgs ahead of Bama by a touchdown.

Georgia scored again after a 42-yard pass, from Eric Zeier, gave the Dawgs a first down. Kanon Parkman converted another point-after and the score was Alabama 7, Georgia 21.

With :57 left to play Alabama took the ball on their own 21. Jay Barker threw the ball 64-yards in 6 plays to put Bama on the Georgia 15 and within field goal range. Michael Proctor made an incredible 33-yard field goal which hit the right post before going through the uprights to put the score at Alabama 10, Georgia 21.

The Crimson Tide came out of the locker room ready play as they put some numbers on the board twice in as many possessions to begin the second half. On their first drive after half-time, Alabama was able to score 6 points on a long pass to Toderick Malone from Jay Barker. Bama went for the 2-point conversion but was unsuccessful and with 13:18 left in the quarter it was Tide 16, Dawgs 21.

Georgia was forced to punt on their next possession which put Alabama on their own 18 to start their second drive of the half. The Georgia defense put up a battle against the Bama offense and Alabama was forced to attempt a field goal. Michael Proctor made a 35-yard attempt to put the Crimson Tide within striking distance of the Bulldogs.

With 4:04 left in the quarter, Eric Zeier went to work. Zeier completed a pass to Marisa Simpson for the touchdown and the SEC yards passing record. At the end of the third quarter Georgia was ahead of Alabama 28-19.

When Alabama got the ball in the fourth quarter, they wasted no time in scoring. In a possession of only :42, Jay Barker threw two passes for 72-yards and a touchdown as Toderick Malone took his second one into the endzone. After Proctors' PAT Bama was within three.

The name of the game for the remainder of the fourth quarter was defense. Both Georgia and Alabama had long possessions in which neither team could convert. Then, with 2:10 left to play, Jay Barker scrambled for a first down rush of 13-yards. He then completed a pass to Tony Johnson who rushed for 22-yards and another first down. After a few small carries, Bama found itself on the Georgia 13. Michael Proctor was once again called on to put the Tide ahead. With 1:12 left in the game, he hit a 32-yard field goal to put the Tide ahead by one point.

Georgia now got the ball on their own 22 but was unable to convert. Alabama let time expire as the team ran onto the field to celebrate the hardest fought victory of the season.

Even though Eric Zeier became the SEC's all-time career passing leader with his 263-yards, it was the outstanding passing game of Jay Barker which had everyone talking. Barker completed 26 of 34 passes for 396-yards and two touchdowns to lead the Crimson Tide to a win over the Georgia Bulldogs. He was named both ESPN Player of the Game and SEC Player of the Week for his performance.

STAT OF THE GAME

Jay Barker had a career-high 396-yards passing for two touchdowns in the dramatic 29-28 win over Georgia. Barker's performance ranks him second on the all-time single-game passing chart and second on the all-time yardage list with 4,512 yards passing. He was named ESPN Player of the Game and SEC Player of the Week.

GAME NOTES

- Toderick Malone had a career-high eight catches for 173-yards and two touchdowns for the Tide. Malone's two touchdowns were a career-high.
- Alabama is 37-1-1 under Stallings when scoring 17 or more points.
- Alabama's win over Georgia marks the first time since 1972-73 that a team has won back-to-back games in this series. Alabama posted a 25-7 win at Athens in 1972 and beat the Bulldogs in 1973, 28-14. Alabama trailed in that game by 14 points in the fourth.
- Alabama is 11-1 in night games at Bryant-Denny Stadium, winning its last eight in a row.
- Alabama has not allowed 300 passing yards during the regular season in 52 straight games. The last time UA allowed 300-yards through the air was Nov. 18, 1989 when Southern Miss QB Brett Farve threw for exactly 300-yards in a loss to the Tide.
- Alabama has outscored the opposition, 97-20, in the first, third and fourth quarters but has been outscored in the second 44-24.
- The Alabama defense allowed its first passing touchdowns of the season against Georgia, letting Eric Zeier throw four.

This Week's Quotes

Oct. 3

"It had the emotions of a championship game. Somewhat like the locker room after the 1993 Sugar Bowl."
Gene Stallings on the Georgia game

"Give Georgia credit, they came to win the football game. I could tell it in their eyes. I saw it in the eyes of their coaches in the elevator. They gave us their best shot."

Defensive coordinator Bill Oliver

Oct. 4

"You know your mother's voice when you hear it. She came down to the fence and said, 'Hey, Shon, you need to keep your head in the game.' She thinks she's just like coach."

Toderick Malone about a visit from his mother during the Georgia game

Oct. 5

"You can't imagine how I felt. The adrenaline....I was shaking. I couldn't hold still. The Georgia band was playing and I looked down and I couldn't stop shaking."

Center John Causey on his first starting assignment

"I consider myself someone who walks in Christ's footsteps. I believe in discipleship. Through Discipleship, I can influence lives. The trophies and stuff I've won will eventually sit in a trophy case. But when I leave, I want to leave a heritage."

Jay Barker on his faith

Oct. 6

"In the early part of the game, I noticed I was in on a lot of plays. I guess it was because of the position I was playing."

Cornerback Cedric Samuel on his play against Georgia

"I think there are a couple of reasons why we're so strong in the fourth quarter. One is that we seem to be a little confused early in the game, for whatever reason. I don't know why that is, but maybe because we don't play with the intensity level we need. Then, when it looks like we have a chance to lose the game in the second half, all of a sudden we play with intensity. If we'd ever do that for 60 minutes, we could be a very good defense."

Mike Dubose on the Alabama defense

Oct. 7

"We expect a gutty, tough game, because Southern Mississippi plays, tough aggressive defense."

Offensive coordinator Homer Smith

Oct. 8

"Any time you have a homecoming game, from high school to college, it's a big deal. We're playing at home and that's a big deal to me. You can't afford to lose in your own back yard."

Defensive end Kelvin Moore

Oct. 9

"It was not a good game, but we won. I think we took a step back. The whole football team took a step back. We didn't perform at a high level."

Alabama's Gene Stallings

"We've got a couple of pretty good schemes that we tried to do. Their kicker might have been kicking low, too. Those were big plays."

Gene Stallings on the three blocked kicks against Southern Miss

"We were running a pass play and the guy hit me. We're going to do an MRI on it in the morning and start rehab to get it (his shoulder) ready for the Tennessee game."

Jay Barker on his injury against Southern Miss

The sixth game of the season was Homecoming for the University of Alabama. In front of current and former students, the Crimson Tide was looking forward to another victory to cap off the week's festivities. Although it wasn't a blowout, the Tide did manage to beat Southern Miss, 14-6. The win brought the Tide Homecoming record to 63-10-1.

The first quarter would end up scoreless after Matt Parker blocked a 48-yard field goal attempt by Southern Miss. Paul Pickett recovered the ball for Bama but the Tide could not convert.

The second quarter began with the Golden Eagles continuing their possession from the first. They were unable to score and Alabama got the ball. After a seven-yard reverse by Marcell West and a loss of one yard on a Sherman Williams run up center, quarterback Jay Barker completed a pass to tight end Patrick Hape for 45-yards and a first down. Barker then connected with Curtis Brown in the endzone for the touchdown.

However, the Crimson Tide wasn't finished. On the next USM possession, Dameian Jeffries sacked Southern Miss quarterback Heath Graham. Parker made his second big play of the day when he recovered the fumble and returned it 16-yards for the second Bama touchdown. After Michael Proctor made the PAT, Alabama was up 14-0.

Although Alabama would intercept the ball during the next Southern Miss drive, they turned it right over when Brian Steger fumbled on the UA nine. With the ball back in the hands of the Golden Eagles, USM scored its first touchdown of the game when Graham completed a short pass to Ryan Pearson in the endzone. The scoreboard read 14-6 after Tommy Johnson blocked the extra point attempt by Chris Pierce.

Neither team would be able to get into the endzone in the third as both defensive lines kept the other team in check. Barker would come out of the game on the first play of the third quarter with a shoulder injury and Brian Burgdorf would finish for the Crimson Tide. The fourth quarter proved to be more of the same, with Alabama blocking their third kick of the game when Darrell Blackburn blocked Pierce's 44-yard attempt at the start of the fourth to preserve the Tide lead. Neither team would score again and the final would put Alabama 6-0 on the season.

The Crimson Tide seemed unable to put their emotions into this game after the big win over Georgia the week before. Coach Stallings noted after the game that, "It's hard to stay high emotionally two weeks in a row. We were awfully excited after the game last week and sometimes we keep thinking about that one rather than the one we're going to play."

STAT OF THE GAME

Defensive tackle Matt Parker returned a USM fumble 16-yards for a second quarter touchdown, the first of his career. Parker also had a career-high seven tackles besting his previous high of four set this season against Tulane. In addition, Parker caused one fumble, had one quarterback sack, and a blocked field goal.

GAME NOTES

- Jay Barker set the school record for consecutive pass attempts without an interception. The first attempt of the game gave Barker 101 passes in a row, breaking the old mark of 100 set by Jeff Rutledge in 1978 and David Smith in 1988.
- Dameian Jeffries has been involved with both UA fumble recoveries for touchdowns this season. Jeffries returned a Tulane fumble 24-yards for a touchdown and caused the Southern Miss fumble that led to Matt Parker's scoring in the second.
- The Tide blocked three kick's against the Golden Eagles. Matt Parker and Darrell Blackburn each had a blocked field goal while Tommy Johnson blocked a second quarter extra point.
- In six games, Alabama's defense has not allowed a single point to be scored in the fourth quarter.
- The two interceptions by the Crimson Tide against Southern Miss extends the string of games with an interception to nine.

Darrell Blackburn (44) blocks this Southern Miss field goal attempt.

This Week's Quotes

Oct. 10

"Certainly, if Jay is hurt, it would make all the difference in the world as far as our plans for Freddie (Kitchens). In fact, he got warmed up Saturday, but I don't want to play him and waste a year of eligibility if we don't have to."

Gene Stallings on the quarterback situation

"Jay's very tough. He's played when he could. We'll just have to wait and see how he does with getting over the pain and see what his range of motion will be. I don't know when he'll practice."

Head trainer Bill McDonald on Barker's injury

Oct. 11

"He's banged up. In fact, he's on the injury report for both is shoulder and knee for today . . . he's bruised up."

Gene Stallings on quarterback Jay Barker

"You have to be prepared every week, but it's more difficult as a backup. So, I'm going to prepare as the starter."

Quarterback Brian Burgdorf

Oct. 12

"Maybe when we see that clock rolling down and your game's in jeopardy, sometimes we just start playing harder."

Gene Stallings on the Tide's fourth-quarter play

"A lot of times, we don't get much respect in the polls because we are Alabama. But to us, a win is a win. It's one of those things where you don't worry about where you are, but where you end up."

Defensive back Willie Gaston

Oct. 13

"Injuries haven't affected my performance. It's just other teams have scouted our offense and they've got eight men in the box and a free safety reading the run and ready to fly to the ball."

Tailback Sherman Williams

"I have no idea. I'm the type person who wants to be out there no matter what. I want to play against Tennessee. It's a big game. I'm going to do everything I can to be out there."

Quarterback Jay Barker on possibility he may not be ready for the Tennessee game

Oct. 14

"It's always good to get your first start and that's what you come here for. It's something I've been waiting for. I think all summer with the lifting and running, studying film and all is starting to pay off."

Center John Causey on becoming a starter

"When you approach them, you've got to stop the run. If you let them, they'll run the ball every play."

Linebacker John Walters on the Tennessee offense

Oct. 15

"I haven't seen it (Neyland Stadium) yet. The other guys have just been saying it's going to be loud. You have to get used to them singing 'Rocky Top.' I've heard that there may be up to 100,000 fans there."

Freshman defensive back Deshea Townsend

"Offensively, we have struggled a little bit. I think everything is going to be all right starting this week."

Fullback Tarrant Lynch on the Tide offense

Oct. 16

"That's all right, we knew we weren't going to get anything easy."

Gene Stallings following the 17-13 win over Tennessee

"I got my first taste of a real rivalry tonight. We played our hearts out."

Tennessee quarterback Peyton Manning following the game

"That was coach Smith's call, and it was a good one."

Jay Barker on the decision to run the option against the Vols

"There is no other feeling in the world than to come out here and beat a team as good as Tennessee was."

Defensive tackle Shannon Brown following the game

Much has been written and spoken about the Third Saturday in October, as there are few other rivalries that can match it. After last year's tie between the two teams, both the Tide and the Volunteers were ready for the contest.

The questionable status of quarterback Jay Barker and cornerback Willie Gaston was erased as the Tide took the field in the first quarter. A 62-yard drive put Alabama in field goal range and Bama was on the scoreboard after Michael Proctor hit a 21-yarder.

Tennessee attempted a 52-yard field goal, which went wide right and at the end of the first quarter, the score was 3-0, Alabama.

The second quarter was as low scoring as the first. Bama got the ball on its own 16 when Peyton Manning was intercepted by Tommy Johnson who returned it 16 yards. Alabama was unable to move the ball successfully and was forced to punt.

With 7:49 left in the first half, Tennessee went to work. Freshman quarterback Brannndon Stewart was brought into the game and led the Vols on a 13 play, 71-yard drive. John Becksvoort converted a 26-yard field goal to tie the score at the end of the first half.

As the third quarter started for the eighth-largest crowd in Tennessee history, the Vols were in possession of the football, but were unable to convert and after four quick plays it was Alabama ball.

Marcell West's first career reception was good for a Bama touchdown after Barker completed a pass from the Tennessee 29 on first and ten. Proctor put the Tide up by seven points with his PAT.

On the next possession, the Volunteers were able to tie the score at 10-10 when Manning drove the ball 55 yards.

Alabama tried to go ahead on a field goal, but Proctor slipped on the 44-yard attempt and the ball fell short. With Manning back in at quarterback, Tennessee was able to get within field goal range and for the first time in the game went ahead of the Tide by three.

The Alabama offense had its work cut out, starting the next possession on the 20-yard line. Sherman Williams scored his fourth touchdown of the season on a short run from the UT four to give Bama the lead.

The Alabama defense held the Vols for the remainder for the game and Alabama walked out of Neyland Stadium with their season record at 7-0.

STAT OF THE GAME

Sherman Williams had his fifth, 100-yard game of the season and the tenth of his career when he rushed for 142-yards against the Vols. Williams is only the second Alabama runningback to have 10 or more career 100-yard games. His performance against Tennessee moved him into tenth place on the all-time UA rushing list.

Tommy Johnson was involved in some big plays that held Tennessee to only 13 points. Johnson stopped a Tennessee drive with an interception at the Bama 47 and intercepted a Peyton Manning pass in the end zone. He also contributed a touchdown-saving tackle and in that same drive caused a Vol fumble at the UA 2-yard line.

GAME NOTES

- Sherman Williams was named ESPN "Player of the Game."
- Tommy Johnson played all 69 snaps in the win over Tennessee.
- The Crimson Tide has gone nine years without a loss to Tennessee, the second longest streak against the Vols since the early 70's and 80's when Bama won 11 in a row before losing in 1982.
- Marcell West had his first career catch, which he took into the endzone for the third quarter Alabama touchdown.
- The 142-yards in 26 rushes is the latest 100-yard game in a season for Sherman Williams. Last year, his last 100-yard game came on October 2 in the win over South Carolina.
- Jay Barker tied Harry Gilmer as the winningest quarterback in Alabama football history. The win over Tennessee brought Barker's record to 30-1-1.
- Alabama has intercepted at least one pass in 10 straight games with a total of 18 picks during that span.

Sherman Williams (20) celebrates the game-winning TD with Tony Johnson (5) and Taurus Turner (30).

This Week's Quotes

Oct. 21

"I worked hard in practice all week. I really wanted to make up for that game (Southern Miss) and Tennessee is always a big game for us. With Sherman running the ball, all you have to do is give him a fraction of a hole and he's through it."

Offensive tackle Joey Harville on the Tide's running game

"Tennessee was a good, tough game in a hostile environment, but we're still not playing at the level I want us to play. After the Tennessee game in '92, we were playing at that level."

Gene Stallings on the Tide's progress after seven games

Oct. 22

"It's in the back of our minds that we're jockeying ourselves for position. But, I'm more concerned with playing better. We still haven't played our best game."

Gene Stallings on the Tide's poll position

"I don't know what to think about it. I have some great memories of playing in Bryant-Denny Stadium. I do know it would be sweet to go out with a victory."

Linebacker Michael Rogers on his final game in Bryant-Denny Stadium

"The last five years have been the most memorable thing in my life. Every time you step on the playing field at the University of Alabama, it's like no other feeling in the world."

Oct. 23

"They (UA) know how to win. They expect to win. If their offense struggles, their defense steps up. Sometimes they don't look impressive, but they win. That's what is impressive about them. They made the plays, we didn't."

Ole Miss linebacker Abdul Jackson following the Ole Miss game

"If they (Alabama) had to score 28 points, I bet you they would've scored them. Bama plays football like it's supposed to be played. Run the ball, kick it and don't take chances."

Joe Lee Dunn, Ole Miss' interim head coach

"It was a terribly played first half (by us), but it was a beautifully played second half."

Tide coach Gene Stallings on the Ole Miss game

"We knew exactly what they were going to do. They've been doing it the last three years, ever since Joe Lee Dunn was their defensive coordinator."

Runningback coach Ivy Williams on the Rebel defense

"Going into the game, I talked with Coach Oliver (Bill) about not playing much in the Tennessee game. He told me to be ready, because I was going to play a lot today."

Defensive back Sam Shade following the Ole Miss game

"It feels really good to finally get the record. I thank God to be surrounded by a good team."

Quarterback Jay Barker after he set the school record for wins

"I have to admit, it was hard to keep my mind on the game. Don't get me wrong, I like football, but I like living, too."

Chad Key on the thunder storm

The 42nd meeting between Alabama and Ole Miss will go down as one of the strangest in Alabama football history. The first weather delay in the school's history happened when a violent lightning storm forced officials to stop play for 26 minutes during the second quarter. When play resumed, the Crimson Tide was able to win their eighth game of the season and go undefeated into the off-week.

Ole Miss was the first to score, when on their second possession, Dou Innocent ran into the endzone for the six points. Tim Montz hit the PAT and the Rebels were up by a touchdown.

Ole Miss was able to score again on an Alabama fumble in the second quarter. Sherman Williams fumbled the ball, on the Alabama 38, and Derek Jones recovered for Ole Miss. The Rebels then put the ball in field goal range and Tim Montz hit a 44-yard attempt to put the score at 10-0, Ole Miss.

Alabama was unable to score from their own one and at the end of the half Ole Miss was still leading the Tide 10-0.

Alabama put some points on the board on their second possession of the third quarter. An option to Tarrant Lynch put Bama in Mississippi territory and Sherman Williams was able to run the ball in for the Tide touchdown.

Alabama put the ball within field goal range midway in the fourth and Proctor attempted and made the field goal but Ole Miss cornerback, Alundis Brice, was called for roughing the kicker. Alabama had an automatic first down on the UM one and Barker was able to roll right for the TD. After Proctor's extra point, Alabama was ahead 14-10.

With the clock showing 1:45 left in the ball game, Williams scored his second touchdown of the day, after Michael Rogers sacked the Rebel quarterback and Sam Shade recovered the fumble on the UM eight.

STAT OF THE GAME

Jay Barker became the winningest quarterback in Alabama history. The 21-10 win over Ole Miss moved him ahead of Hary Gilmer. Barker is currently 31-1-1 in his career.

Alabama's senior class played its final game at Bryant-Denny Stadium today. After eight games in 1994, the senior class is 41-4-1 with one SEC Championship and a National Championship (1992).

GAME NOTES

- Jay Barker passed Gary Hollingsworth on the all-time completion and all-time attempt charts.
- This was Sherman Williams' third, 30-carry game of the season. He rushed the ball 31 times against Tulane, 33 against Arkansas, and 32 against Ole Miss.
- Jay Barker has not thrown an interception in his last 147 attempts. As a team, Alabama has not thrown an interception this season in 165 attempts.
- Bryne Diehl successfully converted his fifth fake punt of his career. Diehl has worked one touchdown and five first downs including the 44-yard pass to Chad Key in the win over Ole Miss.
- Tommy Johnson's interception of Josh Nelson's pass marked the 11th straight game UA has picked off a pass. Alabama has a total of 19 interceptions in those 11 games.
- Sherman Williams became the seventh all-time leading rusher in Alabama football history. Williams also became the ninth player in UA history to rush for over 2,000 yards.

Receiver Chad Key (19) sprints 44-yards with this Bryne Diehl pass.

This Week's Quotes

Oct. 24

"We win by close margins, but to me this team has a lot of character. They never think they're out of it. And just about every time we really need the offense to come through, we do."

Assistant head coach Woody McCorvey

Oct. 28

"I really had no idea they were going to do this. It's a really good honor for me. It would be a big honor anybody."

Jay Barker upon learning his high school (Hewitt-Trussville) would be retiring his jersey

Oct. 31

"We've not played well enough on defense to be undefeated. Yet this team keeps finding a way to win. That says something about the character of the players. It's been a tough year. We're still learning this defense, coaches and players. We don't adjust as well in the 4-3 or react as well during the game."

Defensive line coach Mike Dubose on the Tide defense.

Nov. 1

"I think complacency set in and that's why we lost. That really bothers us. That loss hurt us down the stretch. It made us vulnerable. We thought the season was over because we couldn't repeat as national champions. This week, that game from last year is on our minds. It really sticks out."

Senior Willie Gaston on the loss to LSU in 1993

Nov. 2

"On defense, you have to defeat the blocker and then make the tackle. On offense, I just make the block. What I learned from playing defense is that if a guy gets his hand on you, it's his game."

Offensive guard Maurice Belser on the intricacies of line play

"The big thing is not how many things you can do, but how many things you can do well."

Quarterback Jay Barker on cutting the playbook

"Everybody says they wish I'd broken the record at home, but why not at LSU? That's where it all started for me."

Quarterback Jay Barker on breaking passing record

Nov. 3

"If anyone's going to do it, Jay Barker is the best possible person. There have been some real quality people who've played quarterback at Alabama, but I can't think of a better person than Jay."

Former Tide quarterback Scott Hunter on Jay Barker

"It's like we're in the second season. We've got five weeks left basically, and we know we need to be playing our best. It's not that long."

Linebacker John Walters on the remainder of the season

"I spent three days with her. We went to the zoo, jumped on the trampoline and played with Barbie dolls. We did all kinds of things."

Defensive tackle Shannon Brown about the day off with his daughter

Nov. 4

"My goal as a freshman was to get playing time, even if it was just on special teams. I'm not surprised I've gotten the chance to play. I've always been confident I could play, no matter where I went."

Freshman runningback Dennis Riddle

Nov. 5

"We're 8-0. We're rested up. All I've been thinking about is going out and dominating people like Alabama is supposed to do."

Defensive end Dameian Jeffries on the LSU game

"I just keep stabbing at it and maybe one day I won't be labeled as a person who can be a great player. Instead, I'll be a person who is a great player."

Wide receiver Marcell West

Nov. 6

"I didn't see it. It happened so fast and bang -- 7-0"

LSU's Curley Hallman on Sam Shade's fumble return for a touchdown

"The torch has been passed. I'm tickled to death for Jay. He's a class young man and I really think the world of him. I can't think of anybody better to break the record."

Scott Hunter after Jay Barker set the school passing record

"The defensive back tried to pick it off. He distracted me a little. I was aware that he was breaking on the ball. He got pretty close to it, but Jay just put it right on the money. I was very focused on making the catch."

25. Brigham Young 7-2-0 (64)

The Crimson Tide had been waiting for this SEC Western Division contest for year. It was the LSU Tigers who ended the Tide's 31-game unbeaten streak last year with a 17-13 victory. This time the Tide was venturing into Tiger territory and they were ready to play.

Although Alabama was not able to score on its first possession, the Tide defense did manage to score. Sam Shade recovered a Robert Tomer fumble and returned it 30-yards for the touchdown. Michael Proctor's PAT put Bama ahead, 7-0.

Bama was close to a second touchdown, when a Sherman Williams pass intended for Chad key was intercepted in the endzone by Ivory Hilliard. Fortunately the Tigers were unable to convert the play into points and the first quarter ended with Alabama still ahead 7-0.

The first play of the second quarter ended a streak for Alabama quarterback Jay Barker. On his first attempt of the quarter, Barker was intercepted, ending his record of 155 attempts without an interception. LSU was then able to get within field goal range and Andre' Lafleur made a 40-yarder to put the score at 7-3, Alabama.

Alabama answered that with a touchdown when Tommy Johnson blocked a punt by Mark Walker and Roman Colburn returned the ball 33-yards for the second Bama touchdown. Proctor once again split the uprights for the extra point and the Tide went up 14-3.

With 2:18 left in the first half, Alabama scored yet again when Barker completed a pass to Curtis Brown who ran it in for a TD, putting Alabama ahead, 21-3. But, Alabama wasn't finished in the first half. The Tide was able to score again, when Williams carried the ball in for the touchdown and the commanding lead over the LSU Tigers.

When both teams returned to the field after half-time, LSU had possession of the ball, and was able to score on the first possession on a 19-yard pass from Melvin Hill to Eric Smith. After LaFleur hit the extra point Alabama was ahead of LSU by 18 points.

The fourth quarter started with Alabama on the LSU 24. Williams got his second TD of the game with an 11-yard run into the endzone to put Alabama up 35-10. LSU would also score again, with :29 left on the clock when Melvin Hill completed a pass to Brett Bech for the final TD of the game. Alabama let the clock run out and the Tide was victorious over the Tigers, 35-17.

The victory was sweet for other reasons besides avenging last year's loss to LSU. The win was also number 700 for the Crimson Tide. Alabama joins Michigan and Notre Dame with victories numbering 745 and 728 respectively in the 700 club.

STAT OF THE WEEK

Alabama gets victory number 700. The Crimson Tide is one of only three teams who have gotten to this milestone. Michigan (745 wins) and Notre Dame (728 wins) are the other college football teams to get to 700.

Sherman Williams became the fourth runningback in school history to top the 1,000-yard mark rushing. Williams had 99-yards on 19 rushes and 2 touchdowns.

GAME NOTES

- Defensive end Vann Bodden recorded six tackles, three tackles for losses, one sack, two quarterback pressures, and caused one fumble which Sam Shade recovered and ran for a 30-yard touchdown. Bodden was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts.
- Sherman Williams has rushed for 1,033-yards through nine games, the 6th highest total in UA history.
- Jay Barker ended his streak of attempts without an interception. Barker had 155 attempts before being intercepted on his first attempt of the second quarter.
- Sherman Williams was named ESPN Player of the Game.
- Through nine games, the Tide has allowed only 10 points to be scored by its opposition in the fourth quarter.
- Sherman Williams leads the SEC in rushing yards and all-purpose yards, covering 115 yards per game on the ground and 139 overall.
- Tommy Johnson and Eric Turner added to the list of blocked kicks by the Crimson Tide. Johnson's block was returned by Roman Colburn for a touchdown.

Cecil "Hootie" Ingram and Gene Stallings help the Tide celebrate Alabama's 700th victory following the LSU game.

This Week's Quotes

Nov. 7

"I'm proud to be associated with it. When you look at it, that's an average of seven wins a year. The catalyst was coach Bryant. The rest of us are just trying to keep up with him."

Gene Stallings on the Tide's 700th win at LSU

"It was nice being able to sit on the sidelines and enjoy it. It was nice not having to be out there pulling one out. It was the kind of win a team can sit back and enjoy."

Jay Barker reflecting on the LSU victory

Nov. 8

"Flying probably unites the team more than busing, because flying spooks a lot of the guys. I see some guys holding hands, praying. Busing seems safer and puts our guys at ease."

John Walters on taking the bus to Starkville

"I always knew I had it inside. I've just had more of an opportunity lately." Defensive end Yann Bodden after being named SEC "Defensive Player of the Week"

Nov. 9

"One of the great attributes of this team is that we take it one game at a time. We never look ahead, we never look behind."

Jay Barker

"Coming to Alabama, it was like, 'man, I'm here.' This is just -- big! It's someplace I've always dreamed of being. It's a weird feeling, it says I'm here, I made it." Kickoff specialist William "Wild Thing" Watts

Nov. 10

"The writers in Alabama were all over how they don't do this good and they don't do that good, and they were 5-0 at the time. We were up on them 11 points at halftime. They're going to do what they've got to do to win the game. They just seem to find a way."

Georgia's Ray Goff about the Tide

"He's playing better. He's looking like the Sam Shade of old. He was in on lots of tackles, pass defense, that's the way I expect him to play."

Gene Stallings on the return of Sam Shade

Nov. 11

"I don't have any problem with where we are ranked. In fact, it probably about right. We haven't played as well as I would have liked us to in some areas and I'm just happy to be ranked where we are."

Gene Stallings on the Tide's national ranking

Nov. 12

"We were in the same scenario two years ago. This game is big to us, but it's just as big, maybe bigger, to Alabama. No question Alabama has put itself into a position to compete for a national championship."

Mississippi State coach Jackie Sherrill

"It's important to me to know what my job is and to be able to do it. At Alabama, the fullback is primarily used as a blocker. But I know that when I run the ball, it's important and I feel like my ability to catch the ball is one of my biggest assets."

Fullback Tarrant Lynch

Nov. 13

"It doesn't do any good to fuss at him. He makes too many good plays to worry about the few bad ones. Besides, I knew he wasn't through."

Gene Stallings after Jay Barker's interception against Mississippi State

"Sometimes people forget Jay doesn't lose."

Homer Smith

"I've seen a lot of college quarterbacks, but he's the best I've ever seen. He's the best by far in the clutch."

Mississippi State's Jackie Sherrill

"We wanted to be sure we scored. But we felt we could run the ball. That's why, when we called the guys over, we told them 'we're going to run this thing in. You need to knock them off the ball.'"

Assistant head coach Woody McCorvey

The Crimson Tide got a shot of reality when, in the fourth quarter, Mississippi State had a 25-15 lead. However, Alabama did what it had been doing all season, and found a way to win. The Tide managed to score twice late in the game to win 29-25 to move to 10-0-0 for the season.

The game started on a good note for the Tide when Dameian Jeffries caused State quarterback Derrick Taite to fumble the ball on the first play of the game. Alabama had the ball on the 50-yard line but was unable to move. On its second possession, Alabama moved to the State five-yard line but Jay Barker's pass was knocked down by Brent Smith. The Tide had to settle for three points after Michael Proctor made a 22-yard attempt.

Mississippi State got on the board at 12:22 in the second when Taite completed a pass to Eric Moulds for 31-yards and a TD. Tim Rogers' point-after was good and the Bulldogs went ahead, 7-3. With 7:53 left, State got the ball on their own 20 and Michael Davis went to work and gained field position on the Alabama three. State scored on a reverse when Fred McCrary capped a 13 play, 80-yard drive to put Mississippi State up 14-3.

It didn't take long for the Crimson Tide to answer with their own touchdown. Barker completed a pass to Curtis Brown for 44-yards and one to Tarrant Lynch for six before taking a timeout with 1:26 left in the half. Barker then completed a pass to Toderick Malone for a gain on 26. With the ball on the State two, Barker completed a short pass to Sherman Williams for the touchdown. The score moved to 14-9 Mississippi State after the 2-point conversion was no good.

Neither team was able to score again until late in the third. With 5:21 left in the quarter, Alabama moved the ball from the State 43 on a seven-play, 43-yard possession. Barker completed another pass to Toderick Malone for the touchdown. Once again, Alabama was unable to get the two-point conversion but went ahead of the Bulldogs by two.

It didn't stay that way long when, on their next possession and with only 1:47 left in the quarter, Taite hit Moulds for 27-yards and the State touchdown. Taite then hit Moulds again for the two-point conversion to lead, 22-15. State scored again in the fourth on a Tim Rogers' 21-yard field goal to move ahead 25-15.

The Crimson Tide didn't give. With only 7:57 left in the game, Alabama had possession on their own 35. The first play didn't look promising when Barker was sacked for a loss of seven. Barker then completed three passes for 27 yards to the State 47. Williams then gained two-yards for the first down and Barker completed a pass to Curtis Brown for 42 and the Tide touchdown. Proctor hit the PAT to put Bama within striking distance at 25-22.

The Tide defense went to work and stopped the Bulldogs to give the ball back to Alabama with 3:41 left in the game. With the ball on the UA 34, Barker orchestrated a final drive that moved the ball down the field. On second and ten, Barker threw a pass to Williams who made a beautiful catch for a gain of 28 yards and a first down. The Tide then put its running game into action. Lynch, Riddle, and Williams combined for 15-yards on four carries to put Alabama on the State one-yard line. Dennis Riddle's gain of one for the touchdown was delayed when a flag was thrown on the play. The call was offside Mississippi State and Alabama got the TD. Proctor once again hit the PAT to give Alabama the lead and the win.

STAT OF THE GAME

Quarterback Jay Barker completed 26 of 35 attempts for 325-yards and three touchdowns in the victory over Mississippi State. In the final eight minutes of the game, Barker was able to engineer two scoring drives to rally Alabama from a 10-point deficit. The 26 completions gives him 382 to tie the Scott Hunter's school record. The 35 attempts leave him two attempts shy of Hunter's school record of 672.

GAME NOTES

- The win over MSU marks the fifth time this season the Tide has won when trailing in the fourth quarter.
- The victory over Mississippi State put the season record at 10-0-0, making this the 24th season Alabama has had a 10-win record. No other school in Division I has had as many 10-win seasons.
- Jay Barker is 33-1-1 as the Alabama starting quarterback.
- At one point in the game, Barker completed a school-record 11 consecutive passes. The old mark of 10 was held by Gary Hollingsworth who did it twice in 1989 against Ole Miss and LSU.
- Dameian Jeffries had a career-high four QB pressures. His previous high was three set earlier this season against Tulane and Tennessee.
- Jeffries also recorded five tackles, one for a loss, a QB sack, broke up a pass, and caused a fumble.
- The win by Coach Gene Stallings was his 50th at Alabama. His record is 50-9-1 at Alabama and 77-54-2 overall.
- Curtis Brown had a career-high eight receptions for 153-yards, besting both his previous records. His previous high receptions was seven against Georgia earlier this year and his best yardage was 81 against LSU.

Sherman Williams (20) caught his pass to keep a game-winning Tide drive alive.

This Week's Quotes

Nov. 14

"It's a big game, but you can't put all your eggs in one basket. We've got two more games after this one. We're still going to playing in the SEC Championship, and that's pretty big, too."

Gene Stallings on the Auburn game

"Eventhough the Auburn game is a big game, it's not a must game, which it could have been if we had lost to Mississippi State."

Gene Stallings

"I relish the thought of this game. You can't imagine how quickly you get immersed in this game plan, how terrifying it looks on Monday, how much better you feel by Thursday. I love being a part of Alabama football, I really do."

Offensive coordinator Homer Smith

Nov. 16

"I think we've improved a lot. We're really playing a little smarter. I would hope we can play a little bit better Saturday. We haven't been making too many mistakes in the last few games. I really feel like we're better than we were at the beginning of the season."

Defensive back Tommy Johnson

"You like the publicity because of pride, but I'm more worried about how we do as a team."

Jay Barker on the Heisman talk

"Auburn puts no fear in my heart. We fear no quarterback and no offensive unit."

Willie Gaston on the Auburn offense

"I never thought it would happen. Especially after the Florida game my freshman year, when we got beat 35-0. I never thought we'd turn it around the way we have. To even go 11-1 that season was something I never dreamed we'd do. I lost more games my senior year in high school (3-7 at Wenonah) than I have in four years here."

Senior safety Sam Shade

Nov. 17

"I think the best growth in my time as a Christain was when I hurt my knee. It was an unmet need in my life. I had been depending on myself. I needed something else to depend on the Lord for. I grew a lot during that time."

Jay Barker reflecting on his knee injury

"Part of it is putting on that crimson jersey. It represents the pride and tradition we have here at the University of Alabama. It comes from the players before us and coach Bryant. And now it's coach Stallings and the players who are here. No matter what the situation is, whether we've given up a touchdown or thrown an interception, we just go back out and play like it never happened."

Safety Sam Shade

Nov. 19

"I really believe we have yet to play our best game. I hope it comes this week against Auburn."

Offensive coordinator Homer Smith

Nov. 20

"We got our halves mixed up."

Gene Stallings

"I knew he didn't get anything forward. When I hit him, he went into reverse. Personally, I thought the spot was better than they deserved. I knew in my heart I had stopped him, but when the chains came out, I started to get nervous."

Sam Shade on his tackle of Frank Sanders short of a first down

"We played up to our capabilities. We all played up to our potential. We knocked them around and did what we had to do to win."

Offensive lineman Kareem McNeal

The rivalry between Alabama and Auburn is one that doesn't just take place one Saturday in the fall. This game was for state bragging rights, bragging that takes place the other 364 days of the year. Last year, Auburn earned the right with a victory over the Crimson Tide.

There was a lot riding on this game for both teams. At the end of the game, one team would no longer be undefeated. Auburn had gone two seasons without a loss and only one tie. Alabama was still only one of three 10-0 teams on this season and the Tide was looking to go 11-0.

The first quarter started with a three and out possession by Auburn. Alabama then had the ball on their own 22 when Sherman Williams rushed 26-yards for the first down. Jay Barker wanted to pass but had to scramble for two-yards and it was second and eight. A 24-yard rush by Tarrant Lynch put Alabama on the Auburn 26. Williams was unable to gain any yardage on first and ten but then Tarrant Lynch went four-yards and Dennis Riddle went three-yards to put the Tide on the Auburn 19. Michael Proctor attempted a 36-yard field goal which went wide right.

Once again the Alabama defense did not let up and it was a three and out possession for the Tigers. The Tide was unable to convert on its next possession and Auburn had the ball on their own 26. After a personal foul put the ball on the Auburn 41-yard line, Michael Rogers caused Stephen Davis to fumble the ball. Sam Shade recovered to put Alabama on the Auburn 47.

At the 6:16 mark in the first quarter, and Alabama with its third possession of the game, Sherman Williams carried the ball twice for a net of two-yards before Barker was able to complete the pass to Curtis Brown for 11-yards and first down. After an incomplete pass put the Tide at third and eight, Barker completed a short pass to Lynch who went 12-yards for the first down. With the ball on the Auburn 19, Ed Scissum carried six-yards before Williams ran to the end zone for an Alabama touchdown. Michael Proctor's PAT was good and Alabama went up on the Tigers, 7-0.

It didn't take the Tide long to score again. With only 26 seconds left in the first quarter, Barker completed a pass to Toderick Malone who ran for 74 yards and the second Alabama TD. Then on the next Tide possession, with the ball on the Auburn 49, Barker hit Marcel West who sailed into the end zone to give Alabama a 21-0 lead after Proctor's PAT.

The score was still Alabama 21, Auburn 0 at the start of the second half. This game marked the first time all season Auburn had been shut out in the first half. The Tigers would manage to score on a 5:44 possession when Patrick Nix, on a quarterback sneak, gave Auburn its first points of the game. Matt Hawkins' PAT put the score at 21-7, Bama.

Alabama tried to score on third and goal but Barker was intercepted by Brian Robinson in the end zone. Dameian Jeffries would then tip and intercept a Patrick Nix pass on Auburn's next possession. Alabama could not convert on the possession and Auburn would get the ball on their own 27-yard line. Once again, on a quarterback sneak, Auburn scored to cap a 73-yard drive and put Auburn within a touchdown of Bama.

The game would end after Auburn missed getting a first down by a measurement of inches. With the 21-14 victory over Auburn, Alabama would go 11-0 on the regular season. When asked about the chances of Alabama winning a national championship, Coach Stallings said, "We just played a nationally ranked team. We played a nationally ranked team last week. We're going to play a nationally ranked team next time we play. I would think the schedule is definitely in our favor from here on out. I don't think there's any question about that."

STAT OF THE GAME

Sherman Williams was named ABC Player of the Game after an outstanding performance against the Auburn Tigers. Williams carried the ball 27 times for 164 yards and one touchdown in Alabama's 21-14 victory. Williams now has 495 career rushes for 2,387 yards which puts him into fourth-place on the career yardage list. This season, Williams has rushed for 1,242 yards for third place on the single-season rushing list.

GAME NOTES

- Jay Barker completed eight of 17 passes for 177 yards and two touchdowns. Barker is now Alabama's all-time passing leader for yardage, completions and attempts. He surpasses Scott Hunter for career attempts and completions with his performance against Auburn.
- Barker recorded 23 plays (17 pass attempts/6 rushes) against Auburn, giving him the Alabama career record for most plays. He has 920 plays, surpassing the mark of 904 held by Walter Lewis.
- This was only the fifth time in history both teams entered the game ranked in the Top 10. Alabama has won three of those five.
- Michael Proctor hit all three extra points to run his consecutive extra point string to 97.
- The 74-yard TD reception by Toderick Malone was the sixth TD reception of his career.
- The Crimson Tide is 21-0 when Sherman Williams scores a touchdown and are 12-0 when he rushes for over 100 yards.
- The 87-yard TD drive by Alabama in the second quarter, which ended in a 49-yard touchdown reception by Marcel West, is the longest drive of the season by the Tide.
- Auburn's third-quarter quarterback sneak by Patrick Nix was the first touchdown scored by the Tigers versus Alabama at Legion Field in twelve quarters, dating back to the second quarter of the 1990 game.

This Week's Quotes

Nov. 28

"I always think we're going to perform pretty well. But with no more experience than we had on the offensive line, plus losing David Palmer, I thought we'd struggle. And we have struggled, but we've won."

Alabama head coach Gene Stallings about his offense after 11 regular-season games

"This group of seniors is 44-4-1, and a certain amount of confidence goes along with that. It's not like they haven't won any games. They've been winning 11 a year."

Stallings on Alabama's 1994 senior class

"You don't get confidence by saying 'let's go out and play with confidence.' You get it by performing."

Stallings on the confidence in his team after the Auburn game

Nov. 29

"If you had asked me this at the beginning of the year, I would have told you no. We didn't look impressive in our first three games. It's all about working toward a common goal."

Senior defensive back Willie Gaston on Alabama's chances of reaching the championship game

"Jay Barker has improved. He's brought us back several times."

Stallings on the keys to Alabama's success

"Every particular team has some personality, and I guess this one just refuses to quit."

Senior offensive lineman Jon Stevenson about the personality of the Alabama team

"I guess it's just the personality of this team that we've had since I've been here. It seems like we always step up to the occasion and get the job done when it's needed."

Stallings on his team's fourth-quarter comebacks

"We believe we can win, no matter what the score is."

Willie Gaston on how this team never quits

"Since the Georgia game, it's like second nature. We just seem to do it."

Jon Stevenson about Alabama's second half comebacks

"I think it's fair to say that they are the best defense we have seen."

Alabama offensive coordinator Homer Smith on the Florida defense

"It's wonderful, but it's Jay's honor, not mine. He tried to credit me for his ability to start his throwing motion and check it, but I told him he should thank his parents for that. It's a natural talent, and some have it and some don't."

Homer Smith's response to Barker being named first-team All-SEC

Nov. 30

"There is no way it's going to be me against him, or anything close to that. He's going to put 11 men on the field, and we're going to put 11 men on the field. He's going to know as much as he can about us, and we're going to try and know as much as we can about him, but it's not going to mean a darn thing unless the players execute."

Defensive coordinator Bill Oliver downplaying the idea of an Oliver versus Spurrier matchup at the SEC Championship Game

"Whenever we play them it seems like the game lasts forever. You never know what's coming. Their library of plays is as big as the stadium we're going to be playing in."

Oliver on the variety of the Florida offense

"You look at his record, he's done pretty good with it."

Jay Barker about Stallings' success as running the football

This Southeastern Conference Championship Game would find the Florida Gators and the Alabama Crimson Tide in Atlanta, Georgia. Florida and Alabama had met in all three Championship games. Alabama beat the Gators in the inaugural game and Florida beat the Tide in 1993.

The winner of this game would be spending New Year's in New Orleans and would take on Florida State in the 1995 Sugar Bowl, but Alabama was also trying to keep its national championship hopes alive. It was a hard fought game on both sides but Florida held off the Tide, 24-23, to earn the trip to Louisiana and the Sugar Bowl.

The first half was a seesaw battle with the Tide scoring on its opening possession. A 70-yard Jay Barker pass to Curtis Brown and Michael Proctor's PAT put the Tide up, 7-0. Florida was able to get on the board with a six play, 72-yard drive with 4:07 left to close the first quarter tied at seven all.

At the beginning of the second quarter, Bama went ahead by three on a 22-yard Proctor field goal. However, the Gators answered with a 42-yarder of their own. Florida was then able to score when quarterback Danny Wuerffel kept the ball at center on a one-yard plunge and the Gator touch-down. At the end of the half, Florida led, 17-10.

The third quarter belonged to Alabama and for a moment Bama fans thought they were Sugar Bowl bound. The Tide came out and scored with 7:35 left in the quarter when Proctor kicked a 47-yard field goal to make the score Florida, 17-13. Proctor did it again with 2:14 left in the quarter to put the Tide within one point of the Gators.

The 1992 championship game came to mind when on a UF possession, Cedric Samuel broke up a Danny Wuerffel pass. Linebacker Dwayne Rudd intercepted the pass and returned it 23-yards for the touchdown. Alabama went up 23-17 on Proctor's PAT.

Alabama didn't have time to rest as Florida came out and was able to score on a short pass from Wuerffel to Chris Doring. Judd Davis made the point-after and Florida went ahead of Alabama by one point.

There was still time for the Tide to score. Bama took possession at the UA 22, but the Gators intercepted on the Alabama 44 to halt the drive and end the Tide threat. Florida took possession with 0:44 left to play and ran out the clock to win its second consecutive SEC title, 24-23.

STAT OF THE GAME

Michael Proctor was the leading scorer for the Tide, hitting three field goals and two extra points. Proctor's field goals were 22, 47, and 48-yards. The 48-yard field goal was his career high. His PAT in the fourth quarter, after the Dwayne Rudd interception return, was his 99th consecutive.

Proctor also broke two SEC Championship Game records, most field goals and longest field goal. His three field goals broke the previous high of two set by Proctor last year and his 48-yard field goal beat his previous long of 45, also set in the 1993 game.

GAME NOTES

- * Attendance for the game (74,751) broke the Georgia Dome's previous football high of 72,500 set at the 1994 Super Bowl.
- * Alabama had the most return yardage (punt, interception, and fumble) in an SEC Championship Game with 110 yards.
- * The Tide also set the mark for most interception return yardage. The old mark, set by Alabama in 1992, of 27 was shattered with a total of 65 yards.
- * Sherman Williams had 29 rushing attempts for 99 yards.
- * Jay Barker's 70-yard pass to Curtis Brown set a championship game record for longest touchdown pass. The old mark of 43 yards was set by Florida's Terry Dean in 1993.

Darrell Blackburn (44) gets one of his five tackles against Florida, this one a five-yard quarterback sack.

Bryant-Denny Stadium

Bryant-Denny Stadium has undergone a renovation and expansion project that added some 10,000 seats to bring the total capacity to approximately 70,000. In 1991, the artificial surface was replaced by Prescription Athletic Turf, with the Georgia game on Sept. 21 being the first game on grass since Oct. 12, 1968 when Alabama and Vanderbilt played. The first game in the newly-renovated stadium was played on Sept. 24, 1988 when the Crimson Tide beat Vanderbilt 44-10.

The first game played in the stadium was 64 years ago as the Crimson Tide defeated Mississippi 22-7 on Homecoming day. The seating capacity was 12,000 at the time.

Gov. Bibb Graves officially presented the stadium to then-President Dr. George Denny on Oct. 4, 1929.

Seven years after the birth of Denny Stadium, an additional 6,000 seats were added to the east side and soon after that, 6,000 more were added to the west side to bring the capacity to slightly over 24,000.

After World War II, Coach Frank Thomas, in his 15th season with the Crimson Tide, watched Denny Stadium grow again with additional bleachers put in both end zones to bring the capacity to 31,000.

When Paul William Bryant, a former player under Coach Frank Thomas, took over as head coach, the stadium again had growing pains. An additional 12,000 seats were constructed in 1961 along with a press box and elevator to bring the capacity to 43,000. The capacity was raised to 60,000 in 1966.

On Sept. 5, 1975, the Alabama Legislature enacted a resolution to change the name of the stadium to Bryant-Denny Stadium. Rededication ceremonies marked the name change on April 10, 1976 at the spring A-Day game. At the time of the dedication, the stadium was one of only two stadiums in the nation to be named after an active head coach.

Alabama will continue to use Legion Field as its other home site with three games slated for the venerable Birmingham stadium this fall.

Coach Paul W. Bryant

Coach Paul William Bryant (1913-1983) returned to Alabama as head football coach in 1958 after playing for the Tide from 1933-1935 and serving as an assistant coach from 1936-1939. The Bryant era at Alabama spanned more than a quarter of a century.

Bryant-Denny Stadium, Bryant Hall, the Bryant Conference Center and the Bryant Museum stand as reminders of Bryant's legacy to the University. A legacy of winning.

Dr. George Denny

George Hutcheson Denny (1870-1955) accepted the presidency of The University of Alabama on January 1, 1912. He began an extraordinary presidential career that spanned almost a quarter of a century.

Denny Chimes and Bryant-Denny Stadium stand as reminders of Denny's legacy to the University.

Alabama won the SEC's first-ever Western Division Championship in 1992. The Tide then went on to win the SEC and national championships.

The Last Time . . .

UA RETURNED A KICKOFF FOR A TD—On November 17, 1990, Irving Spikes returned a Cincinnati kickoff 63 yards before fumbling it on the Bearcat 31. Crimson Tide teammate Darryl Pickett picked up the fumble and ran it the final 31 yards for a touchdown. Alabama won 45-7.

OPPONENT RETURNED A KICKOFF FOR A TD—Notre Dame's Al Hunter ran a second quarter kickoff back 93 yards against the Tide December 31, 1973 in the Sugar Bowl contest won by the Irish 24-23.

UA RETURNED A PUNT FOR A TD—On Sept. 26, 1992 against Louisiana Tech David Palmer returned a punt 63-yards for a score, Alabama's only TD in a 13-0 victory.

OPPONENT RETURNED A PUNT FOR A TD—The last time a player returned a non-blocked punt was Nov. 4, 1972 when Miss. State's Frank Dowsing went 47 yards for a score. Alabama won, 58-14 in Tuscaloosa.

UA RETURNED A BLOCKED FIELD GOAL FOR A TD—Actually this is the first time an Alabama player has returned a blocked field goal for a TD. Late in the third quarter of the 1993 Miss. State game, Darrell Blackburn blocked a 44-yard FG attempt and Lemanski Hall returned it 60 yards for his only career TD.

UA RETURNED AN EXTRA POINT CONVERSION FOR A SCORE: In 1989, Lee Ozmint intercepted LSU's Tommy Hodson's two-point conversion attempt and returned it 100 yards for two points. It was the first time in Alabama history that the Tide scored a two-point defensive conversion.

UA BLOCKED A PUNT FOR A TD—Against LSU on Nov. 5, 1994, Roman Colburn scooped up a punt blocked by Sam Shade and raced 33 yards for a score. The Tide blocked two LSU punts in the game enroute to the school's historic 700th career win.

OPPONENT BLOCKED A PUNT FOR A TD—Florida's Jimmy Spencer blocked a Stan Moss punt in the end zone and Gator teammate Richard Fain recovered it for a touchdown helping the Gators to a 17-13 win over the Tide Sept. 15, 1990. In the 1991 Fiesta Bowl, Ricky McFadden blocked a Tank Williamson punt and it was recovered for a touchdown by Ray Buchanan.

UA RETURNED AN INTERCEPTION FOR A TD—It happened in the 1994 SEC Championship game against Florida when defensive back Cedric Samuel broke-up a Danny Wuerffel pass and Dwayne Rudd intercepted the ball and raced 23-yards for the score. The score put Alabama up 23-17, but Alabama lost the game, 24-23.

OPPONENT RETURNED AN INTERCEPTION FOR A TD—Southern Miss' Bobby Hamilton intercepted a Jay Barker pass, batted by teammate James Singleton and returned it 18 yards for a TD. It was the Eagles only TD in a 17-10 loss in Birmingham.

UA RECORDED A SAFETY—Freshman Andre Royal sacked UT-Chattanooga quarterback Kenyon Earl in the endzone for a safety in Alabama's 53-7 victory on October 5, 1991.

UA OPPONENT RECORDED A SAFETY—With 6:52 left in the second quarter of the 1993 Auburn game, Tide QB Jay Barker was tackled in the endzone by Tiger linebacker Jason Miska.

UA SHUT OUT AN OPPONENT—Alabama recorded one shutout in 1993. The Tide blanked Southern Miss 40-0 in Birmingham on Oct. 30.

OPPONENT SHUT OUT UA—Florida shut out Alabama 35-0 at Florida Field on Sept. 14, 1991.

UA RECOVERED AN ONSIDES KICK—Rory Turner recovered Terry Sanders' onside kick in the fourth quarter of Alabama's 30-21 loss to Vanderbilt back on September 29, 1984.

OPPONENT RECOVERED AN ONSIDES KICK—October 19, 1991. The Vols' Chris Mims recovered teammate Joey Chapman's kick giving Tennessee the ball with 4:25 left in the fourth quarter. The Vols scored a TD off that possession to bring them within five points of Alabama (24-19). Alabama won the game 24-19.

UA BLOCKED AN EXTRA POINT—On Oct. 8, 1994 against Southern Mississippi, Tommy Johnson blocked a Golden Eagle extra point attempt. The block was one of a school record three kick blocks against USM.

OPPONENT BLOCKED A UA EXTRA POINT—Vanderbilt's Aaron Smith blocked Michael Proctor's PAT attempt on the Tide's final TD in a 25-8 win, Sept. 5, 1992.

UA BLOCKED A FIELD GOAL ATTEMPT—Against Southern Mississippi on Oct. 8, 1994, the Tide blocked three Golden Eagle kicks, including two field goals and one extra point. Matt Parker got the first block, while the last field goal was blocked by Darrell Blackburn.

OPPONENT BLOCKED A UA FIELD GOAL ATTEMPT—Memphis State's Dominic Calloway blocked Matt Wethington's first quarter 27-yard attempt in Alabama's 10-7 win over the Tigers on November 16, 1991. Against Auburn, also in 1991, Ricky Sutton blocked Wethington's fourth quarter 28-yard attempt.

UA BLOCKED A PUNT—On Nov. 12, 1994 against Mississippi State, Eric Turner blocked a Bulldog punt. It was the ninth blocked kick of the season for the Tide and the second for Turner.

OPPONENT BLOCKED A UA PUNT—Alabama had two punts blocked during the 1994 season, one against Florida in the SEC Championship game and another against Ohio State in the Citrus Bowl. Bryne Diehl was the punter on both. Florida blocked Diehl's punt with 4:18 left in the second quarter, while Ohio State blocked a punt with 10:01 remaining in the second quarter of that game.

UA HAD 800 YARDS IN OFFENSE—Alabama totaled a school record 833 yards in total offense (748 rushing, 85 passing) in a 77-6 rout of Virginia Tech Oct. 27, 1973.

UA HAD 600 YARDS IN OFFENSE—Alabama had 644 in the Tide's 32-16 win over LSU in 1989. Bama rushed for 387 and passed for 257 more.

OPPONENT HAD 600 YARDS IN OFFENSE—Ole Miss has 609 vs. the Tide in 1969 (436 through the air and 173 rushing). Alabama won 33-32 on Oct. 4, 1969 in a game played at Legion Field and nationally televised by ABC.

UA HAD 500 YARDS IN OFFENSE—Against Tulane on Oct. 10, 1992, Alabama totaled 573 total yards on 72 plays. The Tide rushed for 435 yards and passed for another 138.

OPPONENT HAD 500 YARDS IN OFFENSE—Louisville had 571 in the Fiesta Bowl, including 458 in the air and 113 on the ground. The last regular season foe to do it was Tennessee in a 41-34 win over Alabama Oct. 15, 1983. The Vols had 524 total yards, 232 on the ground, 292 in the air.

UA PASSED FOR 400 YARDS IN A GAME—Scott Hunter completed 30 of 55 passes for 484 yards in the Tide's 49-26 loss to Auburn on Nov. 29, 1969.

the 1991 Fiesta Bowl, Louisville completed 21 of 39 for 458 yards, en route to a 34-7 win. Starting quarterback Browning Nagle was 20 of 33 for 451 of those yards. In regular season play, Miss. State's Save Marler and Dwayne Brown hit 31 of 53 for 456 yards on Nov. 4, 1978. Marler was 28 of 46 for 429 in a 35-14 losing cause to Alabama.

UA PASSED FOR 300 YARDS IN A GAME—Alabama passed for over 300 yards in a game twice in 1994, first against Georgia (396) and then against Mississippi State (325). Quarterback Jay Barker pulled the trigger both times, hitting 26 of 37 and a pair of TDs against Georgia and then 26 of 35 and three TDs against the Bulldogs.

OPPONENT PASSED FOR 300 YARDS IN A

GAME—Southern Miss' Brett Favre was 18 of 41 for 300 yards even in a 37-14 Bama victory over the Golden Eagles Nov. 18, 1989 in Tuscaloosa.

UA RUSHED FOR 700 YARDS IN A GAME—The Tide amassed a school record 748 yards against Virginia Tech Oct. 27, 1973. Alabama won the game 77-6.

UA RUSHED FOR 500 YARDS IN A GAME—In a 38-3 victory against Miss. State on Nov. 1, 1986, Alabama racked up 514 rushing yards. Bobby Humphrey led the ground attack with 30 carries for 284 yards and three TD's.

UA RUSHED FOR 450 YARDS IN A GAME—On Sept. 20, 1980, Alabama gained 458 yards on the ground en route to a 59-35 defeat of Ole Miss in Jackson.

UA RUSHED FOR 400 YARDS IN A GAME—Eight Tide players combined for 435 yards on the ground against Tulane on Oct. 10, 1992. Derrick Lassie's 188 yards led Alabama's ground game.

OPPONENT RUSHED FOR 400 YARDS IN A

UA HAD LESS THAN 200 YARDS IN TOTAL

OFFENSE—On Oct. 8, 1994, the Tide had 67 yards rushing and 127 yards passing against Southern Mississippi to garner 194 yards total offense. Alabama still won the game, 14-6 at Homecoming in Bryant-Denny Stadium.

OPPONENT HAD LESS THAN 200 YARDS IN TOTAL OF-FENSE—On opening day, 1994, Alabama held Tennessee-Chattanooga to just 179 yards of total offense in a 42-13 victory. UTC managed 110 yards rushing and 69 yards passing.

UA PASSED FOR LESS THAN 100 YARDS IN A

GAME—Alabama managed just 88 yards passing on Sept. 10, 1994 against Vanderbilt. Quarterback Jay Barker hit on 9-of-15 passing for 88 yards and one TD.

OPPONENT PASSED FOR LESS THAN 100 YARDS—Tide opponents passed for less than 100 yards in a game three times in 1994. UTC (69), Arkansas (74) and Ole Miss (63) all threw for less than 100 yards. Ole Miss hit 8-of-16 for 63 yards and had one interception.

UA RUSHED FOR LESS THAN 100 YARDS—The Tide rushed for less than 100 yards three times in 1994, the last coming against Mississippi State. Alabama managed 46 yards on 39 carries in the 29-25 victory in Starkville.

OPPONENT PENALIZED FOR 100 YARDS—It happened once in 1994 when Southern Mississippi suffered 13 penalties for 142 yards.

OPPONENT PENALIZED FOR LESS THAN 20 YARDS—In the opening game of the 1994 season, Tennessee-Chattanooga had just one penalty for 11 yards.

The Southeastern Conference

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference stands ready to advance intercollegiate athletics into the 21st century.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC achieved both stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They have determined the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC.

Throughout its 63-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school will provide at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

Faced with the task of conference realignment after competing with 10 members since 1966, the SEC welcomed the University of Arkansas on Aug. 1, 1990, and the University of South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990. Joining charter members Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt, on July 1, 1991, Arkansas and South Carolina became the first schools added in conference history.

Fully incorporated into conference competition by 1992, Arkansas and South Carolina participated in SEC championships for all sports except football during the 1991-92 academic year. The SEC was again at the forefront, introducing football, basketball and baseball divisional play and the nation's first ever Division I football championship game.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another almost 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

Student teams from the schools began meeting in various sports with little pattern to their contests. The American adaptation of the English game rugby, called "football" was drifting down from the East and Midwest. Southerners were quickly attracted to this sport formalized in 1869.

The first football game in the Southeast was played April 9, 1880, on the ground now called Old Stoll Field at the University of Kentucky. Kentucky A&M (now UK) organized a team and in November 1881, played Transylvania College in a three-game series. By 1895 11 current SEC members were playing football.

Basketball moved quickly to the South as Vanderbilt was playing at the Nashville YMCA in 1893, just two years after Dr. James Naismith originated the game at Springfield (Mass.) College.

Track was organized on a conference level at the 1895 SIAA meeting presided over by President Dudley who served until his death in 1914. The first championship meet was held at Vanderbilt May 15, 1896. By 1900 eight of the 13 charter SEC members were participating.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 (Alabama, Auburn, Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer, Mississippi State, Nashville, North Carolina, Sewanee, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas, Tulane and Vanderbilt) and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920. Professor S.V. Sanford of Georgia called the meeting and served as the first president. Charter members of the Southern Conference included: Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee.

Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. In 1922 Florida, Louisiana State, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Virginia Military joined, while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928 respectively. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges from Virginia to Texas.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940; Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964; and Tulane on June 1, 1966.) McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents in Birmingham Feb. 16, 1933, then the first full meeting in Atlanta Feb. 27.

The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940. Conner later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee, served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

The office moved to Birmingham with the appointing of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure.

A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement April 1, 1966. The Alabama native, who was reared in Texas and experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and a half years.

Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia and secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon the retirement of Coleman Aug. 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced unparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $1.57 million and 14 years later (1986) the league distributed $15 million in revenue to the member institutions.

Dr. Harvey W. Schiller, an Air Force colonel and faculty chair at the U.S. Air Force Academy, followed McWhorter upon retirement, taking office Sept. 15, 1986. Under his guidance the SEC established itself as a leader in the areas of athletic scholarship and marketing.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller on Jan. 10, 1990. Kramer, who has served on numerous NCAA committees, joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletic director at Vanderbilt.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross-country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1953) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 10 women's sports: Men—baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor). Women—basketball, golf, gymnastics, soccer, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

SEC QUICK FACTS

- A total of 73,492,944 people watched the first three SEC Football Championship Games on ABC-TV. The 1994 title game earned a 10.5 rating, representing over 30 million viewers. It also marked the highest-rated college football telecast since the 1994 season.
- SEC member schools have combined for an unprecedented 267 bowl appearances, followed by the Pac-10 with 151 and the ACC with 138.
- In 11 of the past 15 seasons, no conference has posted a better non-conference regular-season winning percentage than the SEC. In 1994, the SEC again led the nation with a 27-8-1 mark (76%).

Alabama In The College Football Hall of Fame

Alabama All-America Ozzie Newsome became the newest member of the College Football Hall of Fame when he was inducted on Dec. 6, 1994 at ceremonies in New York. Newsome joins 11 other former collegiate stars and two coaches at the induction ceremonies.

Newsome becomes the 16th Alabama alum to be inducted, joining 13 former players and two Tide coaches who have been named to this prestigious national roster of college football superstar players and coaches.

JOHNNY MACK BROWN 1923-25 • Halfback Dothan, AL

BAMA CAREER

A two-year all-Southern Conference player, Brown is best remembered for his role in Alabama's 20-19 win over Washington in the 1926 Rose Bowl. He was on the receiving end of two long passes—a 58-yarder from Grant Gillis and a 62-yarder from Pooley Hubert—which fueled Bama to its victory. Inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1957, his performance in that '26 Rose Bowl earned him a spot on the all-time Rose Bowl team. Known as the "Dothan Antelope" during his playing days, he was the first of four brothers to play for the Tide. He died of a kidney disease Nov. 15, 1974 in Beverly Hills, Calif.

PAUL BRYANT 1933-35 • Right End Fordyce, AR

BAMA CAREER

Often forgotten in the legend of Paul Bryant was his prowess as a football player for the Crimson Tide in his 1933-35 career. Known as the other end because of the superstar status of Don Hutson, Bryant did not live in total anonymity. He was a second team All-SEC selection in 1934 and a third team choice in 1935. Only 11 players were picked to the squads back then and the SEC had 13 members instead of today's 12. Known for his unquestioned toughness, Bryant played in the 1935 Tennessee game with a broken leg, a contest won by Bama 25-0.

JOHNNY CAIN 1930-32 • Fullback Montgomery, AL • Sidney Lanier High School

BAMA CAREER

Known best as a powerful left-footed punter, Johnny "Hurricane" Cain was the only sophomore starter on Alabama's 1931 Rose Bowl Championship team. A two-time All-America selection, Cain was named to the all-time Alabama team and in 1973 he received the ultimate honor for a college football player when he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. His most famous game as a punter was against Tennessee, the 1932 game which was played in a driving rainstorm, when he punted 19 times for an average of 48 yards a punt. He was a three-time member of the All-Southern Conference team.

HARRY GILMER 1944-47 • Quarterback/Defensive Back Birmingham, AL

BAMA CAREER

One of the all-time football legends at Alabama, Harry Gilmer's deftness in passing, running, tackling, returning kicks and kicking highlighted an extraordinary career. An All-America and SEC Player of the Year in 1945, Harry was voted MVP of the Rose Bowl after leading Bama to a 34-14 victory over Southern California. His best game came against Kentucky when he rushed six times for 216 yards and completed two passes for 50 more. His 16 career interceptions rate as second-best in Alabama history, while his 436 punt return yards in 1946 are the best in Bama annals. Gilmer accounted for 52 touchdowns in his Crimson Tide career, an Alabama school record. In 1946, he led the team in passing, rushing, interceptions, punt returns and kickoff returns.

FRANK HOWARD 1928-30 • Guard Barlow Bend, AL

BAMA CAREER

During his playing days at the Capstone, Howard was known as the "Little Giant of the Tide's Herd of Red Elephants." Those were productive years for Bama, especially Howard's senior year when Alabama claimed a national title and defeated Washington State 24-0 in the Rose Bowl. Howard coached at Clemson from 1940-69 and while a head coach he compiled a record of 165-118-2. Clemson's football stadium is named after him. He was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

DIXIE HOWELL 1932-34 • Halfback Hartford, AL

BAMA CAREER

In the first two years of the Southeastern Conference's existence, Millard Howell, better known as Dixie, led Alabama to a pair of conference titles and one national championship. An All-America choice in 1934, he is best remembered for his record-setting performance in Alabama's 29-13 win over Stanford in the 1935 Rose Bowl. He rushed for 111 yards, completed nine of 13 passes for 160 more, and punted six times for a 43.8 average. He was elected to the college football Hall of Fame in 1970 and to the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1993.

POOLEY HUBERT 1922-25 • Quarterback Meridian, MS

BAMA CAREER

The second All-American football player in the school's history, he was a four-year letterman on Alabama teams that had a combined record of 31-6-2, including a 1925 squad that went unbeaten and made the Tide's first bowl appearance. He quarterbacked Alabama to the first of six Rose Bowl appearances and led the Tide to a 20-19 victory over

Washington. Alabama fell behind 12-0 but Hubert rallied the Tide by scoring one TD and passing to Johnny Mack Brown for another. He was elected to the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1964.

DON HUTSON 1932-34 • End Pine Bluff, AR • Pine Bluff High School

BAMA CAREER

In an era when statistics were not vogue, Don Hutson, Bama's receiver, established himself among college football's legends in the 1935 Rose Bowl game when he caught six passes for 165 yards and scored twice on passes of 59 and 54 in the Tide's 29-13 win over Stanford. Voted to the all-time college football team in 1969 and to Sports Illustrated's Silver

Anniversary Team, Hutson left the Capstone to become the NFL's first superstar receiver while playing for the Green Bay Packers. His college coach Frank Thomas said of Hutson, "He was the best player I ever coached." Hutson, who came to Alabama on a partial baseball scholarship, also starred as a sprinter on the Tide's track team during his Bama career. He was selected to the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1993.

BAMA CAREER

A two-time All-America for the Crimson Tide, Lee Roy Jordan is considered the best inside linebacker in Alabama football history. Voted Alabama's Player of the Decade for the 1960s and to the ESPN all-time college football team in 1989, Jordan was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1983. During his career, Alabama compiled a 29-2-2 record and will forever be remembered for his unforgettable Orange Bowl performance against Oklahoma on New Year's Day, 1963. In that 17-0 Alabama triumph, Jordan was credited with 31 tackles.

VAUGHN MANCHA 1944-47 • Center Birmingham, AL • Ramsay High School

BAMA CAREER

Vaughn Mancha earned the starting assignment at center in his first college game as a freshman against LSU in 1944. He never relinquished his spot and went on to a career that earned him a spot in the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1990. He was a consensus All-American pick in 1945, a year in which the Tide posted a perfect 10-0 record and beat Southern California 34-14 in the Rose Bowl. During his career, he also played in a pair of Sugar Bowls.

OZZIE NEWSOME 1974-77 • Split End Leighton, AL

BAMA CAREER

Voted Alabama's Player of the Decade for the 1970s, Ozzie made 102 receptions for 2,070 yards and 16 touchdowns during his Alabama playing career. He averaged 20.3 yards per catch, still the SEC's best mark on a minimum of 100 receptions, as the Tide went 42-6 during his career. Ozzie started 47 consecutive games and helped the Tide to win three Southeastern Conference championships. He also returned punts, averaging 7.5 yards per return on 40 returns. He went on to a 13-year NFL career, where he started 176 of 182 games for the Cleveland Browns.

FRED SINGTON

1928-30 • Tackle

Birmingham, AL • Phillips High School

BAMA CAREER

A consensus All-American and Phi Beta Kappa choice as well, Sington capped his brilliant career by leading the Tide to a perfect season in 1930 capped by a 24-0 win over Washington State in the Rose Bowl. Elected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1955, Sington was such a dominant lineman legendary Notre Dame coach Knute Rockne called him, "the greatest lineman in the country." Also a standout baseball player, Sington played professional baseball for the Washington Senators.

RILEY SMITH

1934-35 • Quarterback

Columbus, MS

BAMA CAREER

A converted fullback, a position he played in 1933, he quarterbacked Alabama in 1934-35 and won All-American honors. He also won the Jacobs Award, given annually to the SEC's best blocker. Still considered one of the best blockers in Alabama football history, he came back from an injury to lead the Tide to impressive wins over Georgia (17-7) and Tennessee (25-0) in his senior year. In the win over the Vols, he threw for one touchdown and ran for another. He was selected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1985.

FRANK THOMAS

1931-46 • Head Coach

Muncie, IN

BAMA CAREER

Frank Thomas followed Wallace Wade as head coach at Alabama, being named to the position in January, 1931. A 1923 graduate of Notre Dame where he played for the legendary Knute Rockne, Thomas compiled a 115-24-7 (81.2%) as the head coach of the Crimson Tide. Six of his teams appeared in major bowls, including three Rose Bowl tilts and two of his teams were crowned national champions. He had four undefeated teams, including his 1934 and 1945 squads which won Rose Bowl championships. Among the players he coached at Alabama were Don Hutson, Dixie Howell, Riley Smith, Harry Gilmer, Vaughn Mancha, Johnny Cain, and Paul Bryant.

WALLACE WADE

1923-30 • Head Coach

BAMA CAREER

Under Wallace Wade's tutelage, Alabama football was established as a national power. During his eight year coaching tenure, the Crimson Tide compiled a 61-13-3 record and won three national championships. In 1925, he led the Tide to an undefeated record and to its first bowl game, a trip to Pasadena to play Washington in the Rose Bowl. Alabama won 20-19, clinching a first national title and forever establishing the Crimson Tide among the nation's football powers.

Alabama also appeared in the 1927 and 1931 Rose Bowls under Wade. After Alabama beat Washington State 24-0 on January 1, 1931, Wade left the Capstone for Duke. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1955. Wade died October 6, 1986.

DON WHITMIRE

Decatur, AL

BAMA CAREER

An All-America tackle for the Crimson Tide, he helped the Tide to a 9-2-0 season in 1941 and an 8-3 mark in 1942, including a 37-21 win over Boston College in the Orange Bowl. He was later chosen to the all-time Orange Bowl squad. After the 1942 season, he moved to Annapolis and the Naval Academy. He was awarded the Knute Rockne Trophy, signifying him as being the nation's best lineman in 1943. He rose to greater heights in the Navy, advancing to the rank of admiral. He was chosen to the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1956. Whitmire died May 4, 1991.

Crimson Tiders in Alabama Sports Hall of Fame

Since Alabama Sports Hall of Fame had its first induction class in 1969, the University of Alabama has had 64 inductees into the ASHoF. Former Alabama Players in Pro Football Hall of Fame

When former Alabama lineman Dwight Stephenson was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame this past summer, he became the fifth Alabama player to be so honored.

He joined former Tide greats Don Hutson (1963), Bart Starr (1977), Joe Namath (1985) and John Hannah (1991) as inductees into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Stephenson, who enjoyed a lengthy pro career with the Miami Dolphins where he was selected at the NFL Man of the Year, was an All-America and All-SEC choice in 1979. He was voted as the center on the team of the decade for the 1970's and was the center on Alabama's All-Century squad.

National Honors

Cornelius Bennett 1986 Vince Lombardi Award Winner

Cornelius Bennett (97) in action was a three-time All-America and earned the Lombardi Trophy in 1986.

Three-time All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett was named recipient of the prestigious Vince Lombardi Award signifying the nation's Most Outstanding Lineman for 1986. Bennett received the award on December 4, 1986 in Houston, Texas from General Pete Dawkins, former Heisman and Maxwell Award winner.

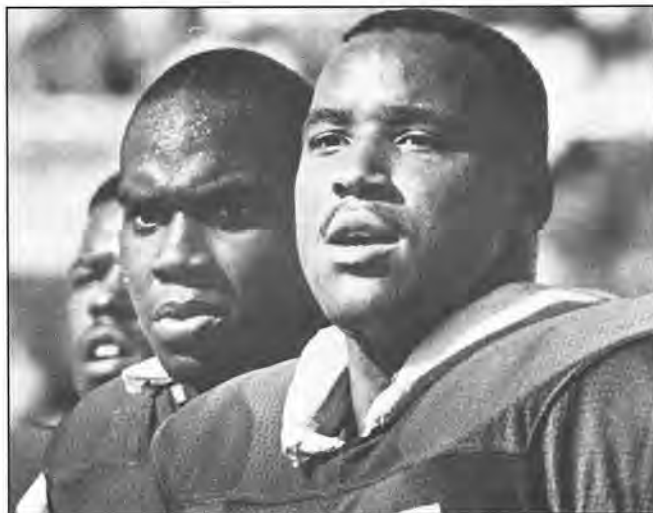

The Lombardi Award is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Houston, and was first awarded in 1970. The finalists along with Bennett were Brian Bosworth of Oklahoma, Jerome Brown of Miami (Fla.), and Chris Spielman of Ohio State.

Other Alabama finalists have included John Hannah (1972), E.J. Junior (1980), and Derrick Thomas (1988).

Derrick Thomas 1988 Dick Butkus Award Winner

Derrick Thomas, whose 27 sacks in 1988 and 54 for a career established Alabama records that may stand for generations, was named the winner of the Butkus Trophy, symbolic of the nation's outstanding linebacker, December 5, 1988, in Orlando, Fla.

Thomas, in accepting the award from Butkus, became the fourth official recipient of this honor, and the first player from the Southeastern Conference so honored.

Derrick Thomas and Cornelius Bennett in 1986.

National Honors

Antonio Langham 1993 Thorpe Award Winner

Antonio Langham set the Alabama career interception record and won the Thorpe Award in 1993.

Antonio Langham, the Tide's all-time career interception leader, was honored at the end of his collegiate career by being named the 1993 Thorpe Award winner, symbolic of the nation's best defensive back. Picked by the Football Writers Association of America, Antonio was the first Alabama player so honored. He closed his career with 19 interceptions, 141 tackles, six stops behind the line for 18 yards and two blocked kicks. He returned three interceptions for touchdowns. Perhaps the most memorable was the one against Florida in the inaugural SEC Championship game in 1992 which he returned for a touchdown.

Jay Barker 1994 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award

Jay Barker became the Tide's all-time leading passer in 1994 when he closed out his collegiate career by winning the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award. As a senior, Jay was also a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Outstanding College Quarterback award, finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting, was the Nashville Banner and Birmingham News SEC Player of the Year and was named to numerous All-America teams. Jay finished as Alabama's career leader in eight offensive categories and quarterbacked the Tide to a 45-5-1 career record, the most wins ever by an Alabama senior class. Barker produced a 35-2-1 record as a starting quarterback.

Jay Barker was the 1994 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award recipient.

Quarterback Brian Burgdorf was WTBS' scholarship winner in the 1993 Gator Bowl.

Alabama's TV Scholarship Winners

Seventy-eight times, University of Alabama football players have been named the outstanding offensive and defensive player of the game in Chevrolet's special $1,000 scholarship program on ABC-TV and CBS-TV telecasts.

The program, which provides money for the school's general scholarship fund, began in 1971. In each case, a scholarship is awarded to the school in the athlete's name.

Over the years, almost $75,000 has been won by Crimson Tide athletes for the University's overall scholarship program. None of the money is used in any form for athletics.

1971	QB	Terry Davis, LSU (ABC)	1987	TB	Bobby Humphrey, Penn State (CBS); LSU (ESPN); Michigan (NBC)
	LB	Jeff Rouzie, LSU (ABC)		QB	Jeff Dunn, Tennessee (ESPN)

■ 1995 NFL Draft of Alabama Players

A total of five Crimson Tide players were selected in the 1995 NFL draft. Sherman Williams, who finished his career fifth on the Alabama career rushing list, was the first Tide player taken. Williams was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the second round with the 46th pick. The Cincinnati Bengals chose defensive back Sam Shade with the 102nd overall pick in the fourth round. Defensive lineman Darnell Jeffries was another fourth-round choice. Jeffries went to the New Orleans Saints and was the 108th overall selection. Alabama's winningest quarterback, Jay Barker, was the draft's 160th pick, chosen by the Green Bay Packers in the fifth round. The New York Giants drafted punter Bryne Diehl in the seventh round with the 225th overall selection.

Five other players joined teams as free agents. Defensive back Tommy Johnson signed with the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars, offensive lineman Jon Stevenson with the Indianapolis Colts, defensive back Willie Gaston with the Houston Oilers, linebacker Andre Royal with the Cleveland Browns, and fullback Tarrant Lynch with the Miami Dolphins.

1995 Alabama Football Trivia

DON HUTSON

Don Hutson

The June 1994 issue of Inside Sports magazine rated the top 20 football players of all-time, and once again, Don Hutson's name was near the top. Hutson, who lettered at Alabama from 1932-34 and played for the Green Bay Packers from 1935-45, was listed as the fourth-best football player in history.

In his 11 seasons in the NFL, Hutson caught 488 passes, which were 300 more receptions than the next-best receiver in that era. He led the league in receiving eight times and was the league's leading scorer five times. Hutson's NFL record of 99 career touchdown receptions lasted 44 years before being broken.

Inside Sports said of Hutson, "In terms of how he rates next to his contemporaries, the Green Bay Packers receiver was the most dominant player in football history — and maybe in all of sports."

The Stallings Center Home of the Rise Program

On Dec. 9, 1993, the Campaign for Alabama reached one of its goals: $1,600,000 for a new home for the RISE Program. Pete Hanna, chairman and CEO of Hanna Steel, Inc., completed the goal by announcing a gift of $1,000,000 in honor of coach Gene Stallings and his family, who have been widely admired and recognized for their work with families of individuals with disabilities and support programs such as RISE. The Stallings Center will enable RISE to serve 100 children, a 30 percent increase the out-reach capacity. Features of the Stallings Center include:

- Six classrooms equipped with state-of-the-art equipment and technology for learning and play
- A commons accommodating special events and active indoor play
- A library to provide areas for children to enjoy pre-literacy activities and for adults to access information

- An evaluation center to provide a quiet location for children to receive developmental evaluations

RISE is a twenty-year-old service, research and training program at the University focusing on infants, toddlers and preschoolers who have identifiable disabilities or who may be considered at risk for developing disabilities. The RISE acronym originally stood for Rural Infant Stimulation Environment.

The program integrates children with cerebral palsy, Down syndrome, spina bifida and other developmental disabilities with non-disabled peers.

Most children attend this twelve-month program five days per week, six hours per day and are provided with an early childhood educational program, speech therapy, occupational therapy and physical therapy.

THE ALABAMA-AUBURN SERIES

Just about everyone knows of the rich history and tradition associated with the Alabama-Auburn series, but some people may not be aware that the rivalry was discontinued for more than 40 years in the first half of the century. A few seemingly minor disagreements between the teams resulted in the series being canceled in 1908 and not resumed until the 1948 season.

Though there are myths about fighting and other violence necessitating a dismissal of the series, the truth is that the only problems between the teams emerged over the referee and per diem money for the players.

In winning the 1906 game, Alabama used an offensive formation that Auburn coach Mike Donahue declared to be illegal. After Alabama implemented a similar formation again in 1907, Auburn insisted that their next meeting be officiated by an umpire from outside of the South. Alabama thought this request to be ludicrous, and that became the first matter of disagreement between the two schools.

The second conflict, which was over per diems, essentially amounted to 33 dollars. Each team was allowed 22 players on its roster. Auburn wanted each player to receive $3.50, while Alabama thought the amount should be only two dollars.

After arguing for several months over these two matters, the teams finally reached a compromise and decided to play in 1908. By this point, however, their schedules had been set for the season, and neither team's opponents were willing to move. Alabama suggested playing the game after Thanksgiving, but Auburn's Board of Trustees would not allow their team to play beyond the holiday.

Thus, the game was not played in 1908, and it was not placed on the schedule for the following year. Attempts to revive the game in 1911, 1919, 1932 and 1944 all failed. Finally, in the spring of 1948, behind the initiative of Alabama president John Gallilee, an agreement was reached to resume the series in Birmingham that fall.

Prior to the game, student body presidents Gillis Cammock of Alabama and Willie Johns of Auburn participated in a symbolic "burying of the hatchet" ceremony at Woodrow Wilson Park in Birmingham. The two teams rekindled the rivalry at Legion Field on December 4, 1948, with Alabama winning easily, 55-0.

■ Over 200 Yards In A Game

Only five players in Alabama football history have rushed for over 200 yards in a game. The Tide's all-time leading rusher, Bobby Humphrey, did it four times, while Bobby Marlow (233), Johnny Musso (221), Harry Gilmer (216) and Siran Stacy (211), accomplished the feat once. Humphrey had 284 yards rushing against Mississippi State on Nov. 1, 1986; 220 vs. Penn State on Sept. 12, 1987; 217 vs. Tennessee on Oct. 18, 1986 and 204 vs. Auburn on Nov. 29, 1986. Humphrey also holds the Alabama record for most career 100-yards games with 16. Siran Stacy, Johnny Musso and Bobby Marlow are next with nine each.

■ Alabama and Sports Illustrated

After the University of Alabama football team captured its 12th national championship in 1992, with an impressive 34-13 win over the undefeated and defending national champion Miami Hurricanes, Sports Illustrated decided to try something different to attract more readers from the state of Alabama.

For the first time in SI history, a special commemorative issue was printed recapping Alabama's undefeated season. The special commemorative issue came after a re-issue of the Jan. 10, 1993 edition, which featured Tide halfback Derrick Lassic on the cover.

The reprint of the Jan. 10, 1993 issue with Lassic, and the special commemorative issue, which featured Tide head coach Gene Stallings, sold over 880,000 copies in the state of Alabama, which translates to 21.4 percent of the population of the state of Alabama.

The two issues featuring Lassic and Stallings now give Alabama a place on 41 different Sports Illustrated covers. Of those 41 covers, 12 feature Crimson Tide players in Alabama uniforms. An additional 29 covers feature Crimson Tide alumni on the professional sports scene.

Below is a complete listing of all University of Alabama athletes who have appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated magazine. The magazines listed in boldface came while that particular person was at the University of Alabama.

Gene Stallings' victory ride following the 1992 national championship was the last chronicled by Sports Illustrated.

■ Football's Origin at Alabama

"Mr. W. G. Little, of Livingston, Ala., was the first man to introduce football at the University. Mr. Little had been a student at Andover, Mass., and went to the University [of Alabama] carrying his uniform and a great bag of enthusiasm for the game in 1892. A number of students joined in with him in the season beginning in October of that year."—Crimson White (Student Paper), Nov. 25, 1926.

Alabama's first game was played in Birmingham on Friday afternoon, Nov. 11, 1892, at the old Lakeview Park. Opposition was furnished by a picked team from Professor Taylor's school and Birmingham high schools, with Alabama winning, 56-0. Early teams were a bit tougher than current squads, it seems, as the following afternoon Alabama played the Birmingham Athletic Club, losing 5-4 when Ross, of B.A.C., kicked a 65-yard field goal. Impossible though it may seem, this field goal was listed as a collegiate record at one time and Birmingham papers of the day featured its distance in writeups of the game.

The gridiron sport rapidly caught the students' fancy and the game became a favorite with University athletes. In 1896 the University's board of trustees passed a rule forbidding athletic teams from traveling off the campus. The following season only one game was played and in 1898 football was abandoned at Alabama. Student opposition to the ruling was so strong that the trustees lifted the travel ban and football was resumed in 1899, to continue without interruption until the first World War forced cancellation of the 1918 games.

Alabama first gained national recognition in 1922 when the University of Pennsylvania was defeated, 9-7, in Philadelphia. The following season Wallace Wade became head coach and in 1925 led the Crimson Tide to its first undefeated and untied season and its first Rose Bowl invitation. On Jan. 1, 1926, an unheralded, underrated team from Tuscaloosa came from behind to upset Washington, 20-19, in the Rose Bowl and established a precedent of colorful play that Crimson Tide teams have continued to uphold.

■ How The "Crimson Tide" Got Its Name

In early newspaper accounts of Alabama football, the team was simply listed as the "varsity" or the "Crimson White" after the school colors. The first nickname to become popular and used by headline writers was the "Thin Red Line." The nickname was used until 1906. The name "Crimson Tide" is supposed to have first been used by Hugh Roberts, former sports editor of the Birmingham Age-Herald. He used "Crimson Tide" in describing an Alabama-Auburn game played in Birmingham in 1907, the last football contest between the two schools until 1948 when the series was resumed. The game was played in a sea of mud and Auburn was a heavy favorite to win. But, evidently, the "Thin Red Line" played a great game in the red mud and held Auburn to a 6-6 tie, thus gaining the name "Crimson Tide." Zipp Newman, former sports editor of the Birmingham News, probably popularized the name more than any other writer.

■ The Elephant Story

The story of how Alabama became associated with the "elephant" goes back to the 1930 season when Coach Wallace Wade had assembled a great football team.

On October 8, 1930, sports writer Everett Strupper of the Atlanta Journal wrote a story of the Alabama-Mississippi game he had witnessed in Tuscaloosa four days earlier. Strupper wrote, "That Alabama team of 1930 is a typical Wade machine, powerful, big, tough, fast, aggressive, well-schooled in fundamentals, and the best blocking team for this early in the season that I have ever seen. When those big brutes hit you I mean you go down and stay down, often for an additional two minutes.

"Coach Wade started his second team that was plenty big and they went right to their knitting scoring a touchdown in the first quarter against one of the best fighting small lines that I have seen. For Ole Miss was truly battling the big boys for every inch of ground.

"At the end of the quarter, the earth started to tremble, there was a distant rumble that continued to grow. Some excited fan in the stands bellowed, 'Hold your horses, the elephants are coming,' and out stamped this Alabama varsity.

"It was the first time that I had seen it and the size of the entire eleven nearly knocked me cold, men that I had seen play last year looking like they had nearly doubled in size."

Strupper and other writers continued to refer to the Alabama linemen as "Red Elephants," the color referring to the crimson jerseys.

The 1930 team posted an overall 10-0 record. It shut out eight opponents and allowed only 13 points all season while scoring 217. The "Red Elephants" rolled over Washington State 24-0 in the Rose Bowl and were declared National Champions.

Alabama 20, Washington 19

ROSE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1926

PASADENA, Calif.—Trailing 12-0 at halftime, Coach Wallace Wade's Alabama team battled back in the second half to capture a thrilling 20-19 win over Washington in the Crimson Tide's first bowl outing. It was a game that is still remembered as one of the all-time finest and the Tide victory brought new and permanent respect from all sections for Southern football.

Washington's great halfback, George Wilson, was everything he had been billed as being. He carried the ball for 134 yards, completed five passes for 77 yards and two touchdowns. But Alabama put him out of the game for 22 minutes with injuries and it was during those 22 minutes that the Crimson Tide scored all of its points.

Wilson missed the third quarter, and that's when Alabama scored its 20 points, all in seven minutes. First it was Pooley Hubert scoring from the one with Bill Buckler kicking the point after. After holding Washington and forcing a punt, Grant Gillis faded back from his own 41 and found Johnny Mack Brown at the Husky 25.

"All I had to do was sidestep one man and I was across," remembers Brown.

A fumble gave Alabama another chance at the Washington 30. On first down Hubert told Brown to run as fast as he could for the goal. "When I reached the three, I looked around," says Brown. "Sure enough, the ball was coming down over my shoulder. I took it in stride, used my stiff arm on one man and went over carrying somebody. The place was really in an uproar."

Washington scored a final time in the fourth quarter, but they couldn't overcome Bama's lead. And Alabama was off and running to Bowl history.

ALABAMA	0	0	20	0	—	20
WASHINGTON	6	6	0	7	—	19

ALABAMA—Touchdowns: Hubert (1, right guard), J.M. Brown 2 (59, pass from Gillis of 34, run of 25; 30, pass from Hubert of 27, run of 3). Points after touchdown: Buckler 2.

WASHINGTON—Touchdowns: Patton (1, left tackle), Cole (20, pass from Wilson), Guttormsen (27, pass from Wilson of 17, run of 10). Point after touchdown: Cook.

Alabama 7, Stanford 7

ROSE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1927

PASADENA, Calif.—Wallace Wade was invited to return with Alabama for the 1927 renewal after another perfect season. His great backs of 1925 were gone and he was not wealthy in reserves.

It was a team with some unusually colorful nicknames: for example, Lovely Barnes, Goofy Bowdoin, Snake Vines and Rosy Caldwell.

The bowl was packed with 57,417. Gross receipts were $218,047—the highest ever. Approximately $100,000 was refunded.

Stanford scored first, George Bogue passed five yards to end Ed Walker, who ran the remaining 15 yards for a touchdown. Bogue then kicked the point after and Stanford held its 7-0 first quarter lead until the final period.

With just four minutes to go, Alabama blocked a Stanford punt with center Clarke (Babe) Pearce leaping through to deflect the ball. Bama took over on the Stanford 14.

Into the game went 170-pound Jimmy Johnson at halfback. A dislocated shoulder had prevented him from playing much. First it was Wu Winslett getting three yards, then Johnson knifing forward for seven. Winslett smashed to the one. Then Johnson banged into right guard, the resistance crumpling under his charge. It was 7 to 6 now. A ruse was coming up next.

As the teams lined up for the crucial extra point attempt with the crowd respectfully hushed, Captain Emile Barnes barked signals. Suddenly someone shouted "signals off." Stanford's forewall stood at ease in anticipation of another signal sequence. At that moment center Gordon Holmes snapped the ball to Winslett who touched it down. Unrushed and with plenty of time, Herschel Caldwell smoothly kicked it through the posts and over the bar.

The 7 to 7 game ended three plays later.

STANFORD	7	0	0	0	—	7

ALABAMA—Touchdown: Johnson (1, right guard). Point after touchdown: Caldwell.

STANFORD—Touchdown: Walker (20, pass from Bogue of 5, run of 15). Point after touchdown: Bogue.

Alabama 24, Washington State 0

ROSE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1931

PASADENA, Calif.—This was Wallace Wade's last Alabama team before he left for Duke and it typified the personality of the coldly efficient strategist. Alabama crushed Washington State, 24-0, before 60,000.

Wade announced on New Year's Eve that he planned to start his second team. The writers were incredulous. But Wade, who felt Alabama was two touchdowns better, meant it and in fact did open with his second unit.

The Cougars held the upper hand most of the first quarter but didn't come close to scoring. Late in the period Wade inserted his first string and things began to pop.

After 13 straight plays on the ground, from its own 39, Bama's left end Jimmy Moore returned and sped into his own backfield. He received the ball from fullback John Cain, took a few more steps and spiraled a long pass downfield. Left halfback John (Flash) Suther, galloping at high speed, gathered it in smoothly on the Washington State 22. In a flash he was in the end zone.

Bama center Jess Eberdt intercepted a Cougar pass on the WSU 47. Moore again passed, hitting end Ben Smith on the Cougar one. Monk Campbell powered in for the score.

Lightning struck quickly the next time Alabama got the ball. Campbell, on a beautifully setup fake to Moore, shot through left guard. He wriggled free of a State man's clutches and bolted 43 yards to score. These 21 points had come within a stretch of six minutes of the second quarter.

Wade's second team was on the field in the third quarter when the final points were registered. Guard J. B. (Ears) Whitworth, later head coach at Alabama, kicked a field goal from the 30.

Alabama 29, Stanford 13

ROSE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1935

PASADENA, Calif.—“Dixie Howell, the human howitzer from Hartford, Ala., blasted the Rose Bowl dreams of Stanford today with one of the greatest all-around exhibitions football has ever known,” was the lead written by all-time great Grantland Rice.

Alabama blasted Stanford, 29-13, with Howell teaming with the incomparable pass catching end, Don Hutson, to electrify the crowd of 84,474 with a 22-point second quarter outbreak.

In those 15 minutes Alabama amassed 150 yards on passes and another 106 on the ground. Howell himself gained 96 yards in the air on four completions to Hutson and three more to end Paul (Bear) Bryant. Dixie also ran 96 yards, including a sensational 67-yard spring for a touchdown.

Alabama had the ball for four plays in the first quarter and made four yards. Stanford recovered a Tide fumble on the 27 yard line and drove for a score with Bobby Grayson pounding right tackle for the final foot.

Howell scored from the five early in the second quarter to tie the game. Stanford, though, chose to kickoff to show Bama's scoring was a fluke. Four more pass completions by Hutson brought Alabama to the Stanford six. On fourth down Hutson held while Riley Smith kicked a 22-yard field goal. Now it was 9-7, and Stanford still refused to believe the mounting evidence, kicking off again.

Two plays later Howell swung to his right. Smith leveled Stanford star Grayson with a hard block. As the Stanford secondary closed in, Dixie swerved for the sidelines and cut across the field diagonally. He ran 67 yards. The crowd was on its feet, agog at this masterly piece of speed and maneuvering.

Stanford received this time, but on second down Riley Smith intercepted for Bama. Coach Frank Thomas inserted Tilden (Happy) Campbell, a conservative quarterback, to replace the daring Smith with orders to play it safe and stick on the ground. Only eight seconds were left in the half. What Thomas didn't know was that Smith told his teammates, just before going to the sidelines, “I've called the play. Make it good.”

They did. Joe Riley, who took Howell's place after the long run, flung a long pass to Hutson, who was in the clear and scored easily from 54 yards.

The Howell to Hutson battery was quiescent until the early part of the fourth quarter. From the Alabama 41 it struck. Don caught Dixie's long spiral on the Stanford 30 and whizzed for his second touchdown.

Howell left the field late in the game after a 52-yard punt with his ears ringing to the noisiest ovation ever given a visiting player on a California gridiron. He had gained 111 yards running, 160 yards passing (nine completions in 12 attempts) and had punted six times for an average of 43.8 yards.

“No team in the history of football, anywhere, anytime, has passed the ball as Alabama passed it today,” wrote Ralph McGill in the Atlanta Constitution. “And no man ever passed as did Dixie Howell, the swift sword of the Crimson attack.”

California 13, Alabama 0

ROSE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1938

PASADENA, Calif.—Frank Thomas' 1937 Alabama team was not one of his best, but none was better coached or accomplished quite so much with what it had.

The Crimson Tide experienced several close calls. Sandy Sanford literally kicked his team to Pasadena. In the game with Tulane, Sanford booted a late fourth-quarter field goal of 32 yards when Alabama had only six men on the line of scrimmage. The illegal formation was undetected by officials. The Tide won, 9-6. Sanford beat Vanderbilt 9-7 with another late-game field goal.

In the Rose Bowl, there was no opportunity for Sanford's heroics. Alabama was subdued 13-0.

California, coached by Leonard B. (Stub) Allison, demonstrated too much power and speed, better balance, and some exceptionally skilled and rugged players in center Bob Herwig, end Perry Schwartz, quarterback Johnny Meek, guard Vard Stockton, and halfback Sam Chapman, the latter soon to become a major league outfielder.

But the star of the game was Vic Bottari, a junior tailback who started his career as a virtual nonentity on the Golden Bear squad. Bottari scored both touchdowns against Alabama on almost identical plays in the second and third quarters, quick, well-escorted trips around right end of three and five yards respectively.

California punched over touchdown No. 1 to culminate a 63-yard 12-play land march. Alabama couldn't check driving, brutal power smashes accompanied by paralyzing blocking. The Bears hammered out No. 2, pushing the Tide 48 yards in nine whacks in much the same fashion. No passes were thrown on this scoring sweep as well.

Alabama lost the ball on fumbles four times and suffered four pass interceptions. One scoring opportunity was muffed on the California 1 and another on the 6, both on fumbles. The Bears tackled with crunching, stunning force.

“It was a heartbreaker,” said Alabama captain Leroy Monsky. “I still try to blank it from my mind.”

A check for $104,129.94 from gross receipts of $293,372.61 helped to ease some of the grief felt by the Alabama party.

COTTON BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1942

DALLAS, Texas—It wasn't a very festive atmosphere, since most of the nation was thinking about World War II, but Alabama's opportunist Crimson Tide whipped Texas A&M 29 to 21 under very bizarre circumstances.

The Tide made only one first down. A&M had 13. Bama picked up only 75 yards total offense, as opposed to 309 for the Aggies. The Tiders clicked on just one pass while A&M completed 13 and Bama ran just 32 plays as opposed to 79 by the Texans.

Yet the Tide led 29-7 midway in the fourth quarter, held off an Aggie rush at the end and wound up with one of the most amazing bowl wins ever.

The significant statistics were seven Alabama pass interceptions and five fumble recoveries, for a total of 12 turnovers against A&M.

A&M scored first, Chal Daniels passing to Bob Crowley. Later in the second quarter Daniels fumbled and Don Whitmire recovered on the Aggie 24. Jimmie Nelson passed to Holt Rast for 16. Two passes failed. On a no-shift play, Nelson reversed to Russ Craft for an eight-yard score.

In the third quarter Nelson returned a punt 72 yards to put Bama ahead. In the same quarter Nelson punted to Daniels who fumbled, with Sam Sharpe grabbing it for the Tide on the A&M 21. Nelson quickly scored, romping 21 yards around right end.

In the final period another A&M interception put Alabama in business on the Aggie 17. George Hecht wound up kicking a 31-yard field goal to make it 23-7.

Alabama's final score was another unique play. A&M had the ball and Derence Moser passed, had it tipped into hands of Holt Rast who jogged 10 yards into the end zone. It was 29-7. The Aggies scored twice in the fourth quarter to narrow the gap, but the alert Tidemen won the only statistical battle that counted—the score.

Alabama 37, Boston College 21

ORANGE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1943

MIAMI, Fla.—Stung by two first quarter Boston college touchdowns, Alabama's All-American center Joe Domnanovich called his team into a huddle as they awaited a kickoff. "Don't give up," he said, simply but firmly. "We haven't had a chance to go with the ball yet. We're going to receive and we're going to run them into the ground."

Twenty minutes later, at halftime, Alabama was in front, 22 to 21, and won the game, 37 to 21.

Mike Holovak, the Eagles' swift-striding right halfback, scored on runs of 65 and 35 yards to put Boston College in front early. Then Bama went to work.

Russ Craft, Dave Brown, Johnny August and Russ Mosley tore off big chunks of turf and the Eagle defense caved in. Bobby Tom Jenkins raced 40 yards for one score. Boston College made a comeback effort and went ahead 21-19 just before halftime but George Hecht booted a 25-yard field goal to put Bama on top, 22-21 at intermission. The Tide added 15 more points in the second half.

Wheeler Leeth scored on a 14-yard pass from Mosley, Ted Cook grabbed a 17-yard scoring aerial from August, Jenkins scored twice on runs of 40 and one, and August faked a pass and ran around right end for a 15 yard score. Hecht kicked a field goal and two extra points and Domnanovich even put two points on the board by tackling an Eagle in the end zone for a safety.

The Boston press treated the game from an unbiased standpoint.

Bill Cullingham, widely respected columnist for the Boston Post, wrote, "When you're beaten as clearly and as splendidly as was Boston College today, the only thing to do is stand and salute as the victors go by. It was a fine game, played in the truest tradition of sportsmanship, brilliantly won and gallantly lost in a magnificent setting, so in taste with the times that none who saw it will ever forget it."

Duke 29, Alabama 26

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1945

NEW ORLEANS, La.—If you said the 1945 Sugar Bowl game was charged with drama every minute, it wouldn't be much of an exaggeration.

The lead changed hands four times. The outcome was uncertain until the last second. The heart-throbbing finish pulled 72,000 people out of their seats.

In the last analysis, it was the power and experience of Duke's Navy trainees that prevailed over Alabama's inspired wartime civilian group, 29 to 26.

After watching Harry Gilmer, Alabama's 18-year-old freshman tailback, complete eight out of eight passes despite the rushing of a hard-charging line, Grantland Rice called him "the greatest college passer I ever saw."

Gilmer hit the tough Duke line hard for important gains and made many tackles, personally downing the Blue Devil ball carrier after every kickoff.

One pass in particular stood out. Forced far back, Harry tripped over one Duke man. Two more Blue Devils got a piece of him. Suddenly, he broke loose for an instant, leaped high, and whipped the ball 41 yards to Ralph Jones, a big end.

In bowl history never has one so young performed so brilliantly.

On the last play he fired another long pass to Jones, who just missed going for a touchdown on a 33-yard gainer to Duke's 25.

Duke led early, 7 to 0. Halfback George Clark ran 52 yards on the first play from scrimmage. He scored on a 14-yard bolt up the middle.

Gilmer's aerial craft set up three Crimson Tide touchdowns before Duke could score again, making it 19 to 13 at halftime.

Duke fullback Tom Davis carried ten straight times on a 64-yard thrust in the third quarter. It wound up with Davis scoring his second touchdown. Now it was 20 to 19, Duke.

Alabama threw back the Blue Devils on the Tide 12 early in the fourth period. But they surged forward again. This time Hugh Morrow stepped in front of Gordon Carver and intercepted Cliff Lewis' pass. Morrow moved 75 yards at top speed. With his conversion it became 26 to 20, Alabama.

Duke took the kickoff and wasn't stopped until the goal line was a yard away.

Three minutes remained. Coach Frank Thomas decided on a calculated risk. He sent in orders to give up two points through an intentional safety. Thomas hoped for a long high punt from the 20 by John Wade, who would have plenty of time. He hoped also for good coverage and a resolute defense.

The strategy backfired. The punt sailed 40 yards. Clark returned it 20 yards to Alabama's 40. The Blue Devils cracked the Tide defense for the touchdown in two inspired runs. First, wingback Jim LaRue gained 20 on a reverse after which Clark rushed through right tackle in a furious charge and scored.

"I'd say that last run LaRue made won the game," Rice wrote. "He fought his way for 20 yards where he might have been thrown for a loss. He carried two red shirts on his back for the last seven yards and it was this terrific determination to win that saved the day for Duke. I've never seen a more thrilling game."

Alabama 34, Southern California 14

ROSE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1946

PASADENA, Calif.—This was Alabama's sixth trip to the Rose Bowl and although the Crimson Tide had enjoyed great success against the West Coast powers, a lot of coast writers and fans always said, "but you've never played Southern Cal."

You didn't hear much of that commentary after this one. Bama won, 34-14.

At halftime, Alabama led 20-0.

Troy's 21 plays had resulted in a net loss of 24 yards. Not until the score was 27-0 in the third quarter did Southern Cal make a first down.

Alabama's "wooden horse" toppled the men of Troy like no team ever before. Southern Cal had won eight straight Pasadena battles since 1923. Fortunately Coach Frank Thomas was merciful. For Thomas it was his last bowl trip as a coach. His health began to fail in 1946 and he was forced to give up coaching in 1947. He died May 10, 1954.

Alabama outgained USC 351 to 41. Troy's pitiful running offense netted just six yards.

Harry Gilmer, the Crimson Tide's extraordinary passer, threw only 11 times, one touchdown resulting. But he ran 116 yards on 16 carries. Hal Self scored twice, sneaking over from the one and on a 24-yard Gilmer pass. Gilmer went over from the one, and Lowell Tew hit left guard from the two for points and Norwood Hodges scored up the middle on a one-yard plunge. Hugh Morrow kicked four extra points.

The great bowl victory assured Coach Thomas a place among the all-time greats. Captain Tom Whitley 15 years later remarked: "Coach Thomas' system would go today. He used innovations no scout could capture with notes and against which no defense could be surely set."

Texas 27, Alabama 7

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1948

NEW ORLEANS, La.—It is a peculiar fact that some of the most celebrated backs in the Southeastern Conference came to grief in New Orleans in their final game. Names coming to mind of those so ill-fated are Billy Cannon (1960), Johnny Majors (1957), Hank Lauricella (1952), and Harry Gilmer (1948).

Three years before, Gilmer, the Alabama sharpshooter, had heard the multitude's roar of applause in the Sugar Bowl. It was a far cry from the reaction of 72,000 fans who saw Texas thwart

Gilmer and the Crimson Tide, 27 to 7, in 1948.

He had blazed so brightly previously in New Orleans and in Pasadena. This time he completed only three of his 11 passes and ran for a mere five yards. By his own evaluation it was the worst day of his college career.

Loudest cheers went to Texas quarterback Bobby Layne. He sent the ball a loft 24 times and made connections ten times for gains totaling 183 yards.

Layne was an excellent field general, ball handler, and passer. He was also a capable runner.

Ground attacks were virtually non-existent. Alabama was restricted to 41 yards. Texas to 59 rushing.

The Tide was not outplayed to the extent the score would indicate. The difference could have been a touchdown. The first half ended in a 7 to 7 standoff. Texas' last three touchdowns were achieved by defensive alertness. Or, to say it another way, Alabama committed three expensive errors—having a punt blocked, having a pass intercepted and run back for a touchdown, and fumbling deep in its own territory.

The entire left side of the Longhorns' line swarmed into the backfield when Norman Mosley tried to punt from Alabama's 25 in the third quarter. Left tackle George Petrovich blocked the kick and left guard Vic Vasicek recovered in the end zone for a touchdown.

Alabama appeared to wilt after that but displayed the heart to stall Texas drives twice within its 10. Then with six minutes left and the Tide gambling to tie or win, Gilmer was rushed hard and threw almost despairingly over oncoming Longhorns' upraised arms. End Lewis Holder intercepted Harry's soft, short, high pitch. He raced for the red flag at the corner of the field 18 yards away, just making it.

A few plays after that, Holder pounced on a Gilmer fumble five yards from another touchdown. Layne got this one on a sneak.

The result was a shock to Alabama followers who expected the large senior contingent, stars of freshman and sophomore appearances in bowl games, to finish in the grand manner. Texas was faster, more powerful, and deserved to win.

Some years later, Gilmer said, "I wouldn't swap the experiences, the thrills, the friendships and fellowships made in bowl games for anything. Of course, a post-season game means a lot of additional work—practice, training and usually the sacrifice of Christmas vacations—but in the end it's worth even more."

Alabama 61, Syracuse 6

ORANGE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1953

MIAMI, Fla.—New Year's Day, 1953, was the first on which football fans could see, through the medium of television, bowl games in Pasadena, Dallas, New Orleans, and Miami. Receipts increased greatly with bigger checks for competing schools and their conference brethren.

Alabama crushed Syracuse, champion of the East, 61 to 6, in the Orange Bowl. Many in the crowd of 66,280 left in the third quarter so they could see more of other bowl games on TV at home.

Because the game was lasting so long, an Orange Bowl committee-man reportedly approached the timekeeper and suggested the game, nearly three hours old at the time, might be speeded up because it was about to be cut off the network.

Fifteen records were set in the fiasco. Even the deepest Alabama substitutes among the 46 Crimson Tide players were record-minded. "We didn't want to leave any still standing," explained tackle Van Marcus.

Alabama rushed for 286 yards and passed for 300. Its total offense of 586 yards and the sum of 818 for both teams were among the Orange Bowl records.

It was a close contest for a quarter when Alabama led, 7 to 6. After two periods the score was 20 to 6. And in the second half, "I just couldn't stop them," said Coach Harold (Red) Drew, a native of Maine who came to Alabama as end coach under Frank Thomas and developed Don Hutson, Paul Bryant, and Holt Rast, among others.

Bobby Marlow, who scored the Tide's second touchdown, was one of the finest running backs in Southeastern Conference history. In three years he gained 2,560 yards. That was 693 yards more than the next highest total in the conference in the 1950-59 period made by Billy Cannon of Louisiana State. But Marlow was not picked on the all-decade team in the conference.

Soon after the game the Orange Bowl committee signed contracts with the Big Eight (then Big Seven) and the Atlantic Coast Conference. Their representatives met for the next five years.

Rice 28, Alabama 6

DALLAS, Texas—A crestfallen player sorrowfully trudged off the field.

"I'm too emotional," he told a reporter. "I kept telling myself, 'I didn't do it. I didn't do it.' But I knew I had."

"I'm just too full of 'Bama. He just ran too close. I know I'll be hearing about this the rest of my life."

What Tommy Lewis, Alabama full-back, had done before 75,504 spectators in the 1954 Cotton Bowl game was the nearest thing to the wrong-way run by Roy Riegels 25 years before.

Rice was leading, 7 to 6, midway in the second quarter. The Owls were in possession on their own 5. Alabama had just muffed a scoring opportunity.

As Moegle approached midfield near the sidelines in front of the Alabama bench, it appeared no player could stop him. No one, that is, except Lewis, who was on the bench, and suddenly ran onto the field barehanded, and threw his body into Moegle's legs. Moegle was felled on Alabama's 41. Referee Cliff Shaw awarded a touchdown to Rice. Moegle was credited with a 95-yard run.

Although Tide coach Harold (Red) Drew said the Lewis incident had no demoralizing effect on his team, the Southeastern Conference champions were never the same again. A let-down was evident. Rice went on to smash Alabama, 28 to 6.

It was Lewis who plunged the final foot for a touchdown on a 47-yard advance in the first quarter.

Rice went ahead on Moegle's 79-yard scamper followed by Fenstermaker's extra point. Dick scurried 34 yards for another touchdown in the third period. He gained 265 yards of his team's whopping 379 rushing. He carried the ball only 11 times, averaging 24.1 yards. After this game Moegle held four Cotton Bowl records and three all-time major bowl records.

At the half Lewis went directly to the Rice dressing room to ask if apologies would be accepted.

"My heart went out to him," Rice coach Jess Neely said. "I told him, 'Don't let it bother you.'"

The Dallas Morning News, in an editorial written by managing editor Felix R. McKnight, a former sportswriter, asked Texans to "drop Tommy Lewis a line. . . and let him know he hasn't lost his last friend. . . (he) committed a forgivable error that will live with him forever. . . he's quite a fighter—and we like them that way in Texas."

Penn State 7, Alabama 0

LIBERTY BOWL—DECEMBER 19, 1959

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Perhaps it was fitting that this was the 13th bowl appearance by an Alabama team. Penn State bested Alabama, 7-0, before 36,211 frigid spectators. But it was the start of something that ran for 24 straight years—that of Paul William (Bear) Bryant taking an Alabama team bowling.

"We weren't a real strong team," says Bryant, "but that team would hit you. We had the makings of something good a couple of years later and it was important for them to get started in the bowl business."

The play that beat Alabama was one that Penn State coach Rip Engle put in just two days before the game. It was a fake field goal, quickly sprung and well executed, as the clock ran out ending the first half.

A 20-mile-an-hour gale held up punts all afternoon and Tommy White's punt just before halftime went only three yards. With the ball on Alabama's 18, second-down and six yards to go, Penn State went into field goal formation without huddling. Quarterback Galen Hall knelt on the 25. Guard Sam Stelletella stood ready to kick. Hall took a high snap, rose and rolled to his right. Roger Kochman took the pass near the 20 and bolted for the goal line, charging behind a convoy of teammates. He was tripped near the end zone but fumbled it in.

We were fortunate not to be beaten by four or five touchdowns," said Bryant. "We just got a good sound thrashing."

BLUEBONNET BOWL—DECEMBER 17, 1960

HOUSTON, Texas—A unique field-goal standoff, something new in big league bowl action, left 68,000 fans neither happy nor hurt as Texas and Alabama fought to a 3 to 3 tie in the 1960 Bluebonnet Bowl defensive struggle.

It was a strange contest from this standpoint, too: if the Longhorns of Texas had won, they would have done so on a play that began after time had officially expired.

End Tommy Brooker kicked a 30-yard field goal to put Alabama in the lead in the third quarter when a drive stalled on the Texas 13.

Dan Petty, a third-team tackle, booted the equalizer. He kicked it from the 10. The play started on Alabama's 3. There were three minutes, 44 seconds remaining.

With 28 seconds to go, Texas took possession of the ball on its 48. An Alabama pass, thrown on fourth down, was complete. But it failed to make the required yardage. No doubt existed about what Texas would do.

The Crimson Tide secondary defense broke up Johnny Genung's first long fling. Alabama's Leon Fuller and Texas end Bob Moses both jumped for Genung's second lengthy throw. The big clock's second half stopped at zero. Part of the crowd flocked onto the field thinking the game had ended. But a handkerchief had been dropped. Interference was called against Fuller. Since a game cannot end on a penalty, Texas was awarded another play.

The ball was placed on Alabama's 18. It would be a field-goal try, of course. Thumped from the 25 by Petty, who in the third quarter had missed from the same spot, it was wide to the left.

Earlier—late in the first quarter, Bobby Skelton tossed a look-in pass to end Bill Rice, who took it on the Texas 40 and ran to the 7 before David Russell overhauled him. It was a 49-yard run.

On third down from the 3, Skelton cut in at left tackle. Millions watching on television thought he had carried the ball across the goal line before being halted. So did many at the game.

"I was in there," Skelton said. "I had chalk all over my jersey when I got up."

A moment later, fullback Bobby Richardson was stopped within an inch or two of scoring.

"Naturally, we all were hoping that last kick by Petty would go through," said Texas coach Darrell Royal. "But it would have been a shame to win it that way. I think the score was indicative of the comparative strength of the two teams."

At the awards dinner, taskmaster Bryant looked at his players, grinned, and said, sincerely, "I want to thank you tonight for putting up with me all this season. I know I've been rough at times, but I hope you won't hold it against me."

Alabama 10, Arkansas 3

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1962

NEW ORLEANS, La.—There were late season rumors that the Rose Bowl might relent on its tieup with the Big Ten and invite Alabama to play in Pasadena. Tide fans couldn't wait.

The Crimson Tide team, too, was hopeful, but the call never came from Pasadena, and Alabama's Bear Bryant took his undefeated National Championship team to New Orleans to face a tough Arkansas team. The Tide barely escaped with a 10-3 victory.

Starting a drive on its own 21, Alabama fullback Mike Fracchia, a high stepper with terrific drive, burst through two tacklers' arms and sped 43 yards to the Arkansas 12 before being halted. Pat Trammell carried the ball on the next play, rolling wide to the left and through tackle. As teammates obliterated all opposition, Trammell ran unhindered into the end zone.

Placekick specialist Tim Davis toed a 32-yard field goal in the second quarter. A fumble, a missed field goal try and a holding penalty after a successful third quarter effort by the Tide kicking expert thwarted other penetrations.

Mickey Cissell got the Razorbacks on the scoreboard in the third quarter with a 23-yard placement.

Late in the game standout halfback Lance Alworth had a touchdown pass trickle off his fingertips that might have turned the game around.

Bryant was proud of his team. "Regardless of who was coaching them, they still would have been a great team. I said early in the season that they were the nicest, even the sissiest bunch I'd ever had. I think they read it, because later on they got unfriendly."

Alabama allowed only 22 points and didn't allow Alabama's goal line to be crossed in the last seven games.

ORANGE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1963

MIAMI, Fla.—In the Alabama dressing room after the Crimson Tide's 17 to 0 Orange Bowl victory over Oklahoma, a photographer asked Coach Paul Bryant to spell the name of a player whose picture he had just taken.

"That's Namath, son—N-A-M-A-T-H," Bryant said. "But don't worry about it. You'll learn how to spell it in the next couple of years."

If the cameraman was unfamiliar with the name, the crowd of 73,380 attending the 1963 Orange Bowl game and millions more watching on television were not.

Long before that game, Bryant said the precocious young man from Pennsylvania was ahead of Babe Parilli (whom he coached at Kentucky) as a sophomore. He rated Namath "potentially the finest quarterback I've ever coached."

Namath piloted his team 61 yards in ten plays for a touchdown in the first quarter. From the Oklahoma 5, he faked a handoff and a short pass, whirled, and sailed a long pass into end Dick Williamson's hands in the end zone.

A sleight of hand pitch-out to halfback Cotton Clark resulted in a 15-yard scoring sprint in the second period. It was the third play after Billy Piper returned a punt by Joe Don Looney to the Sooners' 34. First, Namath threw a pass to Williamson, good for 20 yards. Clark's touchdown was his sixteenth of the year.

Next, and finally, Namath conducted a Tide surge from Oklahoma's 33 to the 2. There, it was fourth down. Tim Davis, Bama's placekicking specialist, toed a 19-yard field goal. This third-quarter opportunity arose when Looney, the nation's leading punter with an average of 43.4 yards, was hurried by guard Frankie McClendon's rush and got off a kick of only seven yards.

Sooner backs were hounded relentlessly by swift-pursuing Bamans who on offense blocked to the end of every play. There were Charley Pell, Jimmy Wilson, Jimmy Sharpe, Bill Battle, Butch Wilson, Ed Versprille, Dan Kearley, and McClendon—all bristling with desire. But the greatest of all, in another superb performance, tackling and blocking, was Lee Roy Jordan.

He was as fine a linebacker as ever played in the South. Perhaps nobody else in college football in 1962 had his almost instinctive ability to seek out the ball carrier so quickly and bring him down so abruptly. It is doubtful if Bryant ever praised a player quite as much.

Fifteen seniors finished the best three years (29-2-2) Alabama ever knew in football. Only a matter of a few inches, the distance by which Jack Hurlbut failed to make a two-pointer after the only touchdown against Georgia Tech (Tech won, 7 to 6), apparently separated the Tide from two straight national championships.

Said Bryant: "Walking around the dressing room shaking hands with them after their last game, it was all I could do to keep from completely choking up. You just love them, that's all."

Alabama and Oklahoma struck the second richest pay lode in the game's history. In 1958, when the Columbia Broadcasting System paid $275,000 for television and radio rights, Duke and Oklahoma each collected $224,308.50. The American Broadcasting Company gave $205,000 for those rights in 1963. Rival teams each got $190,000, some of which, of course, was shared with schools in the Big Eight and South-eastern Conference.

One highlight of the game was that President John F. Kennedy attended.

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1964

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Everyone knew that this wasn't just an ordinary Sugar Bowl game. It snowed on the eve of the game and that was just the first of some unusual occurrences.

With junior standout quarterback Joe Namath suspended for disciplinary reasons, sophomore Steve Sloan, showing the poise and savvy of a veteran, guided the Crimson Tide to a 12-7 victory over the heavily favored Ole Miss Rebels, but it took four Tim Davis field goals to turn the trick.

Davis' kicks of 31, 46, 22 and 48 yards earned the Columbus, Ga., senior the Outstanding Player award. His four field goals were a bowl record and his 48-yarder was the longest in bowl history.

It was 3-0 after the first quarter, 9-0 at halftime and 12-0 going into the final quarter. Ole Miss finally got on the scoreboard when Larry Smith took a five-yard pass from Perry Lee Dunn. Billy Irwin kicked good and it ended just that way, 12-7, Alabama.

With snow piled on the edge of the playing field, The Tide put on a great display of how to win under adversity. The alert Crimson gobbled up six Ole Miss fumbles and intercepted three Rebel passes. And while Ole Miss piled up more yardage (248 to 194), it was Bama who controlled the football by running 69 plays to only 48 for the Rebels.

In the final quarter the Tide defense stopped the Rebels on its two, nine and 28-yard lines to show that its defense came ready to play.

ORANGE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1965

MIAMI, Fla.—Gimpy legged Joe Namath put on one heckuva show and almost pulled a victory out of the fire, but the Texas Longhorns rose up to stop Namath inches short of the goal line late in the game and held on to win, 21-17, over the national champion Crimson Tide team.

Namath was a shoo-in for the game's MVP honors, hitting on 18 of 37 passes for 255 yards and two touchdowns. And his knee was hurting so much that he couldn't start the game.

Texas struck first, scoring with just 23 seconds left in the first quarter when big Ernie Koy sped 79 yards. In the second period Jim Hudson fired a 69-yard bomb to George Sauer to put Texas on top, 14-0.

The Tide battled back, marching 87 yards, with Namath passing seven yards to soph Wayne Trimble for the score.

Texas got a couple of breaks for its next score just before halftime. The Longhorns were seemingly stopped and went for a field goal. Creed Gilmer raced through to block it, David Ray recovered for the Tide and rammed three yards before fumbling. Texas recovered to regain possession. Next Hudson went back to pass, was dumped by Jim Simmons for a loss, but on the play Alabama was guilty of holding a receiver downfield and it gave the Horns a first down on the Tide 13. Three plays later Koy went around right end from the one and it was 21-7 at halftime.

Namath then put the Tide into motion in the second half. He hit Tommy Tolleson, Wayne Cook and Ray Perkins for passes to move to the Texas 20, then hurled a perfect strike to Perkins for the score. In the fourth quarter Namath got the offense going again, only to bog down and have to settle for a David Ray field goal to cut it to 21-17.

Jimmy Fuller intercepted a Texas pass in the fourth quarter, then Namath and Steve Bowman moved the ball within inches of the Horn goal, but on fourth down Tommy Nobis and the Texas line stopped Namath and it ended Bama's hopes.

Alabama 39, Nebraska 28

ORANGE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1966

MIAMI, Fla.—Alabama's cobra-quick Crimson Tide found out just before game time that a victory over Nebraska's big Cornhuskers would mean a second straight National Championship, since upsets earlier that day had set this game up as the National Title playoff.

Striking with daring aggressiveness against the much larger Big Eight power, Alabama won 39-28, but the game really wasn't as close as the final score. Bama ran 86 plays to just 43 for the Huskers. It outgained Nebraska 518 to 377 in total offense and Bama's great quickness and speed just were too much.

Tom Somerville recovered a Nebraska fumble at the Bama 39 early in the game and in seven plays Bama was on the scoreboard, the payoff being a 21-yard pass from Steve Sloan to Ray Perkins.

Bob Churchich passed to Tony Jeter for a 33-yard TD in the second quarter to tie it at 7-all, but Bama promptly marched 89 yards to score, with Les Kelley ripping over from the four. Shortly afterward Sloan hit Perkins with an 11-yard scoring aerial. The Tide then used the onside kick, recovery by Vernon Newbill, and moved to the Nebraska two when time almost ran out before David Ray could kick an 18-yard field goal and make it 24-7 at halftime.

Nebraska scored early in the third quarter, Churchich passing to Ben Gregory for a 49-yard score. Bama marched right back, though, with Steve Bowman cracking over from the one, then Sloan passed to Perkins for two points and it was 32-13. Churchich sneaked over from the one on the first play of the final quarter and it was 32-20.

Bowman got the next Tide touchdown with a three-yard run, Ray kicked and it was 39-20. Nebraska scored with 2:50 left when Jeter gathered in a 14-yard Churchich pass and Churchich passed to Gregory for a two-point PAT, making the final tally, 39-28, and with the victory the National Championship for Alabama's Crimson Tide.

Alabama 34, Nebraska 7

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1967

NEW ORLEANS, La.—It was billed as a classic rematch, Alabama vs. Nebraska, after the Crimson Tide had whipped the Cornhuskers, 39-28, the year before in Miami and won the national championship in so doing.

The 1966 season found Alabama unbeaten in 10 straight games, but frustrated at the polls since Notre Dame and Michigan State had battled to a 10-10 tie and were 1-2 in the ratings.

When Alabama got through with Nebraska this day, though, it went down in history as the finest performance anyone had seen. Alabama completely thrashed a good Nebraska team, 34-7.

"This was the greatest college team I've ever seen," said Bama's Bear Bryant afterwards. Nebraska's Bob Devaney certainly didn't argue.

On the first play from scrimmage Kenny Stabler faded back and lofted a strike to streaking Ray Perkins and it was a 45-yard gain to the Husker 27. Seven plays later big Les Kelley bulled his way into the end zone. The second time Bama had the ball, Stabler hit Perkins for a nine-yard gainer, then flipped to him again for a 42-yard gain to the Nebraska 20. After Stabler had connected to Dennis Homan for six yards, the crafty signal caller rolled out and sprinted 14-yards to score.

Before the first quarter was over Charlie Harris had recovered a fumble at the 39 and Steve Davis kicked a 30-yard field goal making it 17-0. The Tide took over early in the second quarter and marched 71 yards in 10 plays with Wayne Trimble scoring from the six, making it 24-0.

Then in the third quarter another Davis field goal, this one good for 40 yards pushed it to 27-0. Game Nebraska, hitting harder as the game wore on, scored early in the fourth quarter when Bob Churchich passed to Dick Davis for a 15-yard payoff aerial.

Moments later, however, Stabler and Perkins renewed their act and the result was a 45-yard touchdown pass play. Stabler hit 12 of 17 passes for 218 yards, gained 40 more on the ground and was the MVP with Perkins a close second.

COTTON BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1968

DALLAS, Texas—It was cold, drizzly and wet in the Cotton Bowl and Texas A&M took advantage of five Crimson Tide turnovers to upset Bama, 20-16, with Coach Gene Stallings' Aggies winning the pupil vs. teacher matchup.

Alabama drove 80 yards in the first quarter with QB Kenny (Snake) Stabler going over from the three to put the Tide out front first. A&M intercepted a Stabler pass later in the period to set up the Aggie tying score. Edd Hargett passed 13 yards to Larry Stegent for the score.

On the first play of the second quarter Steve Davis booted a 36-yard field goal to give Bama its final lead of the day at 10-7. With just 16 seconds left on the first half clock, Hargett hit Tommy Maxwell with a 7-yard pass to put A&M out front, 13-10, at intermission.

It didn't take long for the A&M lead to push to 20-10 as the Aggies drove 52 yards in six plays with big Wendall Housley going over from the three.

But the Tide wasn't through. It took the kickoff and drove 83 yards in just nine plays, with Stabler racing over from the seven yard line. Bama tried to run for two points, but it failed and A&M led 20-16.

Time and time again in the fourth quarter Alabama threatened but the Aggies defense kept the Tide at bay. With just seconds left a Stabler pass was stolen by Curley Hallman, a youngster who grew up just across the river from Tuscaloosa in Northport. That sealed the Aggie victory.

GATOR BOWL—DECEMBER 28, 1968

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—It was a close game for three quarters, but when the fourth period rolled around Missouri's powerful Tigers pushed home three touchdowns and routed Alabama, 35-10, before 68,011 in the 24th annual Gator Bowl.

It was the worst beating a Bryant coached Alabama team had ever suffered and the statistics tell the story.

Bama had minus 45 yards rushing and a total offense of just 23 yards. Missouri banged out 402 yards rushing, but didn't complete a single pass although it really wasn't necessary. Alabama made just six first downs to 21 for the Big Eight Tigers.

Missouri scored the first time they had the ball, driving 71 yards in 11 plays with Terry McMillan scoring from the four. Alabama tied it at 7-7 in the second quarter when Donnie Sutton intercepted a McMillan pass and raced 38 yards for the Bama score. Late in the second quarter the Tigers drove 55 yards in 13 plays, with McMillan going over from the five. A roughing the kicker penalty against the Tide kept Missouri's drive going, but at halftime it was 14-7, Missouri, and stayed that way going into the final period.

Mike Dean connected on a 25-yard field goal early in the final period to pull the Tide within striking distance, but a Missouri interception put the Tigers in business on the Bama 21 and it took six plays for McMillan to sweep over from the two, making it 21-10.

After the Tiger defense pushed Bama back to its eight, a bad Alabama punt put the ball on the Tide 36. Greg Cook raced in for a score. Alabama tried to go to the air and get back in contention, but Dennis Poppe snared one for the Tigers and sprinted 46 yards to close out the scoring and make it 35-10.

Colorado 47, Alabama 33

LIBERTY BOWL—DECEMBER 13, 1969

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—The enthusiastic Liberty Bowl people wanted an offensive football game to enhance its reputation and brother did they get it when they matched Colorado and Alabama.

Colorado won, 47-33, in a wild one, with everyone scoring for Colorado but "Ralphie," its Buffalo mascot.

The Big Eight school scored on the opening drive, Ward Walsh blasting over from the 13 after driving 80 yards in eight plays. Later in the quarter Dave Haney kicked a 30-yard field goal to make it 10-0.

Then it went to 17-0 as power running Bob Anderson barged over from four yards out to cap an 80-yard march in just eight plays. Alabama was stunned.

But the Tide got in a few surprises of its own, the payoff being pass minded Scott Hunter dashing 31 yards on a sneak to make it 17-7. Later in the quarter George Ranager took a pitchout and got a key block from Johnny Musso to score from the six and it was 17-13, as Bama went for two and failed.

But it took the Buffaloes only six plays to score again. Walsh popping over from the 15. Alabama wasn't finished, however, and drove 72 yards in seven plays to score, Musso going in from the two. Again the Tide went for two and failed, but it was 24-19 with just 46 seconds left in the first half.

Jim Duke's kickoff was fielded by Bob Mastern on the Colorado nine, with Mastern handing off to Steve Engle and he sped 91 yards to score and make it 31-19 at intermission. It was a dizzy first half of fireworks.

Alabama received to open the second half, then with second and 10 from its 45, Neb Hayden arched a long pass to Griff Langston who gathered it in and raced home to score, pulling the Tide within five points at 31-26.

Steve Williams intercepted a Colorado pass minutes later and the Tide was at it again. Hayden again went to the air and hit Musso with a 10-yard touchdown pass to put Alabama out in front of the hectic offensive show, 33-31. The third quarter ended that way.

Colorado marched 53 yards in 12 plays, with Anderson sliding off left tackle from the two to put the Buffs once again out front, 38-33. Alabama's Hayden was caught in the end zone later in the game for a safety, with Bob Brundidge and Herb Orvis getting to the battling Tide quarterback.

Then with time running out and trying to make a last ditch stand, Alabama went for it on fourth and 18 from its own 18. Hayden couldn't find a receiver open in the split second he had to look and was snowed under at his own 11 to turn the ball over. Colorado's Anderson went over from the three with just 45 seconds left and it ended up, 47-33.

ASTRO-BLUEBONNET BOWL—DECEMBER 31, 1970

HOUSTON, Texas—Two offensive-minded football teams battled to a 24-24 deadlock in Houston's famed Astro-dome in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl as Alabama and Oklahoma fought tooth-and-nail down to the wire.

There was a total of 843 yards total offense in the game, showing that defense just wasn't anything to write home about, although both teams did make some key stops along the way.

Alabama scored first. Tight end Randy Moore gathered in a four-yard

Scott Hunter pass to cap a 54-yard, eight play drive. Oklahoma marched right back to tie the game, though, with Joe Wylie scoring from the two. It was 7-7 after one quarter and they were just warming up.

Bama was within the shadows of Oklahoma's goal, only to have an interception kill a drive. The Sooners got a 58-yard scoring play out of swift-moving Greg Pruitt to go on top, 14-7.

Then it went to 21-7, as Pruitt got a key block from Wylie and dashed 25 yards to score after a Bama field goal attempt was no good. With just 14 seconds left before halftime, Hunter hit David Bailey with a five-yard scoring pass and it was 21-14, Oklahoma, at halftime.

In the third quarter Richard Ciemny kicked a 20-yard field goal to narrow it to 21-17. Then came the big fourth quarter. With 7:36 left, fourth down from the Sooner 25, Johnny Musso took a handoff and started wide to his right. He stopped, fired a left-handed pass back to quarterback Hunter and it caught the Okies napping, with Hunter making a dash for his life to score. Alabama led, 24-21.

With only 59 seconds left, OU field goal specialist Bruce Derr hit on a 42-yard attempt to tie the game at 24-all. But Alabama had one last shot. Oklahoma tried an onside kick, but it didn't go anywhere and the Tide had it at the OU 40. Musso broke loose for 21 yards to the 19. Dave Brungard got two yards, then Hunter was hit for a yard loss, and with just five seconds left Bama called time out. Ciemny lined up for a 34-yard field goal try that would win the game, only to have John Shelley get a hand on it and deflect the attempt to preserve the tie.

Nebraska 38, Alabama 6

ORANGE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1972

MIAMI, Fla.—It was billed as the National Championship game, Nebraska ranked first and Alabama second, but the Cornhuskers quickly salted away not only the game but the national title with a 38-6 victory which was greatly aided by a mistake-laden Crimson Tide.

Nebraska scored late in the first quarter after a fumbled punt snap by Bama gave the Huskers possession at the Bama 47. Jeff Kinney ripped off tackle for the score.

Then swift-moving Johnny Rodgers returned a Tide punt 77 yards to make it 14-0, and before you could ask "who?" the Tide fumbled the kickoff and Nebraska had it on the Tide 27. Jerry Tagge kept for the score, making it 21-0, as the wall tumbled down on Bama.

Moments later it was a fumble-fingered Alabama team that again coughed up the ball on its own four and Gary Dixon quickly scored to send the scoreboard to 28-0, still midway in the second quarter.

The Tide settled down, but found it couldn't pass from the new wishbone-T. Finally Terry Davis went over from the three in the third quarter to cut the score to 28-6. Rich Sanger kicked a 21-yard field goal to make it 31-6 at the end of the third quarter, and then Van Brownson scored from the one after a Nebraska interception, to close out the scoring at 38-6.

Stats on the game were reasonably close, but the score wasn't and it was a long trip home for the 16,000 Crimson Tide fans.

COTTON BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1973

DALLAS, Texas—The "battle of the wishbones" found Texas storming from behind in the fourth quarter to capture a 17-13 decision on a cold and blustery day in which the Crimson Tide was unable to get it together on offense.

Following Steve Wade's interception Gregg Gantt kicked a Cotton Bowl record 50-yard field goal.

After an exchange of punts, Wade grabbed his second interception of the young game and raced 42 yards to the Texas 31. On the first play, Wilbur Jackson took a pitch wide to the right and behind Joe LaBue's springing block, cruised untouched for the touchdown and Bill Davis quickly added the extra point to make it 10-0.

Texas drove down for a field goal of 24-yards by Billy "Sure" Schott and then with just eight seconds until intermission, Bill Davis banged through a 30-yard three-pointer for Bama to push its halftime lead to 13-3.

A short Tide punt in the third quarter gave Texas field position and the wishbone Horns drove 59 yards in 15 plays, Alan Lowry scooting over from three yards out and Schott's kick cut the Bama lead to 13-10.

Alabama reeled off a dazzling fourth quarter drive from its 20 to the Texas 34, where on first down, Terry Davis went for broke and tried to hit Wayne Wheeler with a TD pass, only to have Terry Melancon intercept for a touchback.

Texas, going to the air behind Lowry, marched to the Tide 34, from where Lowry bootlegged the final 34 yards, tight-walking the sidelines for the winning touchdown. Schott's kick made it 17-13.

The Tide wasn't finished, though, and marched from its 10 to the Texas 43, where Jackson was stopped short on a fourth and one play, Texas taking over and hammering the final nail into the Tide's coffin.

Notre Dame 24, Alabama 23

SUGAR BOWL—DECEMBER 31, 1973

NEW ORLEANS, La.—It was the first ever meeting between two giants of college football and the game was promoted so heavily even the fans involved got tired of all the advance publicity. It was THE GAME of all time in a lot of ways, and it certainly lived up to every inch of newspaper space and moment of radio-TV air time.

Notre Dame won, 24-23, in one of the truly all-time classics of college football. It had everything you could want in a football game and Notre Dame vaulted from third in the AP and fourth in the UPI poll into the throne room of the national championship after the Tide had finished first in both polls in the regular season.

Seldom do games live up to all the advance and frenzied billing. Just like most Super Bowl games are dull. But when Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame and Bear Bryant of Alabama unleashed two of the finest college teams of modern history onto the Sugar Bowl's soggy artificial turf, this game caught the fancy of the entire football world.

Big plays abounded. Alabama could have put it away in the third quarter, but couldn't deliver the knockout punch. Notre Dame ran a kickoff back for a touchdown, a real no-no in this type of encounter. Alabama had a controversial play develop when Notre Dame roughed the Tide kicker in the waning moments of the game, but it was controversial only in that the TV announcers blew the call. The 15-yard penalty would not have given Bama a first down and Bryant elected to let Notre Dame have the ball backed up on their own two yard line.

But millions of people listening and watching on TV didn't know it wasn't an automatic first down, as it is in pro football. As a result, Bryant received literally thousands of letters and wires about the decision.

Bryant's strategy almost worked. Notre Dame gained almost nothing in its first two plays but on third down QB Tom Clements lofted a 35-yard pass to right end Robin Weber to get the Irish out of the hole and to salt away the victory.

Notre Dame 13, Alabama 11

ORANGE BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1975

MIAMI, Fla.—Notre Dame once again proved to be the spoiler for Alabama's national championship dreams, as the underdog Fighting Irish upset the Crimson Tide, 13-11, and jerked the throne rug right out from under Coach Bear Bryant's team.

Alabama was ranked first in the nation in the UPI poll and second in AP going into the game, with Notre Dame being eighth and ninth. A year before when the two had met with Sugar Bowl as the setting, Notre Dame won, 24-23, and vaulted to the national title. This time all it did was ruin Bama's chance, and give retiring coach Ara Parseghian a retirement gift.

Neither team had much offense, as the defense dominated. Alabama's Willie Shelby fumbled a punt in the first quarter and gave the Irish the ball on the Tide 16. In five plays Wayne Bullock scored from the four.

It went to 13-0 early in the second quarter when Notre Dame put together a 77-yard drive in 17 plays with Mark McLane scoring from the nine, after a Tide penalty had kept the drive alive. Then a Notre Dame fumble gave the Bama team a chance from the Irish 40, but all the Tide could get was a field goal by Danny Ridgeway of 21 yards and it was 13-3 at halftime. The score remained the same going into the fourth quarter.

Then after a good Shelby punt return, Richard Todd found Russ Schamun on a 48-yard touchdown pass play. Todd then threw to George Pugh for a two-point conversion to narrow it to 13-11.

With 1:39 left, Alabama got a chance from its own 38. Todd to Schamun for 16, then to Randy Billingsley for eight to the Irish 38, but Reggie Barnett grabbed off the next Todd effort and iced the game for the Irish.

Alabama's Leroy Cook was the defensive standout, although Ronnie Robertson led in tackles. Bama had more total offense, 285 to 204, but had four turnovers. Todd hit 13 of 24 passes, six of them to freshman Ozzie Newsome for 68 yards and five to Schamun for 126 yards.

A crowd of 71,801 watched this New Year's night game, with NBC-TV televising it nationwide.

SUGAR BOWL—DECEMBER 31, 1975

NEW ORLEANS, La.—For eight consecutive seasons, sports writers had been writing about and fans had been crying about Alabama's terrible bowl drought. Not since Jan. 1, 1967—with a 34-7 victory over Nebraska in the Sugar Bowl—had the Tide won in post-season play.

But with a 13-6 victory over Joe Paterno's Penn State Nittany Lions on December 31, 1975, Paul "Bear" Bryant's team gained the needed respect it had been lacking in eight previous bowl encounters. It was the first Sugar Bowl played inside the pleasant confines of the multi-million dollar Louisiana Superdome, matching third-ranked Alabama (10-1) against seventh-ranked Penn State (9-2).

Richard Todd, Alabama's senior quarterback, put on an offensive show, completing 10 of 12 passes for 205 yards. In running the Tide's wishbone offense to near perfection, he was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Todd passed 55 yards to sensational split end Ozzie Newsome to set up the game's only touchdown in the fourth quarter.

"We had a sweep called to the left side but I didn't like the defense they were in. I didn't want to take the chance of ruining a play," said Todd after the game. "So I called time. I went over to the sidelines and Coach Bryant sort of winked at me. He called a pass.

"We felt they'd be single covering Ozzie. He ran what we call a slant-and-go. The last time we called this particular play was in the Tennessee game. But it was more important this time."

Two plays later, Mike Stock swept left for an 11 yard touchdown.

Danny Ridgeway added an extra point and two field goals to offset Penn State's two three-pointers by Chris Bahr and the nation's leading defense allowed its average—six points—to put the wraps on Alabama's first bowl victory in nearly a decade.

LIBERTY BOWL—DECEMBER 20, 1976

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—A record crowd of 52,737 braved 28 degree temperatures and gusting winds at speeds up to 28 miles per hour in the 18th annual Liberty Bowl.

The "refrigerator bowl" was blown wide open by the Bama defense, which stopped the Bruins twice on fourth down, once at the one, and another time by an interception at the one on third down.

It was sophomore linebacker Barry Krauss, the game's most valuable player, who intercepted a pass and rambled 44 yards for the Tide's first touchdown.

"Our defense was simply magnificent most of the time," said Alabama head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. "Not only were we stopping them, our defense put some points on the board, too."

Bucky Berrey kicked three field goals of 37, 25, and 28, a Liberty record. Johnny Davis plunged one yard for the Tide's first TD. Tony Nathan added six more with a half back pass to quarterback Jack O'Rear, in a 20-yard scoring play.

Rick Watson added a one-yard touchdown run and Berrey was successful in three extra point attempts.

Only a 61-yard run by UCLA's Theotis Brown averted a shutout, but the extra point attempt failed making the score 30-6.

But the Crimson Tide came right back and Rick Watson's one-yard touchdown run ended the scoring at 36-6.

UCLA's young head coach summed up the game as he met Alabama's legendary Bear Bryant at midfield at the conclusion of the game.

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 2, 1978

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Alabama had been knocked to its knees after an early-season 31-24 loss to Nebraska, but it bounced all winningly into a Jan. 2 Sugar Bowl encounter with the Ohio State Buckeyes.

Since a thrilling 21-20 upset of top-ranked Southern Cal in Los Angeles at mid-season, the Crimson Tide had been on a roll, winning its sixth Southeastern Conference championship in seven years and climbing to third in the nation. It was billed as a match between the nation's two winningest active coaches—Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant and Ohio State's Woody Hayes.

It turned into a rout. Alabama won easily, 35-6, and with the upset by fifth-ranked Notre Dame of number-one Texas in the Cotton Bowl, many Crimson Tide fans thought their team should have claimed the national prize. But in a controversial and ever-so-tight vote, the Irish vaulted from fifth to first, with Alabama finishing a close second.

Jeff Rutledge and his comeback team of 1977 wasted no time in putting the game into their control. On the Tide's second possession—a 10 play, 76 yard march—"Touchdown" Tony Nathan scored from a yard away, and the rout was on.

Rutledge finished as the game's MVP, hitting on 8 of 11 in the air for 109 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Johnny Davis, the Tide's bullish senior fullback, led the ground assault with 95 yards and 24 carries.

Alabama led 13-0 at the half and built the margin to 21-0 on a three yard Rutledge pass to Rick Neal in the third quarter before sophomore Steadman Shealy manned the controls in the final period to direct the Tide to another pair of touchdowns.

Ohio State's Chris Ward dealt Alabama the supreme compliment after all the fighting had taken place.

"I don't think they were extremely quick," he said.

"I don't think they were extremely strong."

"I think they were extremely effective."

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1979

NEW ORLEANS, La.—One vivid image was permanently etched into the minds of the 76,824 in the Superdome and the millions of TV viewers who watched the 45th annual Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day, 1979.

Penn State, the nation's No. 1 team was stopped on two consecutive plays inside the one-yard line to preserve a 14-7 victory for Alabama's second ranked Crimson Tide.

That now-famous goal line stand won a national championship for Paul "Bear" Bryant's Crimson Tide.

Alabama appeared content to run out the clock in the first half with 1:11 left. But Penn State called a timeout on two consecutive plays to stop the clock, hoping to get the ball back and set up a field goal. But senior halfback Tony Nathan countered with runs of 30 and 7 yards down to the Penn State 30 yard line.

Penn State coach Joe Paterno watched his plan backfire as Crimson Tide quarterback Jeff Rutledge dropped back and found split end Bruce Bolton wide open in the end zone for a 30-yard touchdown pass with just eight seconds left in the half.

Alan McElroy kicked the extra point to give Alabama a 7-0 halftime lead. A Pete Harris pass interception at Alabama's 48-yard line late in the third period set up Penn State's only touchdown. Nittany Lion quarterback Chuck Fusina hit Scott Fitzkee deep in the end zone for a touchdown. Matt Bahr's extra point kick tied the game with 4:25 left at 7-7.

Moments later, Lou Ikner, Alabama's talented halfback, ran 62 yards with a Penn State punt before being dragged down at Penn State's 11-yard line. Three plays later Major Ogilvie rammed himself into the corner of the end zone, sprung by a key block from tight end Rick Neal. McElroy kicked the extra point ending the scoring at 14-7.

The Nittany Lions had a chance to tie the score when the Lions Joe Lally fell on a misdirected pitchout on an option play by Rutledge at the Tide 19 with 7:57 remaining. Penn State drove from there to a third and one at the goal.

But the Alabama defense sealed off its end zone in a tremendous defensive effort, climaxed by Alabama linebacker

Barry Krauss stopping Penn State tailback Mike Guman short of the goal line.

After the game, Bryant commented on one of the most memorable goal line stands in college football history.

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1980

NEW ORLEANS, La.—The University of Alabama reached a new pinnacle of success as Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's Crimson Tide beat Arkansas 24-9 in the 46th annual Sugar Bowl.

In the process of winning its fifth straight bowl, four of them Sugars, this unbeaten Alabama team became the first Tide squad in the school's history to win 12 games in a season.

A record Sugar Bowl crowd of 77,468 and millions of viewers on national TV watched Alabama win.

After Ish Odenez booted a 34-yard field goal following Arkansas' recovery of Don McNeal's fumble on the opening kickoff, the Razorbacks didn't get back into the game until Alabama was holding a 17-3 advantage in the third quarter.

The game's most valuable player, Major Ogilvie, capped off an 82-yard touchdown drive with a 22-yard scramble to put Alabama up 7-3 in the first period.

Arkansas quarterback Kevin Scanlon fumbled a snap from center and linebacker Thomas Boyd recovered the ball on the Hog 22.

Again it was Ogilvie, minutes later with a one-yard plunge to set up a 14-3 advantage.

With two minutes left in the half, Ogilvie returned a punt 50 yards to the Arkansas 30, setting up an Alan McElroy field goal, which made the halftime score 17-3.

Arkansas came back from halftime with an 80-yard scoring drive in 11 plays but, the Bama defense rejected Scanlon's two-point attempt after the touchdown and the Razorbacks were held scoreless for the remainder of the contest.

Alabama quarterback Steadman Shealy engineered a final 98-yard touchdown drive capped off by a 12-yard blast by senior Steve Whitman.

COTTON BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1981

DALLAS, Texas—Alabama capped off a 10-2 season by decking Southwest Conference champion Baylor 30-2 in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day 1981.

For only the second time since 1971, Alabama had failed to win the Southeastern Conference championship, finishing second behind eventual national champion Georgia. The Tide had been upset by Mississippi State (6-3) to snap its longest-in-the-nation 28 game winning streak and then fell to old nemesis Notre Dame (7-0).

But against Grant Teaff's Baylor Bears, Paul "Bear" Bryant's Crimson Tide was impressive. The 'Bama defense was the big hero, as the likes of middle guard Warren Lyles, E.J. Junior and Thomas Boyd shut down Baylor's thought-to-be unstoppable running tandem of Walter Abecrombie and Dennis Gentry.

The pair had combined for nearly 2,000 yards during Baylor's 10-1 regular season, but on this sunny day in Dallas, they were limited to 54 yards—altogether.

Major Ogilvie (one yard run), Don Jacobs (one yard run) and Mark Nix (three yard run) scored touchdowns for the Crimson Tide and sophomore Peter Kim added a Cotton bowl record three field goals to send Alabama to its record-tying sixth consecutive bowl victory.

COTTON BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1982

DALLAS, Texas—Alabama marched into Dallas as the Southeastern Conference co-champion and its coach as the winningest man in the history of the game, but Fred Akers' Texas Longhorns were not impressed.

Five weeks after Bryant had won his record-shattering 315th contest against cross-state rival Auburn, the Longhorns came from behind to hand Alabama a 14-12 defeat, which ended its season at 9-2-1.

After a scoreless first quarter, Alabama struck to take a 7-0 lead into halftime as sophomore quarterback Walter Lewis tossed six yards to sophomore wide receiver Jesse Bendross. Junior Peter Kim kicked the extra point.

Kim added a 24 yard field goal in the third quarter to put the Crimson Tide out front 10-0.

But Texas saved its best for the final quarter, wherein it scored each of its 14 points. Quarterback Robert Brewer, who completed 12 of 21 passes on the day for 201 yards, directed the Longhorns on two fourth quarter scoring drives, running himself 30 yards for the first points.

Terry Orr's eight yard run was the clincher and Raul Allegre added his second PAT to give the Longhorns a 14-10 lead.

LIBERTY BOWL—DECEMBER 29, 1982

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—The University of Alabama football team retired Coach Paul W. "Bear" Bryant in grand fashion by registering a 21-15 Liberty Bowl victory over Illinois at Memphis, Tenn.

The win gave Coach Bryant a final record of 323-85-17—unmatched in intercollegiate football history.

"Many thanks to the staff for one heck of a job," he said afterward in a crowded press interview tent. "The players' preparation and the coaches' preparation, especially in this circus-type atmosphere, were exceptional.

"I am thankful to have won my final game," said the Crimson Tide coaching legend. "Whether the team likes it or not, they will always be remembered for winning my last game. I am proud they wanted to win this one for me."

Alabama saw fullback Ricky Moore, flanker Jesse Bendross and fullback Craig "Touchdown" Turner score touchdowns for the Tide in Bryant's final battle to overcome Illinois' potent offensive attack.

Even Heisman Trophy candidate Tony Eason who threw two touchdown passes on the evening, couldn't spoil Coach Bryant's final exciting appearance.

"Give Alabama credit," Eason said following his team's loss. "Their defense hit harder tonight than any opponent we faced all season long."

Crimson Tide cornerback Jeremiah Castille ended an illustrious career at Alabama by tying secondary Coach Louis Campbell's single game Liberty Bowl record with three interceptions.

"It sure was great to send Coach Bryant out a winner," Castille said after being named Liberty Bowl "Most Valuable Player." "He really deserved to finish his career on a good note."

With the win, the Crimson Tide ended its 1982 campaign with an 8-4 record. An upset loss to Tennessee and three disappointing November setbacks spoiled what could have been a national championship-type season, but the win over Illinois provided college football's greatest coach one of his most cherished memories.

SUN BOWL—DECEMBER 24, 1983

EL PASO, Texas—It was the largest crowd (41,412) to ever witness an event in El Paso, Texas sports history. The University of Alabama Crimson Tide football team gave the fans their money's worth and shocked fifth ranked SMU, 28-7, in the 50th anniversary of the Sun Bowl.

The game ranked as one of the memorable wins in Alabama football history. Head coach Ray Perkins, who directed the Crimson Tide to its 20th bowl victory, had said the week prior to the game with the Mustangs would be crucial for three reasons.

"First of all, it was the last game for our seniors. It may have been the last game, period, for some. Secondly, this game meant a lot to me because I go out to win every game. Finally, this game meant a lot to the players who return for the 1984 season. A win in our final game of 1983 meant that our players will be able to return next year with a good taste in their mouths," Perkins said following the Tide's impressive, post-season victory.

Alabama gained possession with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter at its own 41 yard line and drove 59 yards in seven plays as fullback Ricky Moore pounded over from the one for the game's initial touchdown. "The offensive line did a great job all day," Moore said after racking up his sixth consecutive 100-yard-plus game with a Sun Bowl record 28 carries.

Following cornerback Sammy Hood's fumble recovery on a Lance McIlhenny bobble, Moore ran untouched for an 11-yard score to put the Tide ahead, 14-0, with 1:14 remaining in the first stanza. The key play in the drive was a 32-yard pass by quarterback Walter Lewis to flanker Greg Richardson.

As the second quarter got underway, Alabama marched 91 yards on a 15-play possession as Lewis capped the drive with a one-yard keeper to move Alabama ahead 21-0, with 7:16 left in the first half. The senior signal-caller from Brewton engineered a march that knocked 6:22 off the clock and he combined for 58 yards (45 passing, 13 rushing). After the teams traded turnovers late in the half, the Crimson Tide put together its final scoring drive of the 1983 season when the team moved 62 yards. The offensive line provided outstanding protection for Lewis, who found split end Joey Jones on a 19-yard touchdown pass with 43 seconds left on the clock.

Although the Mustangs got on the scoreboard in the third quarter when McIlhenny threw a 15-yard touchdown strike to wide receiver Marquis Pleasant to cut the Tide lead, 28-7, the Alabama defense took over and shut the "Pony Express II" down.

ALOHA BOWL—DECEMBER 28, 1985

HONOLULU, Hawaii—Alabama had "fun in the sun" in beautiful Hawaii dominating Southern California 24-3 in the fourth annual Aloha Bowl in Honolulu to end the season with a 9-2-1 record.

Before a crowd of 35,183, the Crimson Tide victory tied USC with the most bowl victories (21) as the traditional football powers met for only the second time in bowl competition. The Tide stopped USC 34-14 in the 1946 Rose Bowl, the last team to play in the bowl outside of the Big Ten and Pac Ten Conferences.

The first half ended in a 3-3 tie and led Coach Ray Perkins to comment afterwards. "This was the worst first half I have been associated with to play such a great second half."

Alabama was whistled for 68 yards on seven penalties in the first half. It scored on its first possession. From its own 15-yard line, the team drove to the USC 31 where Van Tiffin kicked a 48-yard field goal.

Early in the second quarter, USC tied the score on a 24-yard field goal by Don Shafer with 9:36 left in the half. Alabama had stopped the Trojans at the eight yard line on a drive that started from the USC 37.

The charged up Crimson Tide scored a touchdown on its second possession in the third quarter. Greg Richardson returned a punt 14 yards to the Trojan 42. Ten plays later full-back Craig Turner dove into the end zone from the one. Tiffin converted the extra point for a 10-3 lead.

Then freshman Kermit Kendrick intercepted a USC aerial and returned it 16 yards to the Trojan 44. Five plays later quarterback Mike Shula hit wide receiver Clay Whitehurst in the end zone for a 24-yard TD pass. Tiffin converted for a 17-3 lead with 13:25 left.

Alabama forced USC to punt on its next possession and Richardson called for a fair catch on the Trojan 44. Seven plays later, flanker Albert Bell (from Los Angeles, Calif.) ran a reverse around the left side for a 14-yard touchdown with 8:25 remaining. Tiffin kicked the extra point for the 24-3 final score.

Freshman running back Gene Jelks, who gained 79 yards on 17 carries was named the Most Valuable Offensive Player of the game. Junior All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett, who had nine tackles, broke up one pass, and pressured the opposing passers throughout the game, was named the Most Valuable Defensive Player.

The game was televised nationally by Innovative Sports-TV.

SUN BOWL—DECEMBER 25, 1986

EL PASO, Texas—Alabama's star-studded senior class went out in grand style with a sparkling 28-6 victory over the Pac-10 runner-up Washington Huskies. The win gave the Crimson Tide a 10-3 record against one of the nation's toughest schedules.

All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett was selected the game's most valuable player. He led the defense that allowed Washington's high powered offense just 62 yards on the ground, and 241 yards total offense. The Tide didn't allow a touchdown.

After a scoreless first quarter, All-American halfback Bobby Humphrey broke loose for a 64-yard spring for the game's first score with 13:55 left in the second quarter. The Huskies all-star kicker, Jeff Jaeger, booted a 31-yard field goal with 5:55 left and added a 34-yarder with :44 remaining as Alabama took a 7-6 halftime lead.

After two possession exchanges, Alabama's Freddie Robinson recovered a Washington fumble on their 47 yard line. In six plays, quarterback Mike Shula sharply guided the Crimson Tide to a touchdown, completing two passes to Humphrey, and a 32-yard scoring strike to Greg Richardson. All-American placekicker Van Tiffin converted his second PAT of the day with 6:24 remaining in the third stanza. Alabama led 14-6.

On the Crimson Tide's next possession, Humphrey ran three plays for 15 yards. Then Shula hit Angelo Stafford for 27 yards, Richardson for 25 and Humphrey for an 18-yard TD pass. The six-play, 83-yard drive took but 2:11 off the clock and with Tiffin's PAT, Alabama was in charge 21-6.

Alabama's almost unstoppable attack scored again on its next possession covering 92 yards in 16 plays. Humphrey ran in the score from three yards out after gaining 48 yards on ten carries and catching three passes for 30 yards from Shula on the drive. Tiffin converted at the 7:16 mark in the last quarter for a 28-6 victory.

Shula, starting his 27th consecutive game for Alabama, completed 15 of 26 passes for 176 yards with two TD passes to end his collegiate career. Humphrey ended a sensational year with three touchdowns. His 159 yards rushing gave him eight 100-plus yards rushing games for the season.

It was also to be Coach Ray Perkins last game as head coach of the Crimson Tide and it was one of his team's greatest performances during his career at Alabama.

A crowd of 48,722 witnessed the game and CBS televised it nationally.

HALL OF FAME BOWL—JANUARY 2, 1988

TAMPA, Fla.—In a battle of two traditional football powers, Alabama and Michigan met for the first time in the second Hall of Fame Bowl in Tampa, Fla., and the Wolverines won 28-24 on a fourth down last minute touchdown.

NBC televised the game nationally and 60,156 fans looked on as Alabama Coach Bill Curry faced Michigan Assistant Head Coach Gary Moeller who replaced Head Coach Bo Schembechler, who had a heart attack three weeks prior to the game.

A 51-yard Philip Doyle field goal at 8:43 in the first quarter gave the Crimson Tide a 3-0 lead. Michigan's All-American halfback Jamie Morris then proceeded to score three unanswered touchdowns. Two came in the second quarter from 25 and 14 yards out. Michigan held a 14-3 lead at intermission.

On Michigan's second possession in the third quarter, Morris broke through the left side of his line for a 77-yard touchdown sprint with 9:36 remaining. Down 21-3, Alabama came to life and scored three touchdowns for the lead.

With 4:55 left in the third stanza, tight end Howard Cross took a 16-yard scoring strike from quarterback Jeff Dunn to complete a 72-yard drive but the Tide failed on a two-point conversion. Then on Alabama's next possession, the team put together an 85-yard drive with its All-American tailback Bobby Humphrey leaping over from the one yard line.

After forcing Michigan to punt on its next two possessions, the passing of Dunn and the running of Humphrey completed a 79-yard drive with Humphrey scoring on a determined 17-yard run. Dunn completed a two-point play to Clay Whitehurst for a 24-21 lead with 4:49 remaining to play.

Starting from its own 38-yard line after the kickoff, Michigan caught fire and moved to Alabama's 20-yard line with a fourth and three situation. In a surprise move, quarterback Demetrius Brown completed a beautifully executed touchdown pass with 50 seconds left in the game to flanker John Kolesar in the end zone to give the Wolverines a 28-24 victory.

Dunn completed 23 of 40 passes for 269 yards and Humphrey rushed for 149 yards on 27 attempts to lead Alabama offensively.

SUN BOWL—DECEMBER 24, 1988

EL PASO, Texas—Resilient Alabama, behind a superb record-setting performance by senior quarterback David Smith, rallied from behind to defeat upset-minded Army 29-28 in the 55th annual Sun Bowl Classic. Smith shattered passing records set by such esteemed Bama names as Steve Sloan and Joe Namath in guiding Bama to this win on a near perfect football day in El Paso.

West Point, a 14-point underdog at kickoff time, quickly struck to take a 7-0 lead before many of the 48,719 fans

by fullback Ben Barnett set up the first score of the game, a one-yard run by Mike Mayweather, with less than three minutes gone in the action.

Alabama cut the lead to 7-3 in the first quarter, but early in the second period, the Cadets took a 14-3 lead when quarterback Bryan McWilliams capped a 69-yard, six-play drive with a 30-yard TD scamper on a patented wishbone option play. Once again Alabama drove down the field but had to settle for a Philip Doyle field goal, this time from 22 yards out.

The end of the first half brought some of the game's most pivotal moments. While the Alabama defense was trying to figure out the intricacies of the Black Knights' wishbone, Army finally went to the airways on a halfback pass. Bama got a break when passer Calvin Cass overshot a wide open Otto Leone for what would have been a cinch score. Instead the Army had to settle for a field goal attempt from the Bama 24-yard-line. Enter Bama's sensational Derrick Thomas, the king of the big play artistry. Thomas blocked the kick, keeping Army from adding to its lead. David Smith rapidly drove Alabama 76 yards in 1:12 for a score. It took Smith eight passes to do it, five which were completions with the score coming from 7-yards out to Marco Battle. With only :35 left in the first half, Doyle converted the extra point to narrow the lead to 14-13.

Five plays later and with only a few ticks left on the clock, Army lined up for another field goal try, this time from the Bama 27-yard line. Keith Walker's 44-yard attempt was blocked, once again by the omnipresent Thomas.

Midway through the third quarter, Smith artfully drove the Tide to a 20-14 lead, with the TD coming on a 23-yard pass to Greg Payne. Three minutes later, with 1:22 to go in the third quarter, Army had regained the lead on a three-yard run by Mayweather on a fourth-and-goal play, and moments later Army upped the lead to 28-20, thanks to a brilliant 57-yard interception return by safety O'Neal Miller.

Bama and Smith did not panic, driving back to the Knights' two-yard line. However, Army's defense stiffened and Doyle was called on to kick a 32-yard field goal with 7:25 left in the game.

A 19-yard pass from Smith to Todd Richardson and a 16-yard run by Wayne Shaw were the key plays in the Tide's winning drive with senior David Casteal doing the honors from two yards out, leaping into the end zone for the winning score.

Miami 33, Alabama 25

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1990

New Orleans, La.—On the first day of the 1990s, Miami firmly proclaimed itself as the team of the 80s by clinching the 1989 National Championship with a 33-25 victory over seventh-ranked Alabama in a game which would not only ultimately make the Hurricanes first but be Bill Curry's last as head coach of the Crimson Tide.

Miami never trailed in this latest rendition of the Battle of New Orleans, moving ahead 7-0 with 4:55 left in the first quarter on a three-yard run by full-

ricanes on downs and forced a field goal attempt by Carlos Huerta but Bama was guilty of an off-sides infraction, giving Miami a first at the three-yard line.

Two series later the Tide was even at 7-7, thanks to a short punt and a 10-yard return by Gene Jelks which put Bama within striking range from the Miami 36. It took nine plays to move that distance against the renowned Miami defense. A four-yard pass from Gary Hollingsworth to Marco Battle and Philip Doyle's subsequent extra point knotted the game.

Miami was quickly back in front 13-7 after going 78 yards in five plays with Craig Erickson and Wesley Carroll combining for three completions for 50 of those yards, including an 18-yarder for the score. Big Mike Ramil, playing in his final Bama game, blocked Huerta's extra point to leave it at 13-7.

The second quarter fireworks continued with Tide freshman Antonio London recovering a Miami fumbled punt to set up an eventual 45-yard field goal by Doyle. Nine plays later Miami was up 20-10 after Alex Johnson scored from three yards out. In its most impressive drive of the night, Alabama covered 80 yards in 11 plays and scored on a seven-yard pass from Hollingsworth to Lamonde Russell with :40 left in the half.

Alabama was back in business seconds later when senior Lee Ozmint intercepted an Erickson toss and ran it back 23 yards to the Miami 19. Three plays later (after two runs and an incompleteness), Doyle tried a 40-yard field goal on the final play of the half. Doyle had the distance to hit it from better than 60 yards but unfortunately for the Tide the kick sailed to the left and the halftime score read: Miami 20, Alabama 17.

Miami dominated the second half, scoring a pair of TDs on Erickson passes of 11 to Rob Chudzinski and 12 to Randy Bethel. Trailing 33-17 late in the game, Alabama made a heroic effort to get back into the tilt. Hollingsworth hit Miami native Prince Wimbley with a scoring pass from the nine yard line with 2:53 left in the game. A Hollingsworth to Russell two-point conversion pass had the Tide to within eight. However, Alabama's on-sides kick attempt failed and the Hurricanes had little trouble in running out the clock and claiming not only the Sugar Bowl crown but the unanimous No. 1 ranking in the nation as well.

ALABAMA—Touchdowns: Battle (4-yard pass from Hollingsworth), Russell (7-yard pass from Hollingsworth), Wimbley (9-yard pass from Hollingsworth). PATs: Doyle (2 of 2), Russell (1 of 1 pass from Hollingsworth). Field Goals: Doyle (45).

MIAMI—McGuire (3-yard run), Carroll (19-yard pass from Erickson), Johnson (3-yard run), Chudzinski (11-yard pass from Erickson), Bethel (12-yard pass from Erickson). PATs: Huerta (3 of 4), Erickson (0 of 1 pass). Field Goals: none.

Louisville 34, Alabama 7

FIESTA BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1991

TEMPE, Ariz. — The Louisville Cardinals, behind four, first quarter touchdowns, jumped to a 25-0 lead over the Crimson Tide and then coasted to a 34-7 victory in the 1991 Sunbelt Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Arizona.

The game marked the second time Howard Schnellenberger, an assistant coach at Alabama from 1961-65, had faced the Tide as a head coach. Schnellenberger, an assistant under the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant, helped coach the Tide to an impressive, 49-5-1 record, including three SEC and national championships (1961, 64 and 65).

Offensively, the Tide could not get untracked compiling only 189 yards total offense. Alabama's vaunted defense, ranked first in passing defense, third in total defense, fourth in scoring defense and sixth in rushing defense, gave up a Bama bowl-record, 458 yards passing. The Cardinals rushed for another 113 yards to set an opponent record for most yards gained in a bowl game (571).

The Tide defense was unable to stop the Cardinals' Browning Nagle who hit on 20-of-33 attempts for 451 yards and three TDs. The Tide's only score came when Charles Gardner intercepted a Jeff Brohm pass and returned it 49 yards for a TD in the second quarter.

The Cardinals jumped out in the first quarter when Nagle hit Latrell Ware for a 70-yard scoring pass with 7:35 left. Ralph Dawkins came back with 3:40 remaining to score on a five-yard burst that capped a six-play, 26 yard drive. The Tide's Byron Holdbrooks blocked the extra point, but just 53-seconds later, Louisville blocked an Alabama punt and recovered it in the endzone for a touchdown. The Cardinals went for two, but George Teague stopped Ralph Dawkins on the one-yard line.

The Cardinals had picked up 25 points in the first quarter and from there, the Tide defense settled in and allowed just nine points the remainder of the game.

The Tide got on the scoreboard in the second stanza when Gardner intercepted Brohm's pass and returned it 49 yards for a TD. That would prove to be the Tide's only points of the game.

Louisville rounded out the scoring when Nagle threw 19 yards to Anthony Cummings and Bama quarterback Danny Woodson was called for intentional grounding in the endzone.

BLOCKBUSTER BOWL—DECEMBER 28, 1991

MIAMI, Fla. — Alabama relied on a second half rally and three Jay Barker touchdown passes to come from behind and defeat the defending national champion Colorado Buffaloes, 30-25 at Joe Robbie Stadium in South Florida.

David "The Deuce" Palmer was honored with the "Brian Piccolo Award" as the game's most valuable player. He got the Tide on the scoreboard first in his usual fashion, a punt return. Palmer took the punt on Alabama's 48-yard line, ran through four Colorado defenders and scooted down the right sideline 52 yards for the score. Wethington's PAT gave Alabama a 7-0 lead.

A blocked Tank Williamson punt gave the Buffaloes the ball on the Alabama three-yard line and two plays later Scott Phillips ran it in from the one. Jim Harper kicked the extra point to tie the game.

Two possessions later, Alabama was trapped deep in its own territory and Colorado took the lead when Ted Johnson tackled Martin Houston in the endzone for a safety.

Neither team could generate much offense, but the Alabama defense provided the necessary boost when Mark McMillian intercepted a Darian Hagan pass on the 50-yard line and ran it back 49 yards to the one. The Tide lost seven yards in three plays and settled for a Wethington field goal. The Buffaloes used the final 43 seconds in the half and kicked a 33-yard field goal as time ran out.

In the second half, the Alabama offense woke up and drove the ball to Colorado's eight. An apparent David Palmer touchdown was called back because of an illegal substitution, but on the next play (third-and-13) Barker and Siran Stacy connected on a 13-yard pass for six points. The two-point conversion failed and Alabama led, 16-12.

A Colorado touchdown gave them a three point lead (19-16), but Alabama marched 75 yards its next possession and scored on a 12-yard toss from Barker to Kevin Lee. Wethington's PAT put the Tide up 23-19. A 15-play drive in the fourth quarter culminated with a 5-yard touchdown pass from Barker to Palmer and gave the Tide a 30-19 lead. Colorado got a quick fourth quarter score to bring them within five, but the Alabama defense held on in the final three and a half minutes to preserve the victory.

COLORADO—Touchdowns: Phillips (1-yard run), Westbrook (62-yard pass from Hagan), Johnson (13-yard pass from Hagan). Safety: Johnson tackles Houston in endzone. PATs: Harper (2 of 2, kicks), Hagan (0 of 1, pass). Field Goals: Harper (33).

Alabama 34, Miami 13

SUGAR BOWL—JANUARY 1, 1993

NEW ORLEANS, La.—All week long Alabama coach Gene Stallings said he did not consider his Crimson Tide an underdog. In front of 76,789 in the Superdome and a national TV audience, Alabama proved the skeptics wrong as the Tide handily defeated the No. 1 ranked Miami Hurricanes 34-13, winning the national championship for the first time since 1979.

Alabama's defensive strategy stifled Miami's rushing game, only allowing the Hurricanes 48 yards on the ground.

Gino Torretta did pass for another 278, but it would not matter.

With Alabama leading 13-6 at the half, the defense took control of the game early in the third quarter. On the 'Canes first play from scrimmage in the second half, Torretta was intercepted by Tommy Johnson, who returned the ball to the Miami 20-yard line. Six plays later, Derrick Lassic scored from a yard out to increase Bama's lead to 20-6.

Alabama's defense had been giving Torretta problems all day but the one play that virtually spelled the end for Miami came on their next possession. The Tide pulled all 11 players up to line with Torretta operating from the shotgun. His errant pass was snared by George Teague who high-stepped 31 yards for a second Tide touchdown in 16 seconds.

This play by Teague would be a big one in the Tide's victory, however, it would not be the only one Teague would be remembered for in this game.

Trailing 27-6, the Hurricane offense took the field to mount a successful second-half drive. On Miami's second down and 10 play, Teague made one the biggest defensive plays of the season, although it was null and void because of a five-yard offside penalty called against Alabama.

Torretta hit his favorite receiver, Lamar Thomas, who was streaking down the sideline for an apparent six points. Teague streaked down the sideline, ran Thomas down, stripped the ball from him, and proceeded to advance the ball in the other direction for a short gain. The play may not be officially recorded in the records books but it will stand as one of the best defensive plays ever.

The Tide relied on a ground attack to move the ball on offense. Out of the 285 total yards gained, 267 of them came on the ground. Derrick Lassic controlled Alabama's ground game cutting, slicing and weaving his way to 135 yards rushing on 28 carries and two touchdowns. His efforts gained him the Miller-Digby Sugar Bowl Most Valuable Player Award.

MIAMI—Touchdowns: Kevin Williams (78-yard punt return). PATs: Prewitt (1 of 1 kick). Field Goals: Prewitt (49, 42).

GATOR BOWL—DECEMBER 31, 1993

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—A key to this game for Alabama was to stop the Tar Heels' running attack led by 1,000-yard rushers Curtis and Leon Johnson. The Tide would also have to concern itself with the passing game, guided by Jason Stanicek (139-219-1,878 yards and 12 TDs) whose favorite receiver, Corey Holliday, finished the year with 867 yards and two TDs.

A key ingredient for Alabama to win would be the play of back-up quarterback Brian Burgdorf, who was starting for the injured Jay Barker. Also, the Tide defensive backs would be without the services of consensus All-American Antonio Langham, who lost his eligibility for the SEC Championship game and the Gator Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter, Alabama got on the board with a Proctor 22-yard field goal with 11:01 in the second quarter. The Tar Heels answered Alabama's score with a one-yard touchdown carry by William Henderson on the next series giving them a 7-3 lead.

On Alabama's next series, Burgdorf hit three-of-four passing for 27 yard and picked up another 19 himself placing Alabama on the Tar Heels' 33-yard line. On first and 10, Burgdorf ran a draw up the middle for the distance and the touchdown. Proctor's PAT gave Alabama a 10-7 lead.

North Carolina tied the game with two seconds left on the clock before the half on a Tripp Pignetti 23-yard field goal.

In the third quarter, Alabama had the first possession and used its rushing attack to drive the length of the field. On second and goal from the UNC eight, Burgdorf threw his first pass of the drive to Tarrant Lynch in the middle of the endzone for six points.

Alabama's final score was Chad Key's first career touchdown. The Tide picked up three rushing first downs and then Burgdorf hit Key on a 10-yard reception. Proctor's PAT gave Alabama a 24-10 lead with 6:34 left in the game.

UNC's last two possessions resulted in a punt and a loss of down and Alabama ran out the clock.

CITRUS BOWL—JANUARY 2, 1995

ORLANDO, Fla.—The Crimson Tide and Ohio State Buckeyes met for only the third time in the two schools' storied histories at the 1995 CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl. Alabama, winner of the previous two encounters with OSU, was making its first appearance in the Citrus Bowl, the school's 13th different bowl.

A scoreless first quarter was highlighted by a four-legged, unwanted visitor. Alabama took possession following a missed field goal and mounted an impressive drive, but the momentum seemed to escape when a stray dog found his way onto the field and caused a lengthy delay in play. After the curious canine was chased off the field and into a portal, the drive stalled and Michael Proctor's 49-yard field goal attempt was blocked.

The Crimson Tide started another drive on its 20-yard line with just over four minutes remaining in the first period. The 16-play, 80-yard drive ended early in the second period and was capped off by Tarrant Lynch's touchdown run from nine yards out.

The lead was short-lived, however, as 13 seconds later, Ohio State tied the game with a 69-yard bomb from Bobby Hoying to Joey Galloway. The Buckeyes then capitalized on a blocked punt deep in Tide territory, and Hoying hooked up with Galloway once again, this time from 11 yards out, to give Ohio State a 14-7 lead.

Alabama responded with an 11-play, 80-yard drive on the very next possession to tie the game. Sherman Williams finished the drive with a seven-yard scamper and both teams went to the locker room deadlocked at 14.

After a scoreless third quarter, Ohio State regained the lead at 17-14 as Josh Jackson connected on a 34-yard field goal with 8:41 to go in the game. Michael Proctor, who had missed a 25-yard field goal to start the fourth quarter, redeemed himself with a 27-yarder that tied the score, 17-17, with 4:29 left to play.

Then, as it had done all season long, Alabama came through with late-game heroics to pull out a win. With less than a minute to play, Jay Barker hit Sherman Williams over the middle, and 50 yards later, the talented tailback had given the Tide a 24-17 win. Alabama finished the season at 12-1-0, and with the victory, the senior class of 1994 (45-4-1) broke the record for most wins in a four-year period. Sherman Williams was given the Charles Y. McClendon Most Valuable Player Award after rushing for 166 yards, catching eight passes for 155 yards and scoring two touchdowns.

University of Alabama Football Lettermen—1892 To Present

The following is a list of all-time Alabama football lettermen. Information listed should include name, position, hometown (at that time), and years lettered. If a player earned first team All-America status, it is denoted with an * before his name. If he was All-Southern Conference (SC) or All-Southeastern Conference (SEC), it is listed after his name. The following information required many, many hours of research and digging, and the University is indebted to Mr. Jeff Coleman, the Alumni Office, the Gorgas Library and many individuals for providing assistance. We solicit corrections and additions, and please contact the Alabama Sports Information Office about any changes.

How To Get To Legion Field

KEEP THE TRADITION ALIVE

When you purchase an officially licensed University of Alabama product, you play a part in perpetuating the Crimson Tide spirit. Revenues from officially licensed University merchandise are shared among the Paul W. Bryant Museum and two other great UA traditions — academic excellence and athletic success. Purchases of officially licensed products build on that heritage in many ways — not only do they show your support for the Tide, they make a valuable contribution to some of UA's proudest traditions:

- The University's Presidential Graduate Fellowship Support Fund receives royalties from each product sold with the "officially licensed collegiate product" seal on the hangtag or label — providing needed support to outstanding UA graduate students.
- The Bryant Museum on the University of Alabama campus brings history to life, preserving the past successes of Crimson Tide sports. Royalties from officially licensed UA merchandise help maintain and expand the museum — preserving UA's rich athletic heritage for future generations.
- Officially licensed products represent quality — the seal at right is your guarantee that the University will benefit from your purchase and that the Alabama product has met the approval of the University.
